John's Apologetic Christology Legitimation And Development In Johannine Christology:

John's Apologetic Christology James F. McGrath, 2001-09-06 The Gospel according to John presents Jesus in a unique way as compared with other New Testament writings. Scholars have long puzzled and pondered over why this should be. In this book James McGrath offers a convincing explanation of how and why the author of the Fourth Gospel arrived at a christological portrait of Jesus that is so different from that of other New Testament authors and yet at the same time clearly has its roots in earlier tradition. McGrath suggests that as the author of this Gospel sought to defend his beliefs about Jesus against the objections brought by opponents he developed and drew out further implications from the beliefs he inherited. The book studies this process using insights from the field of sociology which helps to bring methodological clarity to the important issue of the development of Johannine Christology.

Johannine Writings and Apocalyptic Stanley E. Porter, Andrew K. Gabriel, 2013-09-15 Johannine Writings and Apocalyptic provides a wide ranging and thorough annotated bibliography for John's Gospel, the Johannine letters, Revelation and apocalyptic writings pertinent to these books. More inclusive than many other bibliographies, this volume provides reference to over 1300 individual entries, often including references to multiple works with a given description. Annotations are designed to provide guidance to a wide range of readers, from students wishing to gain entry to the subject to graduate students engaging in research to professors needing ready access to useful materials. The volume is topically organized and indexed for easy access.

Johannine Theology Paul A. Rainbow, 2014-09-05 In this magisterial synthesis Paul A. Rainbow presents the most complete account of the theology of the Johannine corpus available today. Both critical and comprehensive, this volume includes all the books of the New Testament ascribed to John: the Gospel, the three epistles, and the book of Revelation.

The Gospel of John and Christian Origins John Ashton, 2014 One of the most interesting questions facing New Testament scholars is how did Christianity emerge from Judaism? This is often addressed in general and indirect terms. John Ashton argues that in the case of the Fourth Gospel, an answer is to be found in the religious experience of the Evangelist himself, who turned from being a practicing Jew to professing a new revelation centered on Christ as the intermediary between God and humanity.

They Went Out from Us Daniel R. Streett, 2011-01-27 By means of careful historical work and exegesis Streett argues that the secession mentioned in 1 John did not have to do with a later complex Christological issue such as docetism Cerinthianism or a devaluation of the historical life death of Jesus but rather concerned the foundational belief in the Messiahship of Jesus a tenet the secessionists had renounced in order to return to the Jewish synagogue He critiques the common maximalistic mirror reading approach to the letter as misguided and contends that the letter is primarily pastoral meant to comfort and reassure the community rather than to argue against the secessionists Streett's main contributions are his detailed examination of the ancient historical evidence especially the Patristic evidence for the Johannine opponents and his in depth and innovative exegesis of the key opponent passages 1 Jn 2 18 27 4 1 6 5 6 12 2 Jn 4 11

Anthropomorphic Depictions of God Zulfiqar Ali Shah, 2012-01-01 This monumental study examines issues of anthropomorphism in the three Abrahamic Faiths as viewed through the texts of the Hebrew Bible the New Testament and the Qur'an Throughout history Christianity and Judaism have tried to make sense of God While juxtaposing the Islamic position against this the author addresses the Judeo Christian worldview and how each has chosen to framework its encounter with God to what extent this has been the result of actual scripture and to what extent the product of theological debate or church decrees of later centuries and absorption of Hellenistic philosophy Shah also examines Islam's heavily anti anthropomorphic stance and Islamic theological discourse on Tawhid as well as the Ninety Nine Names of God and what these have meant in relation to Muslim understanding of God and His attributes Describing how these became the touchstone of Muslim discourse with Judaism and Christianity he critiques theological statements and perspectives that came to dilute if not counter strict monotheism As secularism debates whether God is dead the issue of anthropomorphism has become of immense importance The quest for God especially in this day and age is partly one of intellectual longing To Shah anthropomorphic concepts and corporeal depictions of the Divine are perhaps among the leading factors of modern atheism As such he ultimately draws the conclusion that the postmodern longing for God will not be quenched by pre modern anthropomorphic and corporeal concepts of the Divine which have simply brought God down to this cosmos with a precise historical function and a specified location reducing the intellectual and spiritual force of what God is and represents causing the soul to detract from a sense of the sacred and thereby belief in Him

