Reyerson, 2016-09-01 This book illuminates the connections and interaction among women and between women and men during the medieval period To do this Kathryn L Reyerson focuses specifically on the experiences of Agnes de Bossones widow of a changer of the mercantile elite of Montpellier Agnes was a real estate mogul and a patron of philanthropic institutions that permitted lower strata women to survive and thrive in a mature urban economy of the period before 1350 Notably Montpellier was a large urban center in southern France Linkages stretched horizontally and vertically in this robust urban environment mitigating the restrictions of patriarchy and the constraints of gender Using the story of Agnes de Bossones as a vehicle to larger discussions about gender this book highlights the undeniable impact that networks had on women's mobility and navigation within a restrictive medieval society Long Island Source Records, 1987 This is a collection of articles published originally in The New York Genealogical and Biographical Record containing primary source materials on Long Island The records included range from censuses and lists of early inhabitants to newspaper notices wills deeds town records and Bible and family records Among the census records in this volume are the Southold census of 1686 the Hempstead census of 1698 and the 1800 federal census of Kings Queens and Suffolk counties Early Kings County wills and deeds are abstracted as are wills found in Queens County deed books In addition there are town records or vital statistics for Newtown Huntington Gravesend Hempstead and especially Southold The entire collection of articles is completely indexed 25 000 entries and forms the perfect companion volume to the two volume Genealogies of Long Island Families see Item 3433 A Survey of London John Stow, 1890 A survey of London.
