Classical to Novel M.H. ter Beek, M. Koutny, G. Rozenberg, 2020-11-20 This book A Mosaic of Computational Topics from Classical to Novel is a collection of papers published to honor Professor Jetty Kleijn on the occasion of her 65th birthday. The scope and reach of her research is truly broad. She has made significant and lasting contributions in several research areas both through the solving of challenging problems and in her pioneering of new research directions. She has published influential papers contributing to the foundations of computer science in particular in the area of formal languages and automata theory to concurrency theory in particular Petri nets and to natural computing in particular bio inspired computing and the computational modeling of bio processes. A significant part of Professor Kleijn's research portfolio is interdisciplinary including her work on the Petri net modeling of biological processes and the development of novel models of information processing in bio systems such as reaction systems. She is also passionately engaged in promoting the involvement of women in computer science. Jetty and her work are well recognized by the scientific community a fact demonstrated by the enthusiastic response to the invitation to contribute to this book and the 14 carefully refereed papers collected together here explore a number of research topics that are either directly or indirectly related to research directions pursued by Jetty Kleijn in the course of her career.

The Cambridge History of the Mongol Empire 2 Volumes Michal Biran, Hodong Kim, 2023-08-17 In the thirteenth and fourteenth centuries Chinggis Khan and his progeny ruled over two thirds of Eurasia. Connecting East West North and South the Mongols integrated most of the Old World promoting unprecedented cross cultural contacts and triggering the reshuffle of religious ethnic and geopolitical identities. The Cambridge History of the Mongol Empire studies the Empire holistically in its full Eurasian context putting the Mongols and their nomadic culture at the center. Written by an international team of more than forty leading scholars this two volume set provides an authoritative and multifaceted history of the Mongol Moment 1206-1368 in world history and includes an unprecedented survey of the various sources for its study textual written in sixteen languages archaeological and visual. This groundbreaking Cambridge History sets a new standard for future study of the Empire. It will serve as the fundamental reference work for those interested in Mongol Eurasian and world history.
