Byron Ellsworth Hamann explores how building layouts systems of storage and the arrangement of documents were designed to foster the creation of new knowledge He draws on a rich collection of eighteenth century architectural plans descriptions models document catalogs and surviving buildings to present a literal materially precise account of archives as assemblages of spaces humans and data assemblages that were understood circa 1800 as capable of actively generating scholarly innovation

Irving's Dialogism in the Alhambra Mohamed Dellal, 2024-12-06 Cross culture and or multiculturalism have become catchwords and phrases in certain studies within academia but they have mostly become battle grounds for contestation and convergence with contestation of identity cultural authenticity and or supremacy and hegemony Yet over and above all these skirmishes convergence tends to win the day as it struggles for a cosmopolitan culture and polity albeit very difficult to achieve The present work follows the same line of thought by trying to bring a new perspective into what it calls cultural dialogism inherent in the corpus of texts borrowed from The Alhambra by W Irving The texts selected display a dual characteristic the first is addressed as organic in the sense that the texts reflect some eight hundred years of natural copulation between Muslim culture brought up by Muslim conquerors to the Andalusian Christendom the second underlines a volition on the part of the author to merge the culture by intruding into the structures of the language and the texts The present works intends to show that these characteristic hybridities transgress the generic boundaries as well as the cultural one producing a brassage breaking the fixity of the boundaries cultural and other causing brisures and sutures This endows the texts with a certain liminality that makes it difficult to authenticate them as belonging to either culture
