Tator, 1854 The Works of Jonathan Swift: Poems, by Dr. Swift and his friends. Epistolary correspondence Jonathan Swift, Walter Scott, 1883 Jonathan's Secret L.A. Evans, 2012-06-22 This is the story of Jonathan Broxton who is a forty something sexually ambivalent man who finds that he has accomplished everything in life that he strove to attain He is wealthy beyond belief has an unmeasurable intellect and is bored He sits down with his father to discuss his situation and they outline several alternatives that may re engage his interests and bring back his enthusiasm for life Father and son finally settle upon declaring war against illegal arms dealers They intend to do this by creating an opportunity for dealers to participate in a competitive auction to sell a wide range of illegal weapons and explosives When as many of the illegal arms dealers they could convince to participate have collected the desired weaponry they are invited to participate in a bidding auction to see which one offers the best price But at the exact time of the planned auction and unbeknown to the bidders Jonathan plans to explode all of the weapons dealers and their warehouses in which the weaponry is stored Hopefully the successful execution of this plan will help restore Jonathan's feelings of accomplishment and self respect Ride with Jonathan his father and a beautiful ex CIA black ops operative Dani as they set about executing their plan and overcoming the many obstacles they encounter Will they succeed thwarting the arms dealers How will they deal with the uncertainties of their opponents counter moves Whether they are successful or get thwarted hangs in the balance until the bitter end when Jonathan reveals his painful secret The Land of Mist and Mountains Patrick James Doyle, 2022-08-01 The Land of Mist and Mountains by Patrick James Doyle Friendship's Shadows: Women's Friendship and the Politics of Betrayal in England, 1640-1705 Penelope Anderson, 2012-08-31 Penelope Anderson's original study changes our understanding both of the masculine Renaissance friendship tradition and of the private forms of women's friendship of the eighteenth century and after It uncovers the latent threat of betrayal lurking within politicized classical and humanist friendship showing its surprising resilience as a model for political obligation undone and remade Incorporating authors from Cicero to Abraham Cowley and Margaret Cavendish to Mary Astell the book focuses on two extraordinary women writers the royalist Katherine Philips and the republican Lucy Hutchinson And it explores the ways in which they appropriate the friendship tradition in order to address problems of conflicting allegiances in the English Civil Wars and Restoration As Penelope Anderson suggests their writings on friendship provide a new account of women's relation to public life organized through textual exchange rather than bodily reproduction The Boy Crisis Warren Farrell, John Gray, 2018-03-13 What is the boy crisis It's a crisis of education Worldwide boys are 50 percent less likely than girls to meet basic proficiency in reading math and science It's a crisis of mental health ADHD is on the rise And as boys become young men their suicide rates go from equal to girls to six times that of young women It's a crisis of fathering Boys are growing up with less involved fathers and are more likely to drop out of school drink do drugs become delinquent and end up in prison It's a crisis of purpose Boys old sense of purpose being a warrior a leader or a sole breadwinner are fading Many bright boys are experiencing a purpose void feeling alienated withdrawn and addicted to immediate gratification So what is The Boy Crisis A comprehensive blueprint for what parents teachers and policymakers can do to help our sons become happier healthier men and fathers and leaders worthy of our respect Friendship in the Book of Job Mark S. Aidoo, 2024-11-07

Right Where We Belong Sarah

Dryden-Peterson,2022-04-05 A leading expert shows how by learning from refugee teachers and students we can create for displaced children and indeed all children better schooling and brighter futures Half of the world s 26 million refugees are children Their formal education is disrupted and their lives are too often dominated by exclusion and uncertainty about what the future holds Even kids who have the opportunity to attend school face enormous challenges as they struggle to integrate into unfamiliar societies and educational environments In Right Where We Belong Sarah Dryden Peterson discovers that where governments and international agencies have been stymied refugee teachers and students themselves are leading From open air classrooms in Uganda to the hallways of high schools in Maine new visions for refugee education are emerging Dryden Peterson introduces us to people like Jacques a teacher who created a school for his fellow Congolese refugees in defiance of local laws and Hassan a Somali refugee navigating the social world of the American teenager Drawing on more than 600 interviews in twenty three countries Dryden Peterson shows how teachers and students are experimenting with flexible forms of learning Rather than adopt the unrealistic notion that all will soon return to normal these schools embrace unfamiliarity develop students adaptiveness and demonstrate how children teachers and community members can build supportive relationships across lines of difference It turns out that policymakers activists and educators have a lot to learn from displaced children and teachers Their stories point the way to better futures for refugee students and inspire us to reimagine education broadly so that children everywhere are better prepared to thrive in a diverse and unpredictable world
