Williams, 2009-03-26 In the late 1980s Holocaust literature emerged as a provocative but poorly defined scholarly field The essays in this volume reflect the increasingly international and pluridisciplinary nature of this scholarship and the widening of the definition of Holocaust literature to include comic books fiction film and poetry as well as the more traditional diaries memoirs and journals Ten contributors from four countries engage issues of authenticity evangelicalism

Teaching and Studying the Holocaust Samuel Totten, Stephen Feinberg, 2009-11-01 Originally Published in 2000 by Allyn Ida E King Distinguished Visitor Professor of Holocaust Studies Richard Stockton College and Former Director of Research at the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum There are many scholars who are wont to criticize the teaching of the Holocaust Many journalists critique what they regard as kitsch or trendiness All critics of contemporary Holocaust education would do well to read this book One cannot fail to be impressed by the quality of its learning and the seriousness of its purpose It is a wonderful place for teachers to turn as they contemplate teaching the Holocaust an open invitation to learn more and teach more effectively Barry van Driel Coordinator International Teacher Education Anne Frank House Amsterdam Teaching and Studying the Holocaust is an invaluable resource for any teacher wanting to address the complex and sometimes overwhelming history of the Holocaust in the classroom The book offers a multitude of sensitive and responsible ways of dealing with the issue of the Holocaust It succeeds in showing teachers very clearly how the study of the Holocaust is not just a topic for history teachers but for teachers across the curriculum Dr Nili Keren Kibbutzim College of Education Tel Aviv Israel Teaching about the Shoah is one of the most complicated tasks for educators Indeed teaching and studying this history raises unprecedented questions concerning modern civilization and presents teachers and students with tremendous challenges Samuel Totten and Stephen Feinberg have created a volume that provides educators with essential information and new insights regarding the teaching of this history and in doing so they assist educators to face the aforementioned challenges head on Teaching and Studying the Holocaust does not make the task easier but it does make it possible Samuel Totten is currently professor of Curriculum and Instruction at the University of Arkansas Fayetteville Prior to entering academia he was an English and social studies teacher in Australia Israel California and at the U S House of Representatives Page School in Washington D C Totten is also editor of Teaching Holocaust Literature published by Allyn Bacon Stephen Feinberg is currently the Special Assistant for Education Programs in the National Institute for Holocaust Education at the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum With Samuel Totten he was co editor of a special issue Teaching the Holocaust of Social Education the official journal of the National Council for the Social Studies For eighteen years he was a history and social studies teacher in the public schools of Wayland MA

Reference Guide to Holocaust Literature Thomas Riggs, 2002 Covering the entire spectrum of the literature of the Holocaust era from the beginnings of Nazism through the concentration camp experience survivor syndrome and second generation response this detailed survey includes entries on more than 200 authors and 300 works Author entries

A.

Quinn,2018-03-01 In this work Carol V A Quinn re constructs the survivors arguments in the debate concerning the ethics of using Nazi medical data showing what it would mean to take their claims seriously She begins with a historical case and presents arguments that help make sense of the following claims 1 Using the data harms the survivors by violating their dignity 2 The survivors are the living data and so when we use the data we use them 3 The data is really not merely symbolically evil and we become morally tainted when we engage it and 4 The survivors are the real moral experts in this debate and so we should take seriously what they say Quinn s approach is interdisciplinary incorporating philosophy psychology trauma research survivors testimony Holocaust poetry literature and the Hebrew Bible The Jewish

