From Old Woman To Older Woman Contemporary Culture And Womens Narratives:

From Old Woman to Older Women Sally Chivers,2003

From Old Woman to Older Women Sally Chivers,2003

Drawing on the perspective of aging bodies in order to approach the study of contemporary Canadian women s fiction the author seeks to understand body criticism in general because elderly physical experiences lay bare crucial assumptions of thinking through the body It also investigates the mechanisms and effects of constructions of aging in order to combat the automatically negative reactions most readers have to the topic of old age

From Old Woman to Older Women Sally Chivers,2003-09-01 Sally Chivers provides a fascinating look at and challenge to how North American popular culture has portrayed old age as a time of disease decline and death Within contemporary Canadian literary and film production a tradition of articulate central elderly female characters challenges what the aging body has come to signify in a broader cultural context Rather than seek positive images of aging which can do their own prescriptive damage the author focuses on constructive depictions that provide a basis on which to create new stories and readings of growing old This type of humanities approach to the study of aging promises neither to fixate on nor avoid consideration of the role of the body in the much broader process of getting olden The progression implied in the title from the solitary symbol of The Old Woman toward a community of older women indicates not a move toward euphemism but rather an increasing and necessary awareness of the social and cultural dimensions of aging

Routledge Handbook of Cultural Gerontology Julia Twigg,Wendy Martin,2015-06-12 Later years are changing under the impact of demographic social and cultural shifts No longer confined to the sphere of social welfare they are now studied within a wider cultural framework that encompasses new experiences and new modes of being Drawing on influences from the arts and humanities and deploying diverse methodologies visual literary spatial and theoretical perspectives Cultural Gerontology has brought new aspects of later life into view This major new publication draws together these currents including Theory and Methods Embodiment Identities and Social Relationships Consumption and Leisure and Time and Space Based on specially commissioned chapters by leading international authors the Routledge Handbook of Cultural Gerontology will provide concise authoritative reviews of the key debates and themes shaping this exciting new field

Ageing Women in Literature and Visual Culture Cathy McGlynn,Margaret O'Neill,Michaela Schrage-Früh,2017-11-23 This timely collection engages with representations of women and ageing in literature and visual culture Acknowledging that cultural conceptions of ageing are constructed and challenged across a variety of media and genres the editors bring together experts in literature and visual culture to foster a dialogue across disciplines Exploring the process of ageing in its cultural reflections refractions and reimaginings the contributors to Ageing Women in Literature and Visual Culture analyse how artists writers directors and performers challenge and in some cases reaffirm cultural constructions of ageing women as well as give voice to ageing women s subjectivities The book concludes with an afterword by Germaine Greer which suggests possible avenues for future research

Old Age in

African Literary and Cultural Contexts Pepetual Mforbe Chiangong, 2021-06-15 Through a wide range of indigenous postcolonial gender and racial lenses African writers have provided perspectives on various aspects of old age in the context of African literatures and cultures This book illustrates how African literary and linguistic representations ranging from short stories novels and film to drama and theatre give expression to ideas about old age The perspectives offered here provide essential knowledge in understanding the uses of dichotomous age related categories such as old young elderly male elderly female and foreign indigenous which generally result in prejudice Using ageism as its central theme the contributions draw attention to the ambiguity associated with elderly people in African society who are often highly venerated for their wisdom but also stereotyped because of their advanced age However as the book demonstrates old age is also deeply valorised in some traditional African contexts where older adults are regarded as indispensable members of society It will be of particular interest to scholars researchers and students of African studies applied theatre studies gerontology postcolonialism sociolinguistics sociology and anthropology
