Photojournalism and Citizen Journalism Stuart Allan,2017-06-26 If everyone with a smartphone can be a citizen photojournalist who needs professional photojournalism This rather flippant question cuts to the heart of a set of pressing issues where an array of impassioned voices may be heard in vigorous debate While some of these voices are confidently predicting photojournalism s impending demise as the latest casualty of internet driven convergence others are heralding its dramatic rebirth pointing to the democratisation of what was once the exclusive domain of the professional Regardless of where one is situated in relation to these stark polarities however it is readily apparent that photojournalism is being decisively transformed across shifting uneven conditions for civic participation in ways that raise important questions for journalism s forms and practices in a digital era This book s contributors identify and critique a range of factors currently recasting photojournalism s professional ethos devoting particular attention to the challenges posed by the rise of citizen journalism This book was originally published as two special issues in Digital Journalism and Journalism Practice The Basics of Media Writing Scott A. Kuehn,Andrew Lingwall,CQ Press,CQ Press,2016-12-08 The Basics of Media Writing A Strategic Approach helps readers develop the essential writing skills and professional habits needed to succeed in 21st century media careers This research driven strategy based media writing textbook digs deeply into how media professionals think and write in journalism public relations advertising and other forms of strategic communication Authors Scott A Kuehn and Andrew Lingwall have created two comprehensive writing models to help students overcome their problems in finding and developing story topics by giving them starting points to begin writing The Professional Strategy Triangle model shows students how to think critically about the audience the situation and the message before starting a news story or persuasive piece and the FAJA four point model asks students a series of questions about their story type Fact Analysis Judgment or Action to guide them to the right angle or organizational structure for their message Rooted in classical rhetorical methods this step by step technique enables readers to strategically approach each writing task no matter the format News and Journalism in the UK Brian McNair,2009-02-18 News and Journalism in the UK is an accessible and comprehensive introduction to the political economic and regulatory environments of press and broadcast journalism in Britain and Northern Ireland Surveying the industry in a period of radical economic and technological change Brian McNair examines the main trends in journalistic media in the last two decades and assesses the challenges and future of the industry in the new millennium Integrating both academic and journalistic perspectives on journalism topics addressed in this revised and updated edition include the rise of online journalism and the impact of blogging on mainstream journalism the emergence of 24 hour news channels in the UK the role and impact of journalism with reference to issues such as democracy health scares and the war on terror trends in media ownership and editorial allegiances Tabloidisation Americanisation and the supposed dumbing down of journalistic standards the implications of devolution for regional journalists Cultivating Entrepreneurial Changemakers Through Digital Media Education Byrd, Leslie Simone, 2021-01-22 The role of the journalist has been significantly altered and is far beyond that of being just a reporter of news in modern times Social entrepreneurship is rooted in a venture that seeks to create revenue while being anchored in providing social value to the communities the enterprise serves Combining these creates the concept of a social newspreneur which takes elements of the old business model and creates new opportunities In this way media can be reformed by everyday people who have a vision for restoring trust and facilitating alternative activities to inspire civic engagement in new and unique ways As such journalism program administrators have realized that the time has come to alter and provide innovative educational opportunities that prepare students for careers outside of traditional employment Entrepreneurship education across the disciplines is quickly becoming the status quo on today's college campuses However in making these curricular changes faculty must engage in significant assessment of these new approaches to ensure that students are obtaining a return on their investment in the college education and degree that they seek Cultivating Entrepreneurial Changemakers Through Digital Media Education is a crucial reference book that cultivates timely and relevant practices in the development of improved teaching methods assessments information delivery and technological tools that are used to facilitate and support the social entrepreneurship and digital journalism education space It explores the role of media innovation and how the landscape is ripe for the influx of social entrepreneurs or the rise of the social newspreneur The chapters cover areas such as methods used in journalism programs social entrepreneurship in course design educational technologies student learning outcomes and how these programs foster civic engagement This book is a valuable reference tool for university faculty university administrators news organization leaders journalists reporters broadcasting agencies professors practitioners stakeholders researchers academicians and students In the News Jerry W. Knudson, 2000 This book provides rare and candid insights by those who experienced the reality of meeting a deadline and the pressures of space limitations and access to information Knudson has crafted a seamless narrative of journalism in America by tying together his own keen commentary on the evolution of news reporting with brief excerpts from those who actually did the reporting from colonial times through the Monica Lewinsky scandal Students will hear what the following notable journalists had to say about their craft and the coverage of contemporary events Benjamin Franklin's ambivalence about the colonial press extolling the watchdog concept of newspapers while abhorring the rough and tumble personal journalism of his day Frederick Douglass's vivid and literary description of his 1847 interview with John Brown Ida B Wells account of how her small newspaper a beacon for many African Americans was destroyed by an angry mob in 1892 Ida Tarbell's description of her meeting with John D Rockefeller Richard Harding Davis's 1911 Collier's excerpt in which he laments the shift from the resourceful and ingenious traditional correspondent to the thundering mob of reporters who descended on any event of significance Martha Gellhorn's experiences as a journalist who covered World War II for Collier's Ernie Pyle's portrait of what it was like to be a correspondent slogging with the troops through the Italian campaign in World War II David Brinkley recounting what it was like to be a veteran reporter during the JFK assassination and funeral The Washington Post's Vice President and Executive Editor Ben Bradlee discussing the impact of Watergate on news reporting Molly Ivins a Texas journalist whose first collection of columns remained on The New York Times bestseller list for over 12 months writes about media critics

Telling the Story Brian S. Brooks, Missouri Group, 2001 A brief and accessible text that covers key news writing and reporting skills Fifteen streamlined chapters introduce students to the skills they need with a step by step approach that lends itself to learning essential journalistic skills quickly The brief spiral bound text begins with the evolving nature of the news and moves on to chapters about writing and reporting news writing for broadcast public relations and online environments and the principles of ethics and law Unique section on writing for multiple media Part Five prepares students for the realities of today's workplace where many will seek jobs beyond traditional newspapers by providing full chapters on broadcast writing Chapter 11 public relations Chapter 12 and a unique chapter on online journalism Chapter 13 Multimedia journalism simulation CD ROM This interactive journalism simulation included with each copy of the book presents a crime scenario in real time using text audio and video clips Students can use the CD ROM along with support material in the book to write a variety of stories