Holocaust Marty Bloomberg,Buckley Barry Barrett,1995-01-01 This expanded edition of the guide to major books in English on the Holocaust is organized into ten subject areas reference materials European antisemitism background materials the Holocaust years Jewish resistance An Introduction to Holocaust Studies Michael Bernard-Donals,2016-09-13 This single volume traces three approaches to the study of the Holocaust through notions of history theories of memory and a focus on art and representation It introduces students to the different ways we have come to understand the Holocaust gives them an opportunity to ask questions about those conclusions and examines how this event can be understood once all the survivors are gone In addition the book looks at the different disciplines history sociology religious studies and literary interpretation among others through which studies of the Holocaust take place Created in the Image? Or Rogovin,2024-08-15 The turn of the twenty first century saw the rise of a brand of fiction that centres the experience and perspective of the perpetrator thereby humanizing this character and granting it the capability to evoke our empathy The vast scholarship published on this phenomenon however fails to consider Israeli writing and with it some of the most complex characterizations of Holocaust perpetrators imagined from the unparalleled position of a nation that was shaped from its very birth by the legacy of Holocaust victimhood and survival In Created in the Image Or Rogovin situates Israeli literary responses to the Holocaust in the canon of perpetrator fiction for the first time Since the state s establishment in 1948 perpetrator characterization in Israeli fiction has demonstrated a remarkable development that corresponds to changing circumstances from the Eichmann trial to the First Intifada While early examples depicted perpetrators stereotypically and minimally as seen in Ka Tzetnik s demonic and bestial Nazis in Salamandra and in the amorphous persecutor figures in Aharon Appelfeld s stories since the mid 1980s these characters have been created in the human image as nuanced and multidimensional individuals The turning point came with Herr Neigel the sensitive and self contradictory commandant in David Grossman s See Under Love 1986 followed by likewise multifaceted and humanized perpetrators in fiction by A B Yehoshua Savyon Liebrecht and Amir

Gutfreund Anchored in theoretical and comparative perspectives Created in the Image presents a groundbreaking analysis of the poetic mechanisms moral implications and historical contexts of this paradigm shift in the Israeli literary response to the Shoah Exploring Diversity Jean E. Brown, Elaine C. Stephens, 1996-04-15 Help students explore their own identity through fiction biographies and autobiographies examine their most significant relationships i e with family members and friends and learn about different racial ethnic and cultural traditions through contemporary realistic fiction and historical fiction Brown and Stephens also describe outstanding books and authors that enhance the perspective of diversity and they address controversial issues related to the use of multicultural literature Grades 4-8 English Journal, 1993 The Future Jew Michael Carin, 2001 Views the Holocaust as a pivotal event in history and concludes that God does not exist Argues for a secular humanistic Judaism of the future Jew Holocaust memory is central to this vision which aims at preventing another holocaust or any other genocide Presents an example of a Holocaust seder and stresses that every day should be Holocaust Day States that antisemitism is a constant in history and despite the utopian rationality and science based humanism espoused expresses a commitment to cut off the hands of any antisemitism that threatens before it can harm the Jews This combination of humanism and perpetual memorializing of the Holocaust is seen as giving some redemptive meaning to the Holocaust Much attention is paid to arguing that God's failure to save the Jews proves His non existence Index to Jewish Periodicals, 2004 An author and subject index to selected and American Anglo Jewish journals of general and scholarly interests Holocaust Literature and Representation Phyllis Lassner, Judith Tydor Baumel-Schwartz, 2023-02-09 Each scholar working in the field of Holocaust literature and representation has a story to tell Not only the scholarly story of the work they do but their personal story their journey to becoming a specialist in Holocaust studies What academic political cultural and personal experiences led them to choose Holocaust representation as their subject of research and teaching What challenges did they face on their journey What approaches genres media or other forms of Holocaust representation did they choose and why How and where did they find a scholarly home in which to share their work productively Have political social and cultural conditions today affected how they think about their work on Holocaust representation How do they imagine their work moving forward including new challenges responses and audiences These are but a few of the questions that the authors in this volume address showing how a scholar's field of research and resulting writings are not arbitrary and are often informed by their personal history and professional experiences The Fantastic in Holocaust Literature and Film Judith B. Kerman, John Edgar Browning, 2014-11-18 When reality becomes fantastic what literary effects will render it credible or comprehensible To respond meaningfully to the surreality of the Holocaust writers must produce works of moral and emotional complexity One way they have achieved this is through elements of fantasy Covering a range of theoretical perspectives this collection of essays explores the use of fantastic story telling in Holocaust literature and film Writers such as Jane Yolen and Art Spiegelman are discussed as well as the sci fi television series V 1983 Stephen King's novella Apt Pupil 1982 Guillermo del Toro's Pan's Labyrinth 2006 and Martin Scorsese's dark thriller Shutter Island 2010
