United States of America V. Delgadillo-Maldonado, 1990 Catharsis Luis Reinaldo Perez Rosario, 2016-12-06 Grief can do terrible things to us It can hold us still in time and skew our perspective That is the case with William Maldonado who grieves the loss of his father as a child to war the loss of his mother as a young adult to an illness the loss of an opportunity to pursue a doctoral degree and the loss of his professional reputation to an accusation of committing insurance fraud

Subterranean sorrow leads Maldonado to make wrong minded decisions that eventually lead him to prison and then to a half way house One day as he tries to understand his grief he blames the world and in particular a former business partner Full of rage he returns to the city where he experienced his deepest wounds Upon his return he discovers that his former business partner now a Pentecostal minister emerged unscathed from the insurance fraud scandal that sent him fleeing for a decade That discovery thrusts Maldonado on a path of revenge and into the roiling world of church politics where he joins a secession group that wants to fire his former partner It takes the whims of fate and new friendships for Maldonado to experience clarity of purpose

Trev takes matters into his own hands literally He starts learning to box to handle his stepdad But not everyone is a fan of his plan because Trev s a talented artist and his hands could actually help him build a better future And they re letting him know but their advice for some distant future feels useless in his reality right now Ultimately Trev knows his future is in his hands and his hands are his own and he has to choose how to use them
