Houses Of Healing A Prisoners Guide To Inner Power And Freedom:

Houses of Healing Robin Casarjian,1996      Fear No Evil: A Guide for Prison Chaplaincy Dr. Aaron W. Mobley,2017-03 Prison ministry is a very challenging profession The dangers red tape bureaucracy and legal ramifications are enormous But God calls us to go into ALL nations This does include the dangers behind razor wire Prison is an intimidating place the first time you walk inside It is full of enormous hazards and roadblocks There are very dangerous individuals inside the prison fence There are also some much unexpected individuals locked away On a daily basis there are inmates who give me the stare of death Their game is intimidation power and corruption Yet the darkness and evil of prison is exactly where Christians should be We are called to be the light in the darkness With Christ as our guide we should fear no evil      Creating a Healing Society Susan Lawrence M D,Susan E. Lawrence,2006 Dr Susan Lawrence s Creating a Healing Society program pioneers the recognition of the devastating impact of human emotional pain and trauma as the root cause of societal and world problems Without healthy support traumatized people unconsciously influenced by inner pain engage in self destructive or antisocial behaviors We are accustomed to thinking about the impact of trauma on the individual but rarely notice the dramatic effect that trauma has on our society The cumulative result of these pain driven behaviors can be seen in the epidemics of AIDS Hepatitis C drug addiction and alcoholism in our violent and crime ridden society in unemployment homelessness and poverty in the ongoing cycle of child abuse and neglect and on an international level in terrorism and war In Creating a Healing Society Dr Lawrence describes her work with alcoholics AIDS patients prisoners and others dying of what one of her clients calls the delayed effects of child abuse Through concrete examples she shows that people can turn their lives around and by doing so change the quality of our entire society      Handbook on Contemporary Issues in Health, Crime, and Punishment Nathan W. Link,Meghan A. Novisky,Chantal Fahmy,2024-10-30 The Handbook on Contemporary Issues in Health Crime and Punishment covers many topics on the numerous ways in which mental and physical health and criminal justice system contact influence one another and are intricately intertwined These often mutually reinforcing dynamics affect a range of health and justice outcomes at individual familial group community and national levels Contributions detail this topic from a wide range of disciplinary theoretical and international perspectives and rely on various analytical lenses including quantitative qualitative policy analytic theoretical conceptual and lived experiences The chapters summarize what is known in each topical area but as important they identify emerging theoretical empirical and policy directions In this way the book is grounded in the current knowledge about the specific topic but also provides new synthesizing material that reflects the knowledge of the leading minds in the field Conceptually divided into 11 sections a number of contributions describe the unique experiences of women people of color juveniles older populations immigrants LGBTQ individuals and other sub populations i e people convicted of drug or sex offenses Where appropriate the authors provide both big picture and pragmatic policy directions aimed at reducing system contact health challenges and inhumane practices Given its breadth and depth the Handbook will appeal broadly to academics practitioners policymakers advocates and students seeking to understand the many ways in which health and justice system dynamics overlap Prison Ministry Dennis W. Pierce,2014-01-02 Show the incarcerated how to find forgiveness in unforgiving surroundings As the prison population in the United States increases by more than 1 000 inmates each week prison ministry programs must have a working blueprint for dealing with the shame humiliation hate and loneliness of incarceration at both the adult correctional and juvenile detention probation levels Prison Ministry Hope Behind the Wall demonstrates how a ministry can adapt Latin American Liberation theology to address oppression and bring prisoners into the community of Christ Author Dennis Pierce former chaplain at the Joliet Correctional Center in Illinois where the Fox Network s 2005 Prison Break series is filmed presents a functioning approach to forgiveness and reconciliation combining pastoral counseling Christian education Bible studies and worship to help inmates develop self esteem and an overall feeling of self worth through compassion and empathy Prison Ministry Hope Behind the Wall provides an alternative resource on our prison system for chaplains pastors priests and students working in theology ethics or counseling Instead of the usual descriptive narratives of inmates lives or discussions of statistical approaches this unique book combines a theological model with a viable programmatic approach to confront the oppression of incarceration and reverse its effects The book looks at the vital issues facing juveniles in the criminal justice system the transition from county jail to a correctional facility victimization rejection under stimulation homosexual rape and examines the creation of non threatening niches to address coping structures needed to move toward forgiveness and reconciliation Prison Ministry Hope Behind the Wall examines meeting the incarcerated defining prison s emotional ethos dealing with human breakdowns oppression in maximum security prison components of empowerment needed for prison ministry Prison Ministry Hope Behind the Wall also includes case studies of four inmates an extensive bibliography a glossary of prison terms sample Bible studies and sermon topics The book is invaluable for anyone dealing with incarcerated youth and young adults in civilian or military correctional or juvenile detention facilities A Halfway House for Women Gail A. Caputo,2014-07-01 Although halfway houses have been touted for years as affirmative rehabilitation locations that ready women for life in the outside world in this remarkable case study Gail Caputo shows how these places reinforce patterns of control and abuse that reaffirm the dependency and victimization of the inmates Based on observations made while living and working alongside women at a halfway house within the prison system in a city in the Northeast Caputo s analysis is anchored in the words and experiences of over a dozen women Organized according to the progression of levels residents traverse during their time in the house and the rules and behaviors associated with each level Caputo offers a riveting look at what passes for rehabilitation and reintegration in such places and delineates the many ways these women retain agency by resisting regulations designed to keep them in their place Where the River Bends Michael T. McRay,2015-12-09 Myriad works discuss forgiveness but few address it in the prison context For most people prisoners exist out of sight and out of mind Their stories are often reduced to a few short lines in news articles at the time of arrest or conviction But what happened before in the lives of the convicted What has happened after How have people in prison dealt with the harm they have caused and the harm they have suffered What does forgiveness mean to them What can we outsiders learn about the nature of forgiveness and prison from individuals who have both dealt and endured some of life's most painful experiences Expanding on his MPhil dissertation Echoes from Exile with Distinction from Trinity College Dublin Michael McRay's important new book brings the perspectives and stories of fourteen Tennessee prisoners into public awareness Weaving these narratives into a survey of forgiveness literature McRay offers a map of the forgiveness topography At once storytelling academic activism and cartography McRay's book is as necessary as it is accessible There is a whole demographic we have essentially ignored when it comes to conversations on forgiveness What would we learn if we listened
