Going North:

Going North Neil Fligstein, 2013-09-03 Going North Migration of Blacks and Whites from the South 1900 1950 discusses the historical demographic sociological and economic reasons for black and white migrations The book explains the transition from a rural extractive economy to an urban industrial and service economy with emphasis on the effects on the Southern rural population After the Civil War emerging business concerns became politically and economically significant making the South a source for needed resources 1930 was a defining year Before 1930 migration reflected the growth and contraction of cotton agriculture in the South After 1930 the transition from a tenant labor intensive cotton agriculture economy to a capitalist machine driven economy caused the black and white migration to the north American development was not a simple process it shows how northern business interests defeated southern planters This transformation has created a permanent underclass in society that can be found in the cities of the South North and Midwest regions of America today Sociologists economists academicians doing sociological research and students of U S history can benefit from reading the book The Abridgment United States. President, 1871 The Army of Northern Virginia Philip Katcher, 2004-03 To see the introduction the table of contents a generous selection of sample pages and more visit the website The Army of Northern Virginia website The Confederate Army of Northern Virginia was one of the greatest fighting formations in history a combination of an outstanding commander and an excellent fighting force This book offers an in depth study of why this formation was so successful against Northern armies which often had a greater wealth of resources and manpower and some very able leaders Almost always outnumbered Lee's forces were able to record a number of notable victories by giving free rein to subordinates and utilizing the fighting qualities of the army's units to the full Also includes color and black and white maps The Artistic Guide to Chicago and the World's Columbian Exposition Columbian Art Co, 1892 Annual Reports [etc.] United States. Public Health Service, 1901 Missing Links in Labour Geography Ann Cecilie Bergene, Sylvi B. Endresen, 2016-12-05 Addressing a number of missing links in the analysis of labour and its geographies this volume examines how theoretical perspectives on both labour in general and the organizations of the labour movement in particular can be refined and redefined Issues of agency power and collective mobilizations are examined and illustrated via a wide range of case studies from the global north and global south in order to develop a better and fuller appreciation of labour market processes in developed and developing countries Saying and Doing in Zapotec Mark A. Sicoli, 2020-09-17 A multimodal ethnography of language as living process this book demonstrates methods for the integrated analysis of talk gesture and material culture developing a fresh way to understand human language through a focus on jointly achieved social actions to which it is part Based on findings from a participatory multimedia language documentation project in a highland Zapotec community of Oaxaca Mexico Mark A Sicoli brings together goals of documentary linguistics and anthropological concern with the everyday means and ends of human social life with theoretical consequences for the analysis of linguistic and cultural reproduction and change This book argues that resonances emergent in the whole of multiparticipant multimodal interaction are organizational of human social cognitive process important for understanding both the shape linguistic utterances take in interaction dialogic resonance and the relationships built between distinct sign modes intermodal resonance In this way Saying and Doing in Zapotec develops a new theory characterizing the logic of resonance in human interaction as semiotic process that connects and juxtaposes interactional moves into assemblages of relations resonances and collaborations that build an emergent lifeworld for a language
