His scores ranged from documentaries to almost 80 full length feature films including classics such as Fires were Started Desert Victory Odd Man Out The Fallen Idol and The History of Mr Polly he was adept at any musical genre from classical to cartoon slapstick and in the process worked with legendary directors including Carol Reed David Lean Humphrey Jennings and Anthony Asquith Alone with Vaughan Williams he was granted the distinction of a separate title credit columnists mentioned him alongside Bliss Bax and Walton However as the reputation of the British film industry declined in the 1950s so musical snobbery against those who were its leading lights became unpleasantly raw In recent years however with sensitive performances of his film and concert music available on CD this most appealing of composers has enjoyed something of a renaissance In this long overdue reassessment Alwyn's films are analysed and put into the context of his biography the film industry and of society at large the author shows in particular this remarkably versatile composer developed a hitherto unrecognised grammar of film music which enhanced every film on which he worked He also examines his work for war propaganda radio and the concert hall The volume is enhanced by the most complete filmography discography and bibliography of the composer's works yet published as well as listings of his concert and radio music
