

A serene sunset scene over a calm ocean. The sky is a gradient of warm colors, from deep orange near the horizon to a lighter yellow at the top. The sun is a bright, glowing orb just above the horizon line, casting a shimmering reflection on the water. In the distance, several dark, silhouetted rocky islands or headlands are visible against the bright sky. The overall mood is peaceful and contemplative.

Gurung, Beth M. Schwartz, 2011-08-26 The scholarship of teaching and learning SoTL is one of the most dynamic areas of research in the field of higher education today in which faculty continuously evaluate the quality of their teaching and its affect on student learning Faculty are being held accountable for the effectiveness of their teaching and in turn they are starting to engage in SoTL related intellectual exchanges not only in their research agendas but also in the ways in which they teach their students in the classroom At the heart of this new movement there is a simple idea take a close look at how you teach and how your students learn use the same methodology that you would use for formal investigations be it in the humanities or sciences and hold your research to the same standards most notably peer review Optimizing Teaching and Learning will serve as a guide for anyone who is interested in improving their teaching the learning of their students and at the same time contribute to the scholarship of teaching and learning It bridges the gap between the research and practice of

SoTL with explicit instructions on how to design conduct analyze and write up pedagogical research including samples of actual questionnaires and other materials e g focus group questions that will jumpstart investigations into teaching and learning It also explores the advantages and disadvantages of various pedagogical practices and present applications of SoTL using case studies from a variety of disciplines This book will serve as an invaluable resource for both seasoned faculty and new faculty who are just beginning to assess their teaching methods and learn how to think beyond the content

Constitution, Jefferson's Manual, and Rules of the House of Representatives of the United States United States. Congress. House,1979 House Documents UNITED STATES HOUSE OF. REPRESENTATIVES,2022 Conscious Motherhood Katherine Dickson,2005-03-17 Conscious Motherhood is a personal account of how having a child changes one woman s life It is the story of one woman s experience of herself during these changes This semi autobiography traces the journey toward increasing psychological and emotional wholeness and the role of motherhood in this process The birth of the child initiates a dichotomy between home life and work life and how the new mother deals with the conflict between continuing her career or full time motherhood Immediately after the birth she experiences her body as an instrument in the titanic force of life In the early days at home with her baby she feels she has left civilization and has descended psychologically to a place which is very close to both life and death Without the structure that a career gives life she experiences daily life against the patriarchal structures of family and marriage A sense of emptiness within loss of her center and loss of control of her own life is felt In her isolation she feels the presence of her mother and grandmother and seeks role models and mentors in her friends Her mind is filled with images of women and mothers as well as images of daughters recapitulating their own mothers experiences She questions how she would like her experiences to be different from those of her mother and what utopian motherhood could be like and how these expectations are shaped by one s early experience of home and domesticity The sense of inner revolution and upheaval is paralleled by chaotic and violent events in society The year is 1968 Martin Luther King and Robert Kennedy are assassinated the women s movement begins students riot and many protest the Vietnam War These events form the backdrop of a long journey told in twelve chapters in the creative nonfiction genre The point or purpose of the work is to both present a unique personal account of individual growth as well as to present those aspects of a major experience which are universal What is valuable and interesting about this journey is that this rite of passage is told from the woman s point of view and the woman s experience through the life writing or memoir style Parliamentary Debates New Zealand.
