Good Evening, Mrs. Craven Mollie Panter-Downes, 1999 Originally published in The New Yorker Mollie Panter Downes was the voice of England during the Second World War The Short Story and the First World War Ann-Marie Einhaus, 2013-07-31 The poetry of the First World War has come to dominate our understanding of its literature while genres such as the short story which are just as vital to the literary heritage of the era have largely been neglected In this study Ann Marie Einhaus challenges deeply embedded cultural conceptions about the literature of the First World War using a corpus of several hundred short stories that until now have not undergone any systematic critical analysis From early wartime stories to late twentieth century narratives and spanning a wide spectrum of literary styles and movements Einhaus's work reveals a range of responses to the war through fiction from pacifism to militarism Going beyond the household names of Owen Sassoon and Graves Einhaus offers scholars and students unprecedented access to new frontiers in twentieth century literary studies The British and Irish Short Story Handbook David Malcolm, 2012-01-12 The British and Irish Short Story Handbook guides readers through the development of the short story and the unique critical issues involved in discussions of short fiction It includes a wide ranging analysis of non canonical and non realist writers as well as the major authors and their works providing a comprehensive and much needed appraisal of this area Guides readers through the development of the short story and critical issues involved in discussions of short fiction Offers a detailed discussion of the range of genres in the British and Irish short story Includes extensive analysis of non canonical writers such as Hubert Crackanthorpe Ella D Arcy T F Powys A E Coppard Julian Maclaren Ross Mollie Panter Downes Denton Welch and Sylvia Townsend Warner Provide a wide ranging discussion of non realist and experimental short stories Includes a large section on the British short story in the Second World War Servants: A Downstairs History of Britain from the Nineteenth Century to Modern Times Lucy Lethbridge, 2013-11-18 A compassionate and discerning exploration of the complex relationship between the server the served and the world they lived in Servants opens a window onto British society from the Edwardian period to the present www Amazon com Reading London in Wartime William Cederwell, 2017-11-06 Reading London in Wartime Blitz the People and Propaganda in 1940s Literature presents an expansive variety of writers and genres including non fiction and film approaches to build a comprehensive social picture of the atmosphere during wartime London From blitz and austerity to the nagging insistency of propaganda this volume examines the representation of London in wartime and early post war literature through each writer's unique perspective on the pressures of 1940s city life Exploring the use of London imagery this book considers how literature redirects attention to individual subjective experience at a time of enforced co operation uniformity and community Unlike government information films and news broadcasts which often used London to prop up prevailing clichés and stereotypes and encouraged patriotic support for the war literature had the freedom to express more recalcitrant truths London writing of the 1940s was not a literature of opposition or dissent but in offering more nuanced depictions of the period it was a counterweight to propaganda and the general war temperament In writing the city becomes a more complex place no longer the easy symbol of defiance and stoicism of the shared sacrifice of ration book and war work The Battle of London 1939-45 Jerry White,2021-11-04
