Margaret Mead, Ruth Leah Bunzel, 1960 The Oxford Handbook of Modern and Contemporary American Poetry

Cary Nelson, 2012 The Oxford Handbook of Modern and Contemporary American Poetry gives readers a cutting edge introduction to the kaleidoscopic world of American poetry over the last century Offering a comprehensive approach to the debates that have defined the study of American verse the twenty five original essays contained herein take up a wide array of topics the influence of jazz on the Beats and beyond European and surrealist influences on style poetics of the disenfranchised religion and the national epic antiwar and dissent poetry the AIDS epidemic digital innovations transnationalism hip hop and more Alongside these topics major interpretive perspectives such as Marxist psychoanalytic disability queer and ecocritical are incorporated Throughout the names that have shaped American poetry in the period Ezra Pound Wallace Stevens Marianne Moore Mina Loy Sterling Brown Hart Crane William Carlos Williams Posey Langston Hughes Allen Ginsberg John Ashbery Rae Armantrout Larry Eigner and others serve as touchstones along the tour of the poetic landscape Tewa Tales Elsie Clews Parsons, 1994-03 The Tewa are a Pueblo Indian group from New Mexico some of whom migrated around 1700 in the aftermath of the second Pueblo Revolt to their present location on First Mesa of the Hopi Reservation in northern Arizona This collection of more than one hundred tales from both New Mexico and Arizona Tewa first published in 1926 bears witness to their rich cultural history In addition to emergence and animal stories these tales also provide an account of many social customs such as wedding ceremonies and relay racing that show marked differences between the two tribal groups A comparison of tales from the two divisions of the tribe reveals something of what has happened to both emigrant and home staying Tewa over two centuries of separation Yet while only half of the Arizona tales are distinctly parallel to the New Mexican additional similarities may be found in such narrative features as the helpfulness of Spider old woman and her possession of medicine creating life magically under a blanket or Coyote beguiling girls into marriage Elsie Clews Parsons was a pioneering anthropologist in the Southwest whose works included the encyclopedic Pueblo Indian Religion The Tewa tales she gathered for this volume are thus notable not only as fascinating stories that will delight curious readers but also as authentic reflections of a people less known to scholars Elsie Clews Parsons Desley

Deacon,2008-04-15 Elsie Clews Parsons was a pioneering feminist an eminent anthropologist and an ardent social critic In Elsie Clews Parsons Desley Deacon reconstructs Parsons s efforts to overcome gender biases in both academia and society

Continuities in Cultural Evolution Margaret Mead,2017-07-12 Margaret Mead once said I have spent most of my life studying the lives of other peoples faraway peoples so that Americans might better understand themselves Continuities in Cultural Evolution is evidence of this devotion All of Mead s efforts were intended to help others learn about themselves and work toward a more humane and socially responsible society Scientist writer explorer and teacher Mead brought the serious work of anthropology into the public consciousness This volume began as the Terry Lectures given at Yale in 1957 and was not published until 1964 after extensive reworking The time she spent on revision is evidence of the importance Mead attached to the subject the need to develop a truly evolutionary vision of human culture and society This was desirable in her eyes both in order to reinforce the historical dimension in our ideas about human culture and to preserve the relevance of historical and cultural diversity to social economic and political action Given the present state of academic and public discourse alike this volume speaks to us in a language we badly need to recover The Paranormal Surrounds Us Richard

Reichbart,2019-01-02 Shakespeare Tolstoy Joyce E M Forster and Ingmar Bergman all made the paranormal essential to their depiction of humanity Freud recognized telepathy as an everyday phenomenon Observations on parapsychological aspects of psychoanalysis also include the findings of the Mesmerists Jung Ferenczi and Eisenbud Many academicians attribute such psychic discoveries to poetic license rather than to accurate understanding of our parapsychological capacities The author a practicing psychoanalyst and parapsychologist and a lawyer familiar with Navajo culture argues for a fresh appraisal of psi phenomena and their integration into psychoanalytic theory and clinical work literary studies and anthropology Henry Adams and His World David R. Competition Among Primitive Peoples Margaret Mead,2018-02-06 In many respects this volume is a pioneer effort in anthropological literature It remains firmly part of the genre of cooperative research or interdisciplinary research though at the time of its original publication that phrase had yet to be coined Additionally this work is more theoretical in nature than a faithful anthropological record as all the essays were written in New York City on a low budget and without fieldwork The significance of these studies lies in the fact that Cooperation and Competition Among Primitive Peoples was the first attempt to think about the very complex problems of cultural character and social structure coupled with a meticulous execution of comparative study

Honor the Earth Phil Bellfy,2022 The Great Lakes Basin is under severe ecological threat from fracking bursting pipelines sulfide mining abandonment of government environmental regulation invasive species warming and lowering of the lakes etc This book presents essays on Traditional Knowledge Indigenous Responsibility and how Indigenous people governments and NGOs are responding to the environmental degradation which threatens the Great Lakes This volume grew out of a conference that was held on the campus of Michigan State University on Earth Day 2007 All of the essays have been updated and revised for this book Among the presenters were Ward Churchill author and activist Joyce Tekahnawiiaks King Director Akwesasne Justice Department Frank Ettawageshik Executive Director of the United Tribes of Michigan Aaron Payment Chair of the Sault Sainte Marie Tribe of Chippewa Indians and Dean Sayers Chief of the Batchewana First Nation Winona LaDuke author activist twice Green Party VP candidate also contributed to this volume Adapted from the Introduction by Dr Phil Bellfy The elements of the relationship that the Great Lakes ancient peoples had with their environment developed over the millennia was based on respect for the natural landscape pure and simple The original people of this area not only maintained their lives they thrived within the natural boundaries established by their relationship with the natural world In today s vocabulary it may be something as simple as an understanding that if human beings take care of the environment the environment will take care of them The entire relationship can be summarized as harmony and balance based on respect

At the Center Casey Nelson Blake,Daniel H. Borus,Howard Brick,2019-12-03 At a time when American political and cultural leaders asserted that the nation stood at the center of world awareness thinkers and artists sought to understand and secure principles that lay at the center of things From the onset of the Cold War in 1948 through 1963 they asked What defined the essential character of American culture Could permanent moral standards guide human conduct amid the flux and horrors of history In what ways did a stable self emerge through the life cycle Could scientific method rescue truth from error illusion and myth Are there key elements to democracy to the integrity of a society to order in the world Answers to such questions promised intellectual and moral stability in an age haunted by the memory of world war and the possibility of future devastation on an even greater scale Yet other key figures rejected the search for a center asserting that freedom lay in the dispersion of cultural energies and the plurality of American experiences In probing the centering impulse of the era At the Center offers a unique perspective on the United States at the pinnacle of its power

Seeds of Conflict in a Haven of Peace Frans Jozef Servaas Wijsen,2007 On 7 August 1998 the American embassies in

Nairobi and Dar es Salaam were bombed and 200 people lost their lives These bombings shattered the image of Africa's tradition of peaceful religious coexistence Since then inter religious dialogue has been high on the agendas of ecclesial and religious organisations but not so much of faculties of theology and departments of religion in East Africa This book investigates why this is so How are interreligious relations dealt with in Africa and more particularly how are they and how should they be taught in institutions of higher learning This book is based on fieldwork in Nairobi from 2001 onwards It shows why Africa's tradition of peaceful co existence is not going to help Africa in the 21st century and recommends a shift in the education in inter religious relations from religions studies to inter religious studies Wisconsin Library Bulletin
