

A photograph of a forest with many tall, thin trees. Several of the trees in the foreground and middle ground have yellow tags wrapped around their trunks. The tags appear to have some text on them, but it is not legible. The forest floor is covered with green grass and some fallen leaves. The sky is visible through the trees, showing a clear blue color.

Im Schatten Von Auschwitz:

Born Under Auschwitz Mary Cosgrove, 2014 Uncovers the literary traditions of melancholy that inform major works of postwar and contemporary German literature dealing with the Holocaust and the Nazi period Reparations for Nazi Victims in Postwar Europe Regula Ludi, 2012-08-27 A history of reparations from a comparative and transnational perspective tracing back to their origins in the final years of the Second World War W.G. Sebald and the Writing of History Anne Fuchs, Jonathan James Long, 2007 Summary W G Sebald frequently mentioned in the same breath as Franz Kafka and Vladimir Nabokov is one of the most important European writers of recent decades He has been lauded by such major cultural commentators as Susan Sontag and Paul Auster and he has combined wide public appeal with universal critical acclaim His work is concerned with questions of memory exile representation and above all else history But his approach to history is strikingly different from conventional historiographical writing on the one hand and from the historical novel on the other His texts are hybrid in nature mixing fiction biography historiography travel writing and memoir and incorporating numerous photographic images This volume seeks to respond to the complexities of Sebald's image of history by presenting essays by a team of international scholars all of whom are acknowledged Sebald experts It offers a unique and exciting perspective on the dazzling work of one of the major literary figures of our times Publisher description

Challenging Ethnic Citizenship Daniel Levy, Yfaat Weiss, 2002-05-01 In contrast to most other countries both Germany and Israel have descent based concepts of nationhood and have granted members of their nation ethnic Germans and Jews who wish to immigrate automatic access to their respective citizenship privileges Therefore these two countries lend themselves well to comparative analysis of the integration process of immigrant groups who are formally part of the collective self but increasingly transformed into others The book examines the integration of these privileged immigrants in relation to the experiences of other minority groups e.g. labor migrants Palestinians This volume offers rich empirical and theoretical material involving historical developments demographic changes sociological problems anthropological insights and political implications Focusing on the three dimensions of citizenship sovereignty and control the allocation of social and political rights and questions of national self understanding the essays bring to light the elements that are distinctive for either society but also point to similarities that owe as much to nation specific characteristics as to evolving patterns of global migration National Socialist Extermination Policies Ulrich Herbert, 2000 This volume comprises 11 essays most of them revised versions of lectures given 1996-1997 at the Albert Ludwigs University in Freiburg by German historians of the younger generation all born since 1951 The purpose of the lecture series was to leave behind the stale and rigid terms of Holocaust scholarship and public discussion of the issue from the editor's foreword The essays focusing on Poland the Soviet Union Serbia and France aim to identify the impulses that drove German activities in each area and to identify how various political goals and ideological convictions combined to produce policy Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc

Portland OR W.G. Sebald Jonathan James Long,2007 Uses the problem of modernity to explore various themes in Sebald's work Wilhelm Raabe Florian Krobb,2017-12-02 Wilhelm Raabe 1831 1910 is one of the major figures of 19th century German Realist writing acknowledged as an innovator both stylistically and thematically But until now there has been little concentration on the international and postcolonial dimensions of Raabe's work his literary critique of colonialism his engagement with modernization and globalization his involvement in 19th century German discourses about America Africa and Asia and the links between international and national issues in his writing In Raabe International contributions from many eminent critics address Raabe both as a writer on world affairs and as a subject himself for translation and comment outside of Germany Experience and Expression Elizabeth R. Baer,Myrna Goldenberg,2003-02-01 The introduction provides a thorough overview of the current status of research in the field and each essay seeks to push the theoretical boundaries that shape our understanding of women's experience and agency during the Holocaust and of the ways in which they have expressed their memories A People Destroyed Anton Weiss-Wendt,2025 Anton Weiss Wendt and the volume's contributors build on extensive existing Holocaust scholarship to feature the most recent work on the Roma genocide in Europe during World War II Performative Figures of Queer Masculinity Christiane König,2022-09-15 This is a German history of cinema and film from the 1890s to 1945 with a focus on queer masculinity Using media studies approaches the study shows how film as a new medium is constituted through performative re enactments of spectacular elements from the entertainment and knowledge cultures of the 19th century In it bodies desires and identities are constantly remodelled through the formation of difference Therefore male queerness here does not mean the representation of male homosexuality Rather it is the dynamic result of complex medial processes affects and self knowledge on and off the screen Building on Eve K Sedgwick's queer feminist concept of queer performativity the author creates a historically situated model with which she traces various figures of technically anthropomorphic queer masculinity in the medium of film in an empowering sense This book is a translation of an original German 1st edition Performative Figuren queerer Männlichkeit by Christiane König published by J B Metzler imprint of Springer Verlag GmbH Germany part of Springer Nature in 2020 The translation was done with the help of artificial intelligence machine translation by the service DeepL.com The author with the friendly support of Megan Hanson has subsequently revised the text further in an endeavour to refine the work stylistically Springer Nature works continuously to further the development of tools for the production of books and on the related technologies to support authors Edith Stein and Regina Jonas Emily Leah Silverman,2014-09-03 This ground breaking book examines the lives of two extraordinary religious women Both Edith Stein and Regina Jonas were German Jewish women who demonstrated deviant religious desires as they pursued their spiritual paths to serve their communities during the Holocaust Both were religious visionaries viewed as iconoclasts in their own times Stein the first woman to receive a doctorate in philosophy from Husserl the founder of phenomenology claimed her Jewish identity while she was still a cloistered Carmelite

Gypsies and their families The Nazi Persecution of the Gypsies makes an important addition to our understanding both of the history of this mysterious people and of all facets of the Nazi terror “Gypsies” in European Literature and Culture V. Glajar,D. Radulescu,2008-04-28 This book traces representations of Gypsies that have become prevalent in the European imagination and culture and influenced the perceptions of Roma in Eastern and Western European societies
