Re-Envisioning Education and Democracy Ruthanne Kurth-Schai, Charles R. Green, 2006-09-01 The fate of public education and therefore the future of our democracy is at risk Powerful forces are eroding commitment to public schools and weakening democratic resolve Yet even in deeply troubling times it is possible to broaden social imagination and empower efforts toward systemic progressive reform This book is an invitation for widespread participation in a complex process re envisioning education and democracy To reenvision to envision and then envision again is to join with others in imagining new possibilities and bringing these into existence Re envisioning is a radically social process Although distinct and varied individual contributions are required transformative visions cannot be advanced through the agency of one charismatic person or bound by one influential perspective The process of re envisioning like all forms of democratic living and learning draws energy and insight when connection and communion are sustained across dimensions of difference Re envisioning is an intensely creative and exploratory process It is not accomplished through careful construction of best laid plans aimed at attaining certainty and control Re envisioning is instead experienced and evolved by preparing for and then acting on informed and strategic glimpses These brief and fleeting impressions multimodal and multi sensory incomplete and ambiguous always in motion offer potentials but no definitive answers Re envisioning is a profoundly ethical and aesthetic process centered in prospects for social justice compassion reform and renewal Social movements are rarely motivated by commitments to narrow objectives aimed at solving specific problems Across time and cultures we are drawn to persons and processes to ideas and images that call us back to remember our highest principles and move us forward to respond with acts of integrity and grace Recurrent themes of beauty and power here mirrored in chapter titles inspire guide and liberate collective vision and principled action Re envisioning although accessible to all remains largely undeveloped and underutilized Our collective ability to realize progressive aspirations for education and democracy can be significantly enhanced by integrating the process of re envisioning with other more familiar educational and political reform strategies

Images at Work David Morgan,2018-01-02 Images can be studied in many ways as symbols displays of artistic genius adjuncts to texts or naturally occurring phenomena like reflections and dreams Each of these approaches is justified by the nature of the image in question as well as the way viewers engage with it But images are often something more when they perform in ways that exhibit a capacity to act independent of human will Images come alive they move us to action calm us reveal the power of the divine change the world around us In these instances we need an alternative model for exploring what is at work one that recognizes the presence of images as objects that act on us Building on his previous innovative work in visual and religious studies David Morgan creates a new framework for understanding how the human mind can be enchanted by images in Images at Work In carefully crafted arguments Morgan proposes that images are special kinds of objects fashioned and recognized by human beings for their capacity to engage us From there he demonstrates that enchantment as described is not a violation of cosmic order but a very natural way that the mind animates the world around it His groundbreaking study outlines the deeply embodied process by which humans create culture by endowing places things and images with power and agency These various agents human and non human material geographic and spiritual become nodes in the web of relationships thus giving meaning to images and to human life Marrying network theory with cutting edge work in visual studies and connecting the visual and bodily technologies employed by the ancient Greeks and Romans to secular icons like Che Guevara Abraham Lincoln and Mao Images at Work will be transformative for those curious about why images seem to have a power of us in ways we can t always describe
