Wessells, 1973 Includes beginning Sept 15 1954 and on the 15th of each month Sept May a special section School library journal ISSN 0000 0035 called Junior libraries 1954 May 1961 Also issued separately The Reader's Adviser Sarah L. Prakken, 1974 Conversations with May Sarton May Sarton, 1991 With increasing candor and openness May Sarton's conversations have given an intimate view of her honest courageous inner life Best known to her many readers as a novelist and keeper of journals Sarton sees herself pre eminently as a poet In the interviews collected here she speaks forthrightly about herself her independence and her writing Although born in Belgium Sarton is quintessentially American in her choice of solitude on which her personal well being and writing depend She is a modernist who has defined herself as an artist with the occasionally painful recognition that all else must finally be subordinated to her writing Her journal After the Stroke makes clear that when she cannot write she stands on the edge of the abyss of nonbeing These interviews offer Sarton's readers the model of a woman who has supported herself as a writer of achievement who has made her way without the comforts of academic tenure grants or bestseller listings Library Journal ,1973 The New Lesbians Laurel Galana, Gina Covina, 1977 Journals and Diaries. ,2001 This unit introduces journals and diaries discusses three models analyzes standards and provides steps to writing in the genre Includes classroom reproducibles Books in Print ,1979
Women Coming to Voice Through Writing Elaine Marie Cullen, 1999 The Challenge of Aging ,1983 May Sarton Margot Peters, 2011-05-04 The first biography of May Sarton a brilliant revelation of the life and work of a literary figure who influenced her thousands of readers not only by her novels and poetry but by her life and her writings about it May Sarton's career stretched from 1930 early sonnets published in Poetry magazine to 1995 her journal At Eighty Two She wrote more than twenty novels and twenty five books of poems and journals The acclaimed biographer Margot Peters was given full access to Sarton's letters journals and notes and during five years of research came to know Sarton herself the complex woman and artist She gives us a compelling portrait of Sarton the actress the poet the novelist the feminist the writer who struggled for literary acceptance She shows us beneath Sarton's exhilarating irresistible spirit the needy courtier and seducer the woman whose creativity was propelled by the psychic drama she created in others We watch young May at age two as she is abruptly uprooted from her native Belgium by World War I a child ignored both by her mother who was intent on her own artistic vision and reluctant to cope with a child and by her father obsessed with his academic research We see Sarton as a young girl in America and then later at nineteen choosing a life in the theatre landing a job in Eva Le Gallienne's Civic Repertory and gathering what would become a tight knit coterie of friends and lovers Sarton beginning to write poetry and novels Sarton making friends with Elizabeth Bowen and Julian Huxley Erika and Klaus Mann Virginia Woolf the poet H D charming and enlisting them with her work her vitality her hunger for love driven by her need to conquer among her conquests Bowen Huxley and later his wife Juliette We see her intense friendships with literary pals including Muriel Rukeyser her lover and Louise Bogan Sarton's literary sibling who at once encouraged her and excluded her from a world in which Bogan was a central figure We see Sarton begin to create in the spiritual journals that inspired the devotion of readers the image of a strong independent woman who lived peacefully with solitude an image that contradicted the reality of her neediness loneliness and isolation as she pushed away loved ones with her demands and betrayals A fascinating portrait of one of our major literary figures a book that for the first time reveals the life that she herself kept hidden Solitude Philip Koch, 2015-12-15 In Koch's Solitude both solitude and engagement emerge as primary modes of human experience equally essential for human completion This work draws upon the vast corpus of literary reflections on solitude especially Lao Tze Sappho Plotinus Augustine Petrarch Montaigne Goethe Shelley Emerson Thoreau Whitman and Proust Koch uses the work of philosophers historians and writers as well as texts such as the Bible to show what solitude is and isn't and what being alone can do to and for the individual Interesting for its literary scope and its conclusions about all the good true solitude can bring us Booklist Reading this book is like dipping into many minds fierce and gentle The author reveals his long study of great philosophers and interprets their thoughts through the lens of his own experience with solitude He traces our early brushes with solitude and the fear it can engender then the craving for solitude that comes with full adult lives NAPRA Review

Robertson, 2011-09-02 The first book to examine the role of Canada's newspapers in perpetuating the myth of Native inferiority Seeing Red is a groundbreaking study of how Canadian English language newspapers have portrayed Aboriginal peoples from 1869 to the present day It assesses a wide range of publications on topics that include the sale of Rupert's Land the signing of Treaty 3 the North West Rebellion and Louis Riel the death of Pauline Johnson the outing of Grey Owl the discussions surrounding Bill C 31 the Banded Elbow standoff at Kenora Ontario and the Oka Crisis The authors uncover overwhelming evidence that the colonial imaginary not only thrives but dominates depictions of Aboriginal peoples in mainstream newspapers The colonial constructs ingrained in the news media perpetuate an imagined Native inferiority that contributes significantly to the marginalization of Indigenous people in Canada That such imagery persists to this day suggests strongly that our country lives in denial failing to live up to its cultural mosaic boosterism TV Guide, 1974

Ethics, Art, and Representations of the Holocaust Simone Gigliotti, Jacob Golomb, Caroline Steinberg Gould, 2013-11-22 The American Jewish philosopher Berel Lang has left an indelible impression on an unusually broad range of fields that few scholars can rival From his earliest innovations in philosophy and meta philosophy to his ground breaking work on representation historical writing and art after Auschwitz he has contributed original and penetrating insights to the philosophical literary and historical debates on ethics art and the representation of the Nazi Genocide In honor of Berel Lang's five decades of scholarly and philosophical contributions the editors of Ethics Art and Representations of the Holocaust invited seventeen eminent scholars from around the world to discuss Lang's impact on their own research and to reflect on how the Nazi genocide continues to resonate in contemporary debates about antisemitism commemoration and poetic representations Resisting what Alvin Rosenfeld warned as the end of the Holocaust the essays in this collection signal the Holocaust as an event without closure of enduring resonance to new generations of scholars of genocide Jewish studies and philosophy Readers will find original and provocative essays on topics as diverse as Nietzsche's reputed Nazi leanings Jewish anti apartheid activists in South Africa wartime rescue in Poland philosophical responses to the Holocaust hidden diaries in the Kovno Ghetto and analyses of reactions to trauma in classic literary works by Bernhard Schlink Sylvia Plath and Derek Walcott
