House On The Borderland Manors:

The Collected Fiction of William Hope Hodgson: House on Borderland & Other Mysterious Places William Hope Hodgson, 2011-10-01 The second of a five volume set collecting all of Hodgson's published fiction Each volume contains one of Hodgson's novels along with a selection of thematically linked short fiction Borderland Dorota Sieron-Galusek, Lukasz Galusek, 2020-03 Borderland On Reviving Culture is a most timely book that tells the story of a project for our times It is the story of the Borderland organization which consists of two dovetailing initiatives an international NGO the Borderland Foundation and the more locally and nationally focused Borderland Centre of Arts Culture and Nations Borderland is based in the far northeastern corner of Poland close to the borders of Russia Lithuania and Belarus where it has devised an array of programs and initiatives designed to promote harmonious cultural plurality in a region of inter ethnic and religious tensions that date back centuries Ian Watson Director of the Theatre Program Director of the Urban Civic Initiative Department of Arts Culture and Media Rutgers University Newark The Manor House: The Hand in the Dark and Other Poems Ada Cambridge, 2020-09-28 AN old house crumbling half away all barnacled and lichen grown Of saddest mellowest softest grey with a grand history of its own Grand with the work and strife and tears of more than half a thousand years Such delicate tender russet tones of colour on its gables slept With streaks of gold betwixt the stones where wind sown flowers and mosses crept Wild grasses waved in sun and shade o'er terrace slab and balustrade Around the clustered chimneys clung the ivy's wreathed and braided threads And dappled lights and shadows flung across the sombre browns and reds Where'er the graver's hand had been it spread its tendrils bright and green Far stretching branches shadowed deep the blazoned windows and broad eaves And rocked the faithful rooks asleep and strewn the terraces with leaves A broken dial marked the hours amid damp lawns and garden bowers An old house silent sad forlorn yet proud and stately to the last Of all its power and splendour shorn but rich with memories of the past And pitying from its own decay the gilded piles of yesterday Pitying the new race that passed by with slighting note of its grey walls And entertaining tenderly the shades of dead knights in its halls Whose blood that soaked these hallowed sods came down from Scandinavian gods I saw it first in summer time The warm air hummed and buzzed with bees Where now the pale green hop vines climb about the sere trunks of the trees And waves of roses on the ground scented the tangled glades around Some long fern plumes drooped there below the heaven above was still and blue Just here between the gloom and glow a cedar and an aged yew Parted their dusky arms to let the glory fall on Margaret She leaned on that old balustrade her white dress tinged with golden air Her small hands loosely clasped and laid amongst the moss and maidenhair I watched her hearing as I stood a turtle cooing in the wood Hearing a mavis far away piping his dreamy interludes While gusts of soft wind sweet with hay swept through those garden solitudes And thinking she was lovelier even than my young ideal love had been Tall with that subtle sensitive grace which made so plainly manifest That she was born of noble race a cool hushed presence bringing rest Of one who felt and understood the dignity of womanhood

Tall with a slow proud step and air with skin half marble and half milk With twisted coils of raven hair blue tinged and fine and soft as silk With haughty clear cut chin and cheek and broad brows exquisitely Greek With still calm mouth whose dreamy smile possessed me like a haunting pain So rare so sweet so free from guile with that slight accent of disdain With level liquid tones that fell like chimings of a vesper bell With large grave stag eyes soft yet keen with slumbering passion hazel brown Long lashed and dark whose limpid sheen my thirsty spirit swallowed down O poor pale words wherewith to paint my queen my goddess and my saint The House on the Borderland William Hope Hodgson,1977 From the chilling adventure tale of the sea The Boats of the Glen Carrig and the power and horror of The Ghost Pirates to the strange and haunting vision of the House on the Borderland and the bizarre and wonderfully imaginative The Night Land the four great novels of William Hope Hodgson are universally recognized as one of the landmarks in the literature of the weird and fantastic Strange and compelling these are powerful works that exercise the same fascination today as they did on Lovecraft and Clark Ashton Smith and all four are collected here Pickman Perspectives book i Sam Inabinet, Memorials of the West, Historical and Descriptive, Collected on the Borderland of Somerset, Dorset, and Devon W. abodes of significant culture generating forces From the academic point of view their undeniable appeal lies in the fact that they constitute spaces of mutual interactions and enable new cultural phenomena to surface grow or decline and as such are worth thorough and constant scrutiny However they also provide the setting for radical clashes between ideologies languages religions customs and as the media report every single day armies or guerrilla units Living within such areas of creative dynamics and destructive friction or visiting them even vicariously as the contributors to the volume do is tantamount to exposing oneself to a difference One s response to this difference either in the form of rejection or more preferably acceptance or a mixture of both is not merely an index of one s tolerance a platitudinised term itself that all too often hides an attitude of comfortable indifference but an affirmation of humaneness Borderlands are paradoxical if not aporetic loci They simultaneously connote territories on either side of a border in a literal sense and a vague intermediate state or region in a metaphorical sense Encapsulating the idea of border the term indicates both inescapable nearness and unavoidable or perhaps unbridgeable separateness The studies included in the volume focus on various aspects of borderland art and literature on analyses of selected works and on the peculiarities of cultural and literary representations Thus the borderland landscape both literal and metaphorical comes to be seen as a factor contributing to the emergence of new distinct and identifiable themes and motifs as well as theoretical frameworks
