Pula,2025-01-31 Often referred to as the turning point of the American Revolution the Saratoga Campaign has had much ink spilled about its causes leaders and consequences Less has been recorded about the individuals who participated in this political drama This book presents the experiences of the real people involved in the Saratoga Campaign from squabbling English politicians and ambitious generals both British and American to intercolonial jealousies Focusing on the testimonies of people who are largely overlooked this history sheds light on the most human aspects of the campaign so often forgotten The Journal of Education ,1915 The Automobile Journal ,1914 Warfare Ecology Gary E. Machlis,Thor Hanson,Zdravko Špirić,Jean E. McKendry,2011-05-29 The purpose of this book is specific and ambitious to outline the distinctive elements scope and usefulness of a new and emerging field of applied ecology named warfare ecology Based on a NATO Advanced Research Workshop held on the island of Vieques Puerto Rico the book provides both a theoretical overview of this new field and case studies that range from mercury contamination during World War I in Slovenia to the ecosystem impacts of the Palestinian occupation and from the bombing of coral reefs of Vieques to biodiversity loss due to violent conflicts in Africa Warfare Ecology also includes reprints of several classical papers that set the stage for the new synthesis described by the authors Written for environmental scientists military and humanitarian relief professionals conservation managers and graduate students in a wide range of fields Warfare Ecology is a major step forward in understanding the relationship between war and ecological systems Waging War Wayne E. Lee, 2016 Waging War Conflict Culture and Innovation in World History provides a wide ranging examination of war in human history from the beginning of the species until the current rise of the so called Islamic State Although it covers many societies throughout time the book does not attempt to tell all stories from all places nor does it try to narrate important conflicts Instead author Wayne E Lee describes the emergence of military innovations and systems examining how they were created and then how they moved or affected other societies These innovations are central to most historical narratives including the development of social complexity the rise of the state the role of the steppe horseman the spread of gunpowder the rise of the west the bureaucratization of military institutions the industrial revolution and the rise of firepower strategic bombing and nuclear weapons and the creation of people s war American Hereford Journal ,1918 Report on Canadian Archives and on the System of Keeping Public Records Public Archives of Canada, 1902 Congressional Record United States. Congress, 1888 The Congressional Record is the official record of the proceedings and debates of the United States Congress It is published daily when Congress is in session The Congressional Record began publication in 1873 Debates for sessions prior to 1873 are recorded in The Debates and Proceedings in the Congress of the United States 1789 1824 the Register of Debates in Congress 1824 1837 and the Congressional Globe 1833 1873 Journal of the American Medical Association ,1905 Air University Library Index to Military Periodicals ,1995 The Journal of Political Economy ,1917 Deals with research and scholarship in economic theory Presents analytical interpretive and empirical studies in the areas of monetary theory fiscal policy labor economics planning and development micro and macroeconomic theory international trade and finance and industrial organization Also covers interdisciplinary fields such as history of economic thought and social economics North-American Review and Miscellaneous Journal ,1918 The Canadian Municipal Journal ,1918 Journal of Gas Lighting ,1918
