Going Places Fran Hurcomb, 2008-10-01 Twelve year old Jess and her friends have been playing hockey with the boys in Fort Desperation Northwest Territories since they were six years old They'd like to start a girls team in their community but in tiny Fort Desperation ready for it Somebody is trying to scare them off through acts of vandalism Not only do Jess and her friends have to organize a team find a coach and learn to play together they have to unmask the Hockey Vandal Can they do it before the Vandal destroys their team's hopes

Going Places Julie Fry, Hayden Glass, 2016-03-15 Migration and the movement of people is one of the critical issues confronting the world's nations in the twenty first century This book is about the economic contribution of migration to and from New Zealand one of the most frequently discussed aspects of the debate Can immigration in economic terms be more than a gap filler for the labour market and help as well with national economic transformation And what is the evidence on the effect of migration not just on house prices but also on jobs trade or broader economic performance Building on Sir Paul Callaghan's vision of New Zealand as a place where talent wants to live this book explores how we can attract skilled creative and entrepreneurial people born in other countries and whether our seventeenth region the more than 600 000 New Zealanders living abroad can be a greater national asset

Empowered For the Unprecedented Bill Vincent, 2022-10-14 God spoke to me today He began to speak to me about different things It's just been one of those times in the last few weeks God has just been speaking incredibly special things I believe such a time as this this is the most powerful time in the church ever in our lives In anybody's lifetime is right now what God wants to do He wants to do wonderful things He wants to do mighty things It's not just about America but it's about the world In our day of destiny that's what it is This is our destiny For what God is getting ready to do there is a destiny we're going to see the glory of God To see the glory we must believe you got to believe God's doing something For a long time I've been in many revivals and we've had outbreaks of revival where people were healed 1000s of cancers and all kinds of miracles and and things taken place We've had so many different things take place every time

Gospel Journeys Emily C. Holman, 2011-12-15 Travel with Deacon Emily around the world as she discovers what world markets the fauna of Ecuador Buddhism Michelangelo's sculpture and the message of Christ have in common Gospel Journeys Travels of a collection of sermons and essays reflects her passion as a deacon in the Episcopal Church to bring the needs of the world to the church and the light of Christ of to the world From Ecuador to Siberia she transports us to the sights of the stark reality of Nelson Mandela's tiny prison cell on Robben Island in South Africa to the smile on the faces of Salvadoran children reading a book Through each adventure she surprises us with where she sees the Hands of God The New Tolerance Josh McDowell, Bob Hostetler, 1998 How culture movement threatens to destroy you your faith and your children Living with Jim Crow L. Brown, A. Valk, 2010-07-19 Using first person narratives collected through oral history interviews this groundbreaking book collects black women's memories of their public and private lives during the period of legal segregation in the American South Debt's Grip Pamela Foohey, 2025-07-08 Debt's Grip tells the story of financial struggle in the United States Drawing on original data from the Consumer Bankruptcy Project a landmark long term study the authors use the words of bankruptcy filers themselves to shed light on their battles to keep their homes and their cars pay for healthcare and higher education care for their children find adequate employment retire negotiate with debt collectors and confront discrimination in lending Laying bare the consequences of risk privatization this book makes a powerful case for why the United States must confront the structural inequities that cause so many especially Black families women and the elderly to struggle in today's economy Contesting Peace in the Postwar City Ivan Gusic, 2019-12-03 Contesting Peace in the Postwar City is key reading for urban and peace and conflict scholars In this impressive and meticulously researched book Gusic reflects on the ways in which divisions are routinised in the everyday landscape of divided cities and skilfully investigates how change and continuity are governed in postwar urban spaces The book provides rich empirical material from the cities of Mostar Mitrovica and Belfast drawing on nuanced fieldwork insights Stefanie Kappler Durham University UK Ivan Gusic sets out a powerful theoretically critical and empirically rich account of the trajectories of cities after war The strength of the work is that it brings an understanding of the urban condition into relation with ethno national conflict and the survival of violence Gusic unsettles dominant narratives in peace studies by offering a grounded evaluation of three cities coming out of violence and points to the importance of place in peacebuilding processes Brendan Murtagh Queen's University Belfast UK Detailed case studies of Belfast Mitrovica and Mostar show how cities are often engines of what Ivan Gusic calls war in peace This on trend study combines the latest research from critical urban studies with peace and conflict studies to produce a very accessible and internationally relevant book It is highly recommended Roger Mac Ginty Durham University UK This book explores why the postwar city reinforces rather than transcends its continuities of war in peace It theorises war to peace transitions as conflicts over how to socio politically order society and then analyses different urban conflicts over peace's in postwar Belfast Northern Ireland Mitrovica Kosovo and

Mostar Bosnia Herzegovina Focusing on themes such as educational segregation clientelism fear paramilitaries and infrastructure it shows how conflict lines from war are perpetuated in and by the postwar city Yet it also discovers instances where antagonisms are bridged by utilising the postwar city s transcending potential While written in the nexus between peace research and urban studies this book also speaks to political geography international relations anthropology and planning
