Savita B Singh,2019-01-04 Vasant and Kanchan are a young loving married couple One day Kanchan happens to buy a painting of a young western woman painted by a French artist many decades ago A friend and colleague of Vasant Dr Sarkar likes the painting so much that Kanchan gifts it away to him Then a curious thing happens one night While travelling on a train Dr Sarkar meets a young woman who is a replica of the woman in the painting except for her Indian complexion This woman is Chitra The mainstream of the story is the bonding between a poor orphaned Chitra hounded by past terrors and Dr Sarkar who has an extremely wealthy background and a stable staid persona This is a story that explores the events in people s lives and the role of karma in fashioning our destiny and in entitling us to divine help and intervention Thus the story follows the possible destinations that our life could head towards in this world and beyond