The Shema and John 10 Brury Eko Saputra, 2019-05-08 The Shema is arguably the most important creed the Jews including the Christian Jews ever have Its importance can also be seen in the texts of the New Testament This book attempts to explore the Shema's influence over the Gospel of John especially the oneness language of that Gospel Using John 10 as a sample this book argues that the Shema helps us to understand the richness of the text both theologically and contextually

Trinity and Incarnation Steven Nemes, 2023-08-28 This book argues that the doctrine of God taken for granted in the catholic tradition divine transcendence creatio ex nihilo divine simplicity makes it impossible to give an intelligible and coherent interpretation of the verbal formulas of the catholic dogmas of Trinity and incarnation By way of response to this apparent incoherence at the heart of the catholic theological tradition it proposes an alternative post catholic take on these central doctrines in the light of a qualified monistic conception of God and a Spirit Christological interpretation of Jesus's relation to God the Father as presented in the New Testament

Desiring Divinity M. David Litwa, 2016-10-03 Perhaps no declaration incites more theological and moral outrage than a human's claim to be divine Those who make this claim in ancient Jewish and Christian mythology are typically represented as the most hubristic and dangerous tyrants Their horrible punishments are predictable and still serve as morality tales in religious communities today But not all self-deifiers are saddled with pride and fated to fall Some who claimed divinity stated a simple and direct truth Though reviled on earth misunderstood and even killed they received vindication and rose to the stars This book tells the stories of six self-deifiers in their historical social and ideological contexts In the history of interpretation the initial three figures have been demonized as cosmic rebels the first human Adam Lucifer later identified with Satan and Yaldabaoth in gnostic mythology By contrast the final three have served as positive models for deification and divine favor Jesus in the gospel of John Simon of Samaria and Allogenes in the Nag Hammadi library In the end the line separating demonization from deification is dangerously thin drawn as it is by the unsteady hand of human valuation

Exploring Mormon Thought Blake T. Ostler, 2008-04-01 In his long anticipated third volume Of God and Gods Blake Ostler steps through the common complaint that Mormons aren't Christians because they believe in three separate individuals in the Godhead as well as the deification of human beings He demonstrates the clear biblical understanding both in the precursors of the Old Testament and the New that Jesus and God the Father were not one in some incomprehensible substance while separate in person but were actually distinct individuals What made them one was their indwelling love It is that loving unity into which they invite human beings In language and thought accessible to the lay reader but simultaneously rigorous and scholarly Ostler analyzes and responds to the arguments of contemporary international theologians reconstructs and interprets Joseph Smith's important King Follett Discourse and Sermon in the Grove just before the Mormon prophet's death and argues persuasively for the Mormon doctrine of robust deification

Neither Jew nor Greek James D. G. Dunn, 2015 In Christianity in the Making James D. G. Dunn examines in depth the major factors that shaped first generation Christianity and beyond exploring the parting of the ways between Christianity and Judaism the Hellenization of Christianity and responses to Gnosticism He mines all the first and second century sources including the New Testament Gospels New Testament apocrypha and such church fathers as Ignatius Justin Martyr and Irenaeus showing how the Jesus tradition and the figures of James Paul Peter and John were still esteemed influences but were also the subject of intense controversy as the early church wrestled with its evolving identity

