Houses I Called Home:

A Place We Call Home K. Amimahaum Ducre, 2013-01-04 Faith holds up a photo of the boarded up vacant house It s the first thing I see And I just call it the Homeless House cause it s the house that nobody fixes up Faith is one of fourteen women living on Syracuse s Southside a predominantly African American and low income area who took photographs of their environment and displayed their images to facilitate dialogues about how they viewed their community A Place We Call Home chronicles this photography project and bears witness not only to the environmental injustice experienced by these women but also to the ways in which they maintain dignity and restore order in a community where they have traditionally had little control To understand the present plight of these women one must understand the historical and political context in which certain urban neighborhoods were formed Black migration urban renewal white flight capital expansion and then bust Ducre demonstrates how such political and economic forces created a landscape of abandoned housing within the Southside community She spotlights the impact of this blight upon the female residents who survive in this crucible of neglect A Place We Call Home is the first case study of the intersection of Black feminism and environmental justice and it is also the first book length presentation using Photovoice methodology an innovative research and empowerment strategy that assesses community needs by utilizing photographic images taken by individuals The individuals have historically lacked power and status in formal planning processes Through a cogent combination of words and images this book illuminates how these women manage their daily survival in degraded environments the tools that they deploy to do so and how they act as agents of change to transform their communities Maggie's Place A House to Call Home Mary Anne Wood, 2010-05 A Place to Call Home Dr. Tom Obondo Okoyo, 2015-11-20 A Place to Call Home is a story of refugees no community wanted to see anywhere close to them as if they were good for nothing It is an epic portrayal of a painful dilemma of thousands of homeless internally displaced persons IDPs who were victims of the highly contested and disputed presidential election The novel is a true tear jerking reflection of a botched election in December 2007 and January 2008 which culminated into a postelection violence that brutally killed almost there thousand innocent people Some were burned alive inside a church Gods territory as they called where they had taken safe haven About seven hundred thousand people were forcibly removed from their homes some took refuge at police stations while others fled to neighboring countries to remain alive Business premises vehicles and other properties worth billions of shillings were destroyed and domestic animals were stolen This spate of violence happened at a time when thousands of ethnic militias heavily armed with homemade crude weapons were chanting war slogans and singing traditional war songs everywhere in the country Loyal to their respective presidential candidates the militias roamed the streets of towns and villages making every journey perilous Enemies who got caught were beheaded and their heads were paraded or displayed on the main highways Women were seized and gang raped by the militias and got infected with the deadly HIV AIDS virus Amazingly communities turned their backs against the combined IDPs who were looking for a permanent settlement calling them foreigners invaders or land grabbers in their own country Breathing under such horrifying circumstances all IDPs drawn from various tribes resolved to live together in peace and harmony and to prove to the world that they could live with people from other communities without any problem in spite of their language and cultural barriers The idea of living together was instilled in the IDPs by VP Nyandeghe who emerged as the leading light in their plight and the quest for what they could call home VP Nyandeghe won a special place in fellow IDPs hearts and made them believe that life was worth fighting for For seven years these IDPs have been living in squalid conditions or in makeshift camps waiting to be settled as promised by the ruling elite The IDPs lived in rough and ready dwellings with no food water toilet facilities social amenities or sanitation at all They were living in a world of their own no laws rules or culture to observe The fate of these IDPs is reminiscent of the Jews when they lived in Europe and were rejected by people in all countries after World War II and consequently had no place to call their home After seven years in isolated makeshift camps the IDPs were offered land to settle on by the Biblical Good Samaritan to prove that tribal groups once sworn enemies could live together peacefully and harmoniously And now these IDPs would like to build the countrys first utopia the same way the Israelis have transformed the desert land of Israel into another biblical Promised Land of Canaan the land of milk and honey This unfortunate event was disseminated throughout the world by the mass media A Place Called Home Kim R.

Manturuk, Mark R. Lindblad, Roberto G. Quercia, 2017 A Place Called Home explains that homeownership is associated with many positive and surprising non financial outcomes and also how and why this is so The book ultimately argues that homeownership is an important social tool that can improve the lives of low and moderate income people Designing a Place Called Home James Wentling, 2016-12-28 This insightful volume shares design ideas to help builders planners and architects create mass produced affordable housing that pushes suburban development in more sustainable liveable directions The author argues that improving the quality of design in our new homes and communities for greater resiliency sustainability and equality we can build neighborhoods and communities where residents feel more connected to their homes and to one another Through text photographs and illustrations the book reviews prototypical American housing design then suggest ways to both learn from the past as well as adapt for new environmental imperatives demographic changes and lifestyle needs Written by a practicing architect with 25 years of experience optimizing residential design this pioneering approach to suburban building will inspire readers to view mass produced housing through a new modern lens A Dream Called Home Reyna Grande, 2019-07-02 Here is a life story so unbelievable it could only be true Sandra Cisneros bestselling author of The House on Mango Street From bestselling author of the remarkable memoir The Distance Between Us comes an inspiring account of one woman s quest to find her place in America as a first generation Latina university student and aspiring writer determined to build a new life for her family one fearless word at a time As an immigrant in an unfamiliar country with an indifferent mother and abusive father Reyna had few resources at her disposal Taking refuge in words Reyna

