Jorge Luis Borges

Jorge Luis Borges Argentine Writer:

Conversations with Jorge Luis Borges Richard Burgin, Jorge Luis Borges, 1969 Seven Conversations with Jorge Luis Borges Fernando Sorrentino, 1982 These wide ranging conversations have an exceptionally open and intimate tone giving us a personal glimpse of one of the most fascinating figures in contemporary world literature Interviewer Fernando Sorrentino an Argentinian writer and anthologist is endowed with literary acumen sensitivity urbanity and an encyclopedic memory of Jorge Luis Borges work in his prologue Borges jokes that Sorrentino knows his work much better than I do Borges wanders from nostalgic reminiscence to literary criticism and from philosophical speculation to political pronouncements His thoughts on literature alone run the gamut from the Bible and Homer to Ernest Hemingway and Julio Cortázar We learn that Dante is the writer who has impressed Borges most that Borges considers Federico García Lorca to be a second rate poet and that he feels Adolfo Bioy Casares is one of the most important authors of this century Borges dwells lovingly on Buenos Aires too From the preface For seven afternoons the teller of tales preceded me opening tall doors which revealed unsuspected spiral staircases through the National Library's pleasant maze of corridors in search of a secluded little room where we would not be interrupted by the telephone The Borges who speaks to us in this book is a courteous easy going gentleman who verifies no quotations who does not look back to correct mistakes who pretends to have a poor memory he is not the terse Jorge Luis Borges of the printed page that Borges who calculates and measures each comma and each parenthesis Sorrentino and translator Clark M Zlotchew have included an appendix on the Latin American writers mentioned by Borges Borges on Writing Jorge Luis Borges, 1973 Based on a series of discussion seminars presided over by J L Borges and held Columbia University 1971 Jorge Luis Borges: The Last Interview Jorge Luis Borges, 2013-06-25 Believe me the benefits of blindness have been greatly exaggerated If I could see I would never leave the house I'd stay indoors reading the many books that surround me Jorge Luis Borges Days before his death Borges gave an intimate interview to his friend the Argentine journalist Gloria Lopez Lecube That interview is translated for the first time here giving English language readers a new insight into his life loves and thoughts about his work and country at the end of his life Accompanying that interview are a selection of the fascinating interviews he gave throughout his career Highlights include his celebrated conversations with Richard Burgin during Borges's time as a lecturer at Harvard University in which he gives rich new insights into his own works and the literature of others as well as discussing his now oft overlooked political views The pieces combine to give a new and revealing window on one of the most celebrated cultural figures of the past century

Selected Non-Fictions Jorge Luis Borges, 2000-11-01 Winner of the National Book Critics Circle Award in Criticism The first comprehensive selection in any language of the non fiction much of it appearing here in English for the first time of one of literature's most fertile and original minds San Francisco Chronicle A Penguin Classics Deluxe Edition with flaps and deckle edged paper It will come as a surprise to many readers that the greater part of Jorge Luis Borges's extraordinary writing was not in the genres of fiction or poetry but in various forms of non fiction prose His thousands of pages of essays reviews prologues lectures and notes on politics and culture though revered in Latin America and Europe as among his finest work have scarcely been translated into English Selected Non Fictions presents a Borges almost entirely unknown to American readers Here is the dazzling metaphysician speculating on the nature of time and reality and the inventions of heaven and hell and the almost superhumanly erudite reader of the world s literatures from Homer to Ray Bradbury James Joyce to Lady Murasaki Here too the political Borges taking courageous stands against fascism antisemitism and the Per n dictatorship Borges the movie critic on King Kong and Citizen Kane and the Borgesian art of dubbing and Borges the regular columnist for the Argentine equivalent of the Ladies Home Journal writing hilarious book reviews and capsule biographies of modern writers Like the Aleph in his famous story the magical point in a basement in Buenos Aires from which one can view everything in the world Borges s non fictions are a vortex for seemingly the entire universe Dante and Ellery Queen Shakespeare and the Kabbalah the history of angels and the history of tango the Buddha Bette Davis and the Dionne Quints Selected Non Fictions presents more than 160 of these astonishing writings from his youthful manifestos to his last meditations on his favorite books More than a hundred of these pieces have never before appeared in English and all have been rendered in brilliant new translations by Esther Allen Suzanne Jill Levine and Eliot Weinberger This unique selection presents Borges as at once a deceptively self effacing guide to the universe and the inventor of a universe that is an indispensable guide to Borges For more than seventy five years Penguin has been the leading publisher of classic literature in the English speaking world With more than 2 000 titles Penguin Classics represents a global bookshelf of the best works throughout history and across genres and disciplines Readers trust the series to provide authoritative texts enhanced by introductions and notes by distinguished scholars and contemporary authors as well as up to date translations by award winning translators
