House Murders:

The Beach House Murders John A. Miller Jr, 2012-09-10 What could be more fun than a day at the beach A month at the beach perhaps That's what teenager Mary Ann Markham her live in writing coach Art Parker and her best friend Jennifer Martin think when Mary Ann convinces her wealthy grandfather to rent a fancy beach house for the entire month of July near the small East Coast town of Shipwreck But then strange things begin to happen especially with the appearance of several not very well preserved bodies an unexpected shooting or two and a murder with mob overtones Meanwhile Art becomes close friends with a local emergency room doctor named Marsha and he and the girls become somewhat less than close friends with the local police chief primarily because of the bodies they keep finding Then Mary Ann and Jennifer disappear shortly before a major hurricane hits the area Could it be retired mobster Little Tony Gambolo who lives a short distance down the beach that's behind all these deaths and the disappearance of the girls Art with Marsha's help is at his wits end trying to find Mary Ann Jennifer and the answer to who's behind the killings 31 Murders Alvin A.J. Esau, 2024-02-28 Many decades before Ted Bundy roamed the country there was serial killer Earle Nelson During the 1920s this geographically mobile killer went from city to city His modus operandi involved getting into a house by pretending to be a person looking for a room to rent or inspecting a house that was for sale and then strangling the landlady often followed by having sex with the dead body Robbery was frequently a secondary motive After Nelson was captured in Canada in 1927 it was commonly reported that he had killed 21 women and a baby during the 1926-27 period But were these the only cases linked to him The author examines an additional nine unsolved murders of landladies two of which have never been dealt with in previous literature Based on decades of archival research the author examines all 31 murders relying on primary sources when available and a wide variety of secondary sources For each murder the book provides biographical sketches of the victim outlines the police investigation and the various suspects and covers any subsequent attempts to link Nelson to the crime by identification evidence of witnesses or by fingerprints Victorian Murders Jan Bondeson, 2017-12-15 This book features fifty six Victorian murder cases from the files of the Illustrated Police News Top 20 Unsolved Murders and Disappearances Jade Summers, 2024-06-01 Unveil the Dark Secrets of the World's Most Puzzling Cases Step into a realm of intrigue and suspense with Top 20 Unsolved Murders and Disappearances This captivating book explores twenty of the most mystifying and chilling cases of murder and disappearance that continue to perplex investigators and haunt the public imagination From the eerie disappearance of Amelia Earhart to the chilling murder of JonBenét Ramsey each chapter delves deep into the facts theories and lingering questions surrounding these notorious mysteries With gripping narratives and meticulous research this book is a must read for true crime enthusiasts and anyone fascinated by the unexplained Discover the clues examine the suspects and immerse yourself in these haunting tales that defy resolution As you journey through each case you'll find yourself questioning what you thought you knew and pondering the possibilities of what really happened

