solicit food aid from far away countries to save the Batonga from starvation during frequent droughts It is about how God used an airplane and a missionary pilot to expedite the spread of the Gospel to vast remote areas devoid of roads and to facilitate delivery of medical care and food relief It is about how God used that airplane to circumvent the threat of landmines and deadly ambushes that are no respecter of persons It is about a tribe of gentle peace loving people who responded enthusiastically to the message about Salvation in Jesus It is finally about how God s message of love permeated to the far reaches of the Batonga people Johnny'S Journey Malachi Gibson,2015-03-24 Since John Johnny Johnsons early childhood he was plagued by an inner force that was determined to be rebellious Although he was loved and nurtured by his parents and loved by his siblings and other family members he could not bring himself to be obedient not even to his own conscience His teen years began the era of alcohol indulgence and petty larceny He decided that a life without rules was what he wanted so he ran away from home Soon his life became more complicated He was arrested and sent to a reform school for boys A life of crime resulted in several arrests and convictions His family was still there for him After being paroled from his last incarceration his siblings helped him to start a business which included counseling for teens and anyone else that was seeking help to better their lives In the process of shaping his life as well as others he met his wife JaNae and they started a family What seemed like a doomed life had become a productive and prosperous one
