Josef Sudek Monograph:

Josef Sudek Josef Sudek, Anna Fárová, 1990 A biographical profile of the Czechoslovakian photographer accompanies a collection of his photographs portraying his life work and views of Prague Josef Sudek: Poet of Prague: A

Photographer's Life, 1992 Josef Sudek Zdeněk Kirschner, Josef Sudek, 1993 The first comprehensive viewing book of the legendary Czech photographer Josef Sudek Josef Sudek Josef Sudek, Anna Fárová, 2002 Sophia Elizabeth De Morgan

1809-1892 was the wife of the mathematician and logician Augustus De Morgan and mother of ceramicist William De Morgan. In Threescore Years and Ten, completed in 1887, edited by her daughter Mary and published in 1895, De Morgan recounts her formative early years and the influence of her father, the social reformer William Frend. She followed in his footsteps and fought for many causes, including higher education for women and prison reform. She was also an early animal rights activist and campaigned against vivisection. Throughout her life, De Morgan encountered some of the leading writers and thinkers of the time; she was introduced to William Blake when she was a child and many years later found herself the neighbour of Thomas Carlyle. De Morgan's reflections on her life offer an insight into the intellectual world of a Victorian social reformer.

Josef Sudek Josef Sudek, Alan Klotz, 2004 Camera, 1976 Josef Sudek Josef Sudek, Michael Hill, Rachel McIntyre, 2016 Josef Sudek Daniela Hodrová, Antonín Dufek, 2013 Like the previous volumes The Window of My Studio and Still Lives, this new Josef Sudek monograph collects a series of photographs made within the confines of the Czech photographer's workspace. Sudek's studio famously verged on installation art, as the poet Jaroslav Seifert recalled: Breton's surrealism would have come into its own there. A drawing by Jan Zrzavý lay rolled up by a bottle of nitric acid which stood on a plate where there was a crust of bread and a piece of smoked meat with a bite taken out of it. And above this hung the wing of a Baroque angel with Sudek's beret hanging from it. This disorder was so picturesque, so immensely rich, that it almost came close to being a strange but highly subtle work of art. Gathered here in all their surreal beauty, the Labyrinths series depicts multilayered assemblages of objects in endlessly permuted combinations.

Institute of Library Research, University of California, Berkeley, 1972 Mionší Forest Josef Sudek, 2009 The series of photographs that Joseph Sudek created in the Mions Forest of Moravia s Beskid Mountains is perhaps the most classically Romantic and visually stunning body of work ever made by this important Czech photographer In the late 1920s while shooting the interior of Prague s iconic Cathedral of St Vitus during its final phase of completion Sudek learned a great deal about light Years later alone deep in the virgin forest he lay in wait for the light that he knew would lend the ancient trees their ghostly aspect finding graceful compositions in isolated wilderness Photography historian Anton n Dufek penned the introduction to this volume which is the first to present such a comprehensive set of Sudek s photographs of the Mions Forest the ruins surrounding Hukvaldy castle and the foothills of the Beskids Josef Sudek born in 1896 in Kol n was a bookbinder and amateur photographer for several years before studying at the State School of Graphic Arts with Karel Novak Along with a handful of other young Modernists he founded the Czech Photographic Society in 1924 While maintaining a successful commercial career Sudek nurtured a lifelong Romantic fascination with light and mood He died at the age of 80 in 1976

Czech Books in Print ,1986 Devotion Howard Norman, 2007-02-08 A striking beautifully rendered novel of love gone wrong by the author of National Book Award finalist The Bird Artist The Washington Post Book World Devotion is an unconventional love story that begins with the recounting of an unlikely crime Shortly after his marriage to Maggie Field David Kozol and his father in law William came to blows on a London sidewalk William stumbled backward into the path of a taxi and eleven months later he is still convalescing and begrudgingly accepting David s assistance Estranged from Maggie and desperate to get her back David has taken over William s job as caretaker of a large rural estate on the Bay of Fundy in Nova Scotia There he tends to the main house his father in law and the resident flock of cranky impertinent swans The love between him and Maggie had been instantaneous and intense and her absence is a constant reminder of how real and enduring it is But sometimes small things lead to big damages and strenuous effort is required for even the chance of recovery Rarely has such a short novel touched on so many important truths or probed such operatic depths St Louis Post Dispatch Any novel by Howard Norman is cause for celebration He demonstrates with marveling deliberation that devotion is its own romantic adventure Lorrie Moore Perhaps his best novel yet The Atlanta Journal Constitution Portraits Josef Sudek, 2008 Portraits the second volume of the Torst series Josef Sudek Works includes 86 carefully selected superbly printed color photos by the great Czech photographer Josef Sudek as well as a complete bibliography and an interview with Jan Rezac an editor of Czech art books who greatly assisted in getting the first Sudek monograph published and became a friend of Sudek s Book Jacket
