Houses A Family Memoir Of Grace:

Houses Roberta C. Bondi, 2000 Compared to her previous books Houses A Memoir of Grace is much less overtly theological and even more autobiographical Over the course of the chapters each of which is more or less structured around a particular house in which Bondi or one of her foremothers lived Bondi reconstructs how she came to be who she is She particularly focuses on how the women and the houses in her past and in her foremothers pasts shaped her life and their lives On this structure of houses are hung many different insights and stories of both pain and pleasure abuse and self discovery and intermingled with all this necessarily discoveries about God Houses is written as a story one that is vividly told and replete with conversation and description of farm life in the South and city life in New York As is her custom Bondi also includes the many insights dreams revelations and theological reflections that characterize her life and writing It is a book that will especially appeal to those interested in self understanding and self esteem as well as the complexity of intergenerational traditions and behaviors Memoirs of the Family of Grace Sheffield Grace, 1823 Finding Home Julie K. Ageson, 2020-07-24 For all who know the security of home in all its iterations and for those who don't finding home is complicated Home always is characterized by joy and sorrow grief and gladness the realities of complicated lives What is it like to flee the horrors of war as a refugee in search of home When daily life is unbearable what exactly does home mean How do we learn to be at home in our bodies at home with ourselves What does it mean to be made in the likeness of the Holy One Can we find home in the company of strangers and how do we reclaim our earth home So many images swim just below the surface of my memory all the houses where I came to know home It takes little to retrieve them a shared story the pungent smell of tide flats the sound of rain on a tin roof But home of course is much more than houses These reflections invite readers to explore identity the importance of rootedness discovering home away from home what it means to be home for one another Finding home literally and metaphorically is challenging Memorials of the Family of Grace Sheffield Grace, 1823 Ernest Hemingway Linda Wagner-Martin, 2022-02-08 Ernest Hemingway A Literary Life includes new research on the best known of the posthumous publications A Moveable Feast 1964 and the 2009 A Moveable Feast The Restored Edition Islands in the Stream 1970 and The Garden of Eden 1986 Linda Wagner Martin provides background and intertextual readings particularly of the way Hemingway's unpublished stories Phillip Haines was a writer and his fiction from Men Without Women and Winner Take Nothing interface with the memoir The revised edition also highlights and provides background on Hemingway's treatment of F Scott Fitzgerald and Gertrude Stein his life in Paris in the 1920s and his connection to the poetry scene there putting this in conversation with Mary Hemingway's edits of A Moveable Feast The new chapters also illuminate the reception of Islands in the Stream and a new way of understanding the role of gender and androgyny in The Garden of Eden On a whole the book draws from extensive archival research particularly correspondence of all four of Hemingway's wives Women, Gender and Enlightenment B.