Jesus Christ as Ancestor Reuben Turbi Luka, 2019-08-31 In this critical study Dr Turbi Luka uses historical theological methodology to engage in detail with Christologies of key African theologians and conventional theological sources for Christology including the church fathers Tertullian and Athanasius as well as modern theologians Turbi argues that existing African Christologies specifically ancestor Christologies are inadequate in expressing the person of Christ as Messiah and saviour the fulfilment of Old Testament prophecies Providing a new approach Turbi proposes an African Linguistic Affinity Christology that explicitly portrays Jesus as Christ in a contextually relevant way for Africans in everyday life This crucial study highlights the need for biblically rooted Christology and for sound theological understanding and naming of Jesus at every level This book also warns the church in Africa and elsewhere to avoid repeating the dangerous christological heresies of the ancient church by remaining faithful to a biblical interpretation and orthodox theology of Christ Gospel According to St John Andrew Lincoln, 2005-11-25 The magnificent series of biblical commentaries known as Black's New Testament Commentaries BNTC under the General Editorship of Professor Morna Hooker has had a gap for far too long it has lacked an up to date commentary on the Fourth Gospel Professor Andrew Lincoln now fills this gap with his excellent new commentary The key questions for scholars are gone into thoroughly questions of historicity the use of historical traditions and sources relationship to the Synoptics authorship setting first readers and Professor Lincoln makes his own position on these issues abundantly clear The Fourth Gospel raises a number of problems generally known as The Johannine Question According to tradition the Gospel was written by St John the Apostle The authenticity of the tradition is examined in the introduction but the textual issues are examined within the commentary itself For example one problem is that Chapters 15 and 16 seem in early versions to have preceded chapter 14 Chapter 21 must have been a later addition The purpose of the Gospel as stated in Chapter 20 v 31 is to strengthen the reader's faith in Jesus as the Christ and the Son of God But even the celebrated prologue has given rise to much speculation whereas most commentators believe it is the key to the Gospel as a whole These issues are meat and drink to scholars but in Professor Lincoln's expert hands they are extremely interesting and highly pertinent to our contemporary understanding of the Gospel Jesus and the Gospels (2nd Edition) Craig Blomberg, 2020-05-21 A clear and comprehensive introduction to the study of Jesus and the Gospels Craig Blomberg's award winning Jesus and the Gospels prepares readers for an intensive study of Matthew Mark Luke John and the events they narrate Blomberg considers the historical context of the Gospels and sheds light on the confusing interpretations brought forth over the last two centuries This updated edition incorporates new scholarship debate critical methods and the ongoing quest for the historical Jesus and ensures the work will remain a valuable tool for exploring the life of Christ through the first four books of the New Testament The Gospel of John David F. Ford, 2021-12-07 Christianity Today 2023 Book Award Finalist Biblical Studies John is a Gospel of abundant truth life and love David Ford one of the world's leading Christian theologians invites readers into a fresh profound encounter with Jesus through the Gospel of John in this comprehensive theological commentary This commentary will appeal to a wide audience including pastors church leaders and other readers interested in the intersection of theology and spirituality It will also be of interest to professors and students doing research on John and the reception of the Gospel in Christian theology The Christological Witness Function of the Old Testament Characters in the Gospel of John Sanghee M. Ahn, 2014-06-16 This book investigates the narrative function of the Old Testament characters in the Gospel of John. The intriguing thesis is that the Hebrew characters in John's narrative uniformly function as a witness for the messianic identity of Jesus. The Jewish scriptural traditions, Hebrew and intertestamental ones, are compared to shed light on John's indebtedness for its formation of his Christology. A compelling argument ensues that informs our understanding not only of the Gospel itself but also of Jesus Christ revealed in the Gospel.

The Gospel of John Jerome H. Neyrey, 2007 This highly accessible 2007 commentary brings readers into the cultural world of the gospel.

Creation Stories in Dialogue: The Bible, Science, and Folk Traditions Jan G. van der Watt, R. Alan Culpepper, 2015-11-02 This book is about creation stories in dialogue not only between different religious views but also between current day scientific perspectives. International specialists like Alan Culpepper, David Christian, John Haught, Randall Zachman, Ellen van Wolde, from various disciplines, are reflecting on the interface between science and religion, relating questions of creation and origin. This multi-disciplinary discussion by some of the leading exponents in this field makes the book unique not only in its depth of discussion but also in its wide-ranging interdisciplinary discussion. The point of departure of all the contributions is the prestige lecture by Alan Culpepper where he argues for bringing Biblical material into discussion with modern scientific insights relating to creation and origin.

The Lawsuit Motif in John's Gospel from New Perspectives Per Jarle Bekken, 2014-09-25 The study sheds fresh light on aspects of the lawsuit motif in John from the background of Diaspora Jewish and Greco-Roman data and perspectives. John's narrative of the attempts on Jesus for such crimes as breaking the Sabbath, blasphemy, and seduction are illuminated from Philo's perspectives on vigilante execution. Furthermore, John's narrative of the official Jewish and Roman forensic procedures against Jesus can also be situated within the framework of the Greco-Roman administration exemplified by the legal papyri from Roman Egypt. Philo's expectation of an eschatological emperor who shall rule over many nations provides a cultural context for the way John's gospel re-inscribed Jesus as the true Emperor of all the nations.
