Going Postal:

Going Postal: More than 'Yes' or 'No' Quinn Eades, Son Vivienne, 2018-11-15 In 2017 the queer and gender diverse community of Australia undertook an incredible campaign of everyday activism around marriage equality As individuals and collectives we shared our personal stories with our networks from social media to workplace to school playground We purged our tears and our rage documented as poems articles photos short stories status updates tweets blog posts political cartoons and short videos Many of us were shocked at the vitriol directed at us to our faces in our letter boxes and online even in secret Facebook groups Many of us were hurt by the unspoken tensions and the conversations we couldn't have with some of our nearest and dearest By the end we were truly exhausted Yes the vote was for equality Yes the legislation went through Yes we can get married now But many of us have been left wondering whether it was worth it Many of us are living with the ongoing grief of having our lives and those of our children be up for public debate Whether you are gay straight black or white or beyond reductive binaries this edited collection guides the reader through the highs and lows of the marriage equality postal vote Combining serious scholarship humour manifestos and simple tales of childhood readers are flung into the emotional melting pot that constitutes a definitive turning point in Australian queer histories These feelings are sticky and sometimes traumatic but there is also catharsis in this compilation This is also a counter archive one that consciously amplifies some of the voices that were drowned out by dominant campaigns including those that questioned the value of marriage as a patriarchal institution or resisted the we are just like you discourses that obscured complex families and queer ways of loving

Beyond the Corporate University Henry A. Giroux, Kostas Myrsiades, 2001 Prominent scholars in this book move boldly beyond critique to show how and why the critical functions of a democratically informed civic education not merely professional training must become the core of the university's mission They show why higher education must address what it means to relate knowledge to public life and social responsibility to the demands of critical citizenship Moreover they show why democratic forms of education and various elements of a critical pedagogy are vital not only to individual students but also to our economy and our democratic institutions and future leadership Visit our website for sample chapters

Before Conflict John D. Byrnes,2002 Rather than look strictly at violence and its implications fatalities crime and assault this work instead looks ahead in order to prevent violence rather than simply to act in reaction to it By using a methodology of Aggression Management those responsible for the safety of others may circumvent the standard practice of mere conflict resolution by dealing with the problem before it creates conflict Because everyone experiences and manages anger differently Aggression Management teaches readers not only how to measure their own aggression but that of others as well The result empowers the reader to stop problems before they even develop Suicide Voices Sarah Waters,2020-09-01 This book examines the phenomenon of work suicides in France and asks why at the present historical juncture conditions of work can push individuals to take their own lives During the 2000s France experienced what commentators have described as a suicide epidemic whereby increasing numbers of workers in the face of extreme pressures of work chose to kill themselves The book analyses a corpus of testimonial material linked to 66 suicide cases across three large French companies during the period from 2005 to 2015 It aims to consider what the extreme and subjective act of self killing narrated in suicide letters can tell us about the contemporary economic order and its impact on flesh and blood bodies What do rising work related suicides reveal about conditions of human labour in the twenty first century Does neoliberal economics condition a desire for suicide How do suicidal individuals describe the causes and motivations of their act Combining critical perspectives from sociology history testimony studies economics cultural studies and public health the book raises critical questions about the
