certain extent even globally cf cultural studies of global culture Translation concerns cultural studies both as an object or product and as a subject or producer of translation processes Cultural studies is the result of translation translates and is being translated The essays in this volume therefore relate these various ongoing cultural linguistic and institutional translation processes to political and ethical issues of internationalisation and globalisation The contributions draw their originality and strength from strategically crossing disciplinary and national boundaries. They deliberately ignore the question of what may be proper to cultural studies and instead problematise the notions of propriety and belonging As a reading practice cultural studies in these pages is performed through adaptations and combinations of theory and critical practice The volume should be of interest to everyone concerned with cultural studies role in promoting intellectual debate within an increasingly international and globalised public sphere In Work, At Home Alan Felstead, Nick Jewson, 2002-01-04 More and more people are choosing to earn a living at home In Work At Home explores the meaning and experience of this type of employment by covering a wide range of issues including social relationships current research methodologies statistical analyses of global labour markets the emotional and psychological processes of self management home relations Presenting statistical analyses of labour markets in North America Europe Asia and Australia In Work At Home provides a valuable introduction to the issues and debates surrounding homeworking and will appeal to students across a range of disciplines including sociology business studies and women s studies HR 4.0 Practices in the Post-COVID-19 Scenario Gurinder Singh, Silky Sharma, Brig.