Are you ready to unlock the secrets behind these unsolved mysteries      America's Most Chilling Unsolved Murders Dr. James Carver, 2025-05-13 In America's Most Chilling Unsolved Murders the first book of The Unsolved and Unforgotten Series we journey through some of the most brutal and baffling murder cases in American history From the axe murders in Villisca Iowa to the cryptic ciphers of the Zodiac Killer and the notorious Black Dahlia case this volume dives deep into the unsolved mysteries that have haunted the nation for decades Each chapter meticulously examines the victims the prime suspects and the investigation's twists and turns while also exploring the dark psychological profiles of the killers Through gripping narratives and in depth analysis this book uncovers the fear obsession and relentless search for justice that have kept these crimes alive in the public consciousness Through a lens of history psychology and forensics The Unsolved and Unforgotten Series offers an unflinching look at why these mysteries persist and what they reveal about our collective obsession with justice and the unknown These unsolved cases may never have a definitive ending but their shadows stretch far beyond their time leaving a lasting imprint on our psyche and our culture Join us as we revisit the most baffling disturbing and unforgettable true crime stories of the 20th century stories that refuse to be forgotten and will continue to haunt us for years to come      Murder at Home David Wilson, 2023-03-23 Home is where the heart is But home is also the most common site for murder The grimly fascinating new book from the UK's leading criminologist David Wilson uncovers the dangers that exist where we least expect them perfect for fans of The Dark Side of the Mind and The Mind of a Murderer The home is the place where murder most commonly occurs In England and Wales each year on average 75 per cent of female murder victims and 39 per cent of murdered men are killed at home This gripping new title from the author of My Life with Murderers and A Plot to Kill explores the tragic prevalence of domestic murder and how for so many victims their own home is the place they are most in danger David Wilson is the UK's leading criminologist and his knowledge of murder is unparalleled By walking through each part of the house he explains how each room's purpose has changed over time the weapons they contain and ultimately how these things combine in murder Delving into infamous as well as lesser known true crime cases this examination of the tragic ordinary nature of murder is both a chilling read and a startling insight into the everyday impact of violence and how it can touch us all      American Murder Houses Steve Lehto, 2015-02-03 There are places in the United States of America where violent acts of bloodshed have occurred Years may pass even centuries but the mark of death remains They are known as Murder Houses From a colonial manse in New England to a small town home in Iowa to a Beverly Hills mansion these residences have taken on a life of their own gaining everything from local lore and gossip to national and even global infamy Writer Steve Lehto recounts the stories behind the houses where Lizzie Borden supposedly gave her stepmother forty whacks where the real Amityville Horror was first unleashed by gunfire and where the demented acts of the Manson Family horrified a nation as well some lesser known sites of murder that were no less ghastly Exploring the past and present of more than twenty five renowned homicide scenes American Murder Houses is a tour through the real estate of some of the most grisly and fascinating crimes in American history INCLUDES PHOTOGRAPHS     The Borden Murders Sarah Miller, Sarah Elizabeth Miller, 2016 Examines the Borden murders using newspaper articles to recreate the events and the trial and acquittal of Lizzie Borden and exploring Lizzie's story to theorize on what may have happened     The Evil in Ullswater Paul Weightman, 2019-08-07 There's a killer in Ullswater A murderer lives among the citizens in this small Cumbrian Lake District community But no one noticed that one of them has an evil side an Inner Darkness Even after the grisly 1996 triple homicides at a local masquerade party the killer was presumed to be an outsider No one wanted to admit that a murderer lived in their idyllic town Four years later a stranger arrives in Ullswater to rent the same house where the murders occurred Grimshaw House Alone it was an unremarkable event but for the fact that Edna Gemmell bears a striking resemblance to one of the murder victims Edna believes she's safe behind the locked doors at Grimshaw House She has no idea that the house has secret entrances But the killer does     West Port Murders William Burke, 1829     The Romanovs'

Murder Case T. G. Bolen, 2018-06-28 Every fairy tale contains the story of a prince and once the prince meets his princess they often live happily ever after But for Nicholas II tsar of all the Russias and his wife Princess Alexandra of Hesse the ending would be different At age fifty brutally murdered by his subjects Nicholas's body was mutilated and thrown into an unmarked mass grave with eight other people in a swampy bog in the middle of a remote forest The Romanovs Murder Case takes a detailed look at the infamous mass murder of this Russian imperial family stripped of its claim to the throne before being executed in 1918 following the February Revolution Author T G Bolen investigates the evidence from the site of the murders the Ipatiev House ultimately refuting investigator Nicholas Sokolov's report that locates the murders in the home's basement Bolen also provides for the first time details of the United States intelligence officer Homer Slaughter who was in the Ipatiev House within twenty four hours of the murders This study shows that the Romanov murders may very well have occurred in different rooms in the house and that there was no eleven person massacre And although this story will never end happily ever after revealing new evidence to refute the prevailing story will shed new light on the truth

Buckinghamshire Murders Dr Jonathan Oates, 2012-01-31 This chilling volume brings together more murderous tales that shocked not only the county but made headline news throughout the nation Covering the length and breadth of Buckinghamshire the featured cases include the brutal slaying of a family of seven in Denham in 1870 the killing of a butcher's wife in Victorian Slough for which no one was ever found guilty a double shooting at Little Kimble and a killing near Haddenham in 1828 in which a letter written a year later sealed the killers fate and the doctor who disappeared in 1933 and whose decomposed corpse was found in Buckinghamshire woods the following year This well illustrated and enthralling text will appeal to everyone interested in true crime history and the shadier side of Buckinghamshire's past     Murder on Trial Robert Asher, Lawrence B. Goodheart, Alan Rogers, 2012-02-01 This fascinating collection examines murder jurisprudence the social rules that govern the arrest trial and punishment of people accused of murder in the United States from the colonial period to the present The contributors show how changing social mores have influenced the application of murder law by highlighting the ways cultural biases like racism changing ideas about childhood and insanity and the ameliorative effects of middle class status and paternal imagery both helped and handicapped persons accused of murder Such famous cases as the Lizzie Borden axe murder and African American activist Abu Jamal s murder trial are included Mersey Murder
