Reading Malaysian Literature in English Mohammad A. Quayum, 2021-11-18 This book brings together fourteen articles by prominent critics of Malaysian Anglophone literature from five different countries Australia Italy Malaysia Singapore and the US It investigates the thematic and stylistic trends in the literary products of selected writers of the tradition in the genres of drama fiction and poetry from its beginnings to the present focusing mainly on the postcolonial themes of ethnicity gender diaspora and nationalism which are central to the creativity and imagination of these writers The book explores the works of not just the established writers of the tradition but also those who have received little critical attention to date but who are equally gifted such as Adibah Amin Edward Dorall Rehaman Rashid and Huzir Suleiman The chapters collectively address the challenges and achievements of writers in the English language in a country where English is widely used in daily life and yet marginalised in the creative domain to elevate the status of writings in the national language i.e. Bahasa Malaysia The book will demonstrate that in spite of such recurrent neglect of the medium Malaysia has produced a number of outstanding writers in the language who are comparable in creativity and craftsmanship to writers of other Anglophone traditions The book will be of interest to readers and researchers of Malaysian literature postcolonial literatures minority literatures gender studies and Southeast Asian studies

periscope that combined a low powered wide angle view with a high powered narrow angle one Immediately below their line of sight and precisely parallel to it was a glass tube about an inch in diameter and five inches long Connected to it was a pocket in the hull containing a handful of common glass marbles The whole apparatus was outside the airseal It was the work of but a moment to line the telescope and tube on the growing dot of light that was the first ship He had placed marbles at the bases of the firing ports before takeoff and now he flicked one as he had flicked pebbles like bullets in the Mountains of the Oron months before but with the fury of despair Involuntarily he blinked in time to save his vision The Starling ship erupted in a fireball that illuminated half the world below For half a second Race stared horrified at the destruction he had wrought Then fear blossomed like that spreading glare every Starling in the area knew where he was now He swerved the ship away recklessly not hearing the clangor of the radiation alarm His mind swooped and reeled as things like planets whipped past in less than an eyeblink two of them almost on opposite sides of the ship one nearer than the other On the radio two voices were bellowing one Surrender the other Shoot Shoot Another thing flicked past invisible undetectable but to his mind seeming to have planetary mass yet to be incredibly tiny Marbles like his own flicked at near light speed Fear galvanized him His rolling gaze touched the Imperial Cluster and in a moment the ship was in incredible motion toward it Jacarantha shrank behind them