s love of reading and writing propels her to rise above until she achieves the impossible and is accepted to the University of California Santa Cruz Although her acceptance is a triumph the actual experience of American college life is intimidating and unfamiliar for someone like Reyna who is now estranged from her family and support system Again she finds solace in words holding fast to her vision of becoming a writer only to discover she knows nothing about what it takes to make a career out of a dream Through it all Reyna is determined to make the impossible possible going from undocumented immigrant of little means to a fierce smart shimmering light of a writer Cheryl Strayed author of Wild a National Book Critics Circle Award Finalist whose power is growing with every book Luis Alberto Urrea Pulitzer Prize finalist and a proud mother of two beautiful children who will never have to know the pain of poverty and neglect Told in Reyna s exquisite heartfelt prose A Dream Called Home demonstrates how by daring to pursue her dreams Reyna was able to build the one thing she had always longed for a home that would endure

A Place Called Home Merle Sowman, Penny Urquhart, 1998 Quality of life a healthy environment and sound development are closely linked This book provides ideas and guidance on the upgrading of informal settlements and planning of low cost housing projects so that they are environmentally sustainable By considering environmental factors at all stages of the planning design and development process living conditions in such settlements and housing projects can be significantly improved Includes a list of useful addresses

A Place to Call Home Ellen Lawrence, 2015-01-01 When we think of home we might think of living in an apartment or a house but not everyone lives in a home like this Some children grow up on a houseboat in a floating village Others live in huts that are carefully crafted from branches and animal dung And many children live in makeshift tent homes in refugee camps In A Place to Call Home young readers will learn about the many different types of structures and places that children and their families call home

A Place to Call Home James T. Farmer, 2020-11-11 The acclaimed interior designer combines rich tradition with modern sensibilities in this beautifully photographed book of homes across the deep South James Farmer s design firm works with clients across the South who want to turn their houses into homes Now Farmer takes readers on a guided tour of eleven home projects from makeovers to remodels and new construction as he brings together a cultivated mix of high and low storied and new collected and found presenting them all as a thoughtfully exhibited array of taste style good architecture and interior comfort Woven alongside beautiful photography of interiors and exteriors are personal stories James shares about living in the South the people in his life and how he fell in love with home design A Place to Call Home is a beautiful book to inspire Southern style at home infusing the new with antique vintage and heirloom pieces

Nowhere to Call Home Leah Denbok, 2017-11-13 I invite you to look into the eyes of the homeless they tell a story Homelessness is a serious problem throughout North America even in Canada and the United States two of the richest countries in the world We must stop this madness says Leah Denbok the teenage Canadian photographer who travelled with her dad for over two years to cities throughout North America photographing and interviewing the homeless Leah was inspired by the story of her mother who at three years old was rescued from the streets of Calcutta by Saint Teresa formerly Mother Teresa Nowhere to Call Home is a collection of gritty black and white photographs and the personal stories of individuals who live on the streets The haunting beauty of the images will stay with you long after you turn the last page All the profits from the sale of this book will go to the Salvation Army Barrie Bayside Mission Centre

Calling Home Janet Zandy, 1990 Working class women are the majority of women in the United States and yet their work and their culture are rarely visible Calling Home is an anthology of writings by and about working class women Over fifty selections represent the ethnic racial and geographic diversity of working class experience This is writing grounded in social history not in the academy Traditional boundaries of genre and periodization collapse in this collection which includes reportage oral histories speeches songs and letters as well as poetry stories and essays The divisions in this collection telling stories bearing witness celebrating solidarity address the distinction of by or about working class women and show the connections between individual identity and collective sensibility in a common history of struggle for economic justice The geography of home identity parents sex motherhood the dominance of the job the overlapping of private and public worlds the promise of solidarity and community are a few of the themes of this book Here is a chorus of working class women's voices Sandra Cisneros Barbara Garson Meridel Le Sueur Tillie Olsen Barbara Smith Endesha I M Holland Mother Jones Nellie Wong Agnes Smedley Bobbie Louise Hawkins Sharon Doubiago Carol Tarlen Hazel Hall Margaret Randall Judy Grahn and many others The aesthetic impulse is shaped by class but not limited to one ruling class What connects these writers is a collective consciousness a class which rejects bondage and lays claim to liberation through all the possibilities of language Calling Home is illustrated with family photographs as well as images of working women by professional photographers
