Charisma of Trikon Houses Raj Kumar, In any horoscope the 1st 5th 9th houses are considered to be the most auspicious ones It is believed that the soul enters the world through 5th house of Poorva Janam Karma to the ascendant in the form of human body and exit through the 9th house after completing the Karma assigned for the present birth through 10th house These three houses together constitute the spiritual or Dharma Trikon which primarily aims at transforming the native to a higher stage of evolution through their Divine faculties and creativity Their lords irrespective of their natural traits are favourable to a native leading to greater happiness The ascendant is always the most beneficial house and its lord the most helpful planet which guides and assists the native in all walks of life The houses constituting Dharma Trikon reveal many special features of the native s destiny through his sojourn during the present incarnation As per classics there are four goals of human life Dharma Artha Kaam Moksha Classics have extolled Dharma Moksha and looked down Artha Kaam But Materialistic world of today has just the opposite view Corresponding to the four goals are the four Trikones in any chart All the four trikones have their Apex in a Kendra house which indicates the involvement of the native in immediate everyday life There is no denying the prominence of Dharma Trikona but to ignore the other three will be a Himalayan blunder In fact all the four Trikones are dependent on Artha Trikona for sustenance and all the progress we see around us originates and get accomplished in Kaam Trikona

A House of Gentlefolk Ivan Sergeevich Turgenev, 2020-09-28 A bright spring day was fading into evening High overhead in the clear heavens small rosy clouds seemed hardly to move across the sky but to be sinking into its depths of blue In a handsome house in one of the outlying streets of the government town of O it was in the year 1842 two women were sitting at an open window one was about fifty the other an old lady of seventy The name of the former was Marya Dmitrievna Kalitin Her husband a shrewd determined man of obstinate bilious temperament had been dead for ten years He had been a provincial public prosecutor noted in his own day as a successful man of business He had received a fair education and had been to the university but having been born in narrow circumstances he realized early in life the necessity of pushing his own way in the world and making money It had been a love match on Marya Dmitrievna's side He was not bad looking was clever and could be very agreeable when he chose Marya Dmitrievna Pesto that was her maiden name had lost her parents in childhood She spent some years in a boarding school in Moscow and after leaving school lived on the family estate of Pokrovskoe about forty miles from O with her aunt and her elder brother This brother soon after obtained a post in Petersburg and made them a scanty allowance He treated his aunt and sister very shabbily till his sudden death cut short his career Marya Dmitrievna inherited Pokrovskoe but she did not live there long Two years after her marriage with Kalitin who succeeded in winning her heart in a few days Pokrovskoe was exchanged for another estate which yielded a much larger income but was utterly unattractive and had no house At the same time Kalitin took a house in the town of O in which he and his wife took up their permanent abode There was a large garden round the house which on one side looked out upon the open country away from the town

The House of Defence E. F. Benson, 2016-01-19 Chapter I The little travelling clock that stood on the broad marble chimney piece looking strangely minute and insignificant on the slab supported by two huge Caryatides had some minutes ago rapped out the hour of eight in its jingling voice but here in these high latitudes of Caithness since the time of the year was close on midsummer the sun still swung some way above the high hills to the north west It shone full with the cool brightness of the light of Northern evenings into the deep seated window where Maud Raynham was sitting waiting without impatience for impatience was alien to her serene habit of mind but with a little touch of anxiety for her brother's return The anxiety the wish that he would come could not be absent since affection and all its kindred cares were the hearth side inhabitants of her heart Also it must be confessed she was extremely hungry and wanted dinner quite enormously The window in which she sat was one of six for the room was of great extent and looked perhaps even larger than it really was owing to its half dismantled condition while the shining parquettèd floor almost bare of carpets was like a surface of dim looking glass multiplying the area House of Dragon Blood K.N.
