The Victoria and Albert Museum Elizabeth James, 2013-10-15 A comprehensive bibliography and exhibition chronology of the world's greatest museum of the decorative arts and design The Victoria and Albert Museum or South Kensington Museum as it used to be known was founded by the British Government in 1852 out of the proceeds from the Great Exhibition of 1851 Like the Exhibition it aimed to improve the expertise of designers and the taste of the public by exposing them to examples of good design from all countries and periods 2 500 publications have to date been produced by for or in association with the V A The National Art Library which is part of the Museum has prepared this detailed catalogue supplemented by a secondary list of 500 other books closely related to the V A The 1 500 exhibitions and displays recorded include those held in the main Museum and at its branches the Bethnal Green Museum now the National Museum of Childhood and the Theatre Museum Covent Garden and additionally those it has organized at external venues in Great Britain and abroad The exhibitions and publications are fully cross referenced and there are name title and subject indexes to the whole work as well as an explanatory introduction     Impressionism in Britain Kenneth McConkey, Anna Gruetzner

Robins, 1995-01-01 Late in his career Claude Monet returned to London to paint the fog that had entranced him years before The resulting sequence of pictures represents some of the fascination that French painters felt for Britain Similarly many British collectors and young painters embraced and were influenced by the work of the French Impressionists This book describes the activities of the French Impressionist painters on their visits to Britain considers the dissemination of Impressionist painting through British dealers and collectors explores the response of artists from Britain and Ireland to the Impressionist movement and sets all of these against the backdrop of late Victorian and Edwardian Britain McConkey and Robins describe the work of Monet Pissarro Sisley and other Impressionists working in London showing how this art influenced the community of young British painters disenchanted with British art schools and art exhibiting standards The authors investigate the role played by two innovative painters who were American expatriates James McNeill Whistler and John Singer Sargent And they explain how such artists as William Orpen George Clausen Stanhope Forbes Henry La Thangue Walter Sickert and Philip Wilson Steer sought out new and radical approaches to picture making formed new secessionist art societies and articulated new concepts of the role of art rejecting historical pageants and fashionable aestheticism and focusing on modern rural and urban conditions The book is the catalogue of an exhibition that will be at the Barbican Art Gallery in London from January to March 1995 and then move to Dublin      Victorian Afterlife John Kucich,Dianne F.
