Images Of Malayindonesian Identity:

Images of Malay-Indonesian Identity Michael Hitchcock, Victor T. King, 1997 This book examines the ways in which certain national politicians ethnic groups and local communities in the Malay Indonesian world express their ethnicity and how their ethnicity is portrayed and identified by others whether they be near fellow citizens and the like or far Europeans for instance A full range of images relevant to Malay Indonesian selfhood is presented from symbols of national identity to those at the regional and local levels

The Politics of Indonesia-Malaysia Relations Joseph Chinyong Liow, 2005 This book provides a comprehensive overview of the relationship between Indonesia and Malaysia focusing especially on how the relationship has developed in the last fifty years It argues that the political relationship between the two countries has been largely defined by rivalry despite the fact that the processes of national self determination began by emphasising Indo Malay fraternity It shows how the two countries have different contested interpretations of Indo Malay history and how the continuing suspicion of Javanese hegemony which defined much of the history of the Indo Malay world is also a key factor in the relationship

Indonesians and Their Arab World Mirjam Lücking, 2021-01-15 Indonesians and Their Arab World explores the ways contemporary Indonesians understand their relationship to the Arab world Despite being home to the largest Muslim population in the world Indonesia exists on the periphery of an Islamic world centered around the Arabian Peninsula Mirjam L cking approaches the problem of interpreting the current conservative turn in Indonesian Islam by considering the ways personal relationships public discourse and matters of religious self understanding guide two groups of Indonesians who actually travel to the Arabian Peninsula labor migrants and Mecca pilgrims in becoming physically mobile and making their mobility meaningful This concept which L cking calls guided mobility reveals that changes in Indonesian Islamic traditions are grounded in domestic social constellations and calls claims of outward Arab influence in Indonesia into question With three levels of comparison urban and rural areas Madura and Central Java and migrants and pilgrims this ethnographic case study foregrounds how different regional and socioeconomic contexts determine Indonesians various engagements with the Arab world

The Malays Anthony Milner, 2011-03-25 Just who are the Malays This provocative study poses the question and considers how and why the answers have changed over time and from one region to another Anthony Milner develops a sustained argument about ethnicity and identity in an historical Malay context The Malays is a comprehensive examination of the origins and development of Malay identity ethnicity and consciousness over the past five centuries Covers the political economic and cultural development of the Malays Explores the Malay presence in Brunei Singapore Indonesia Thailand Cambodia Sri Lanka and South Africa as well as the modern Malay show state of Malaysia Offers diplomatic speculation about ways Malay ethnicity will develop and be challenged in the future

Regionalism in Post-Suharto Indonesia Maribeth Erb, Carol Faucher, Priyambudi Sulistiyanto, 2013-01-11 Since the fall of the Suharto regime forces pressing for regional autonomy have strengthened in Indonesia with some people arguing that the country is in danger of disintegrating This book examines a range of issues connected with decentralization and regional autonomy in Indonesia especially focusing on various local contexts The multiple issues that are dealt with in this volume include ethnic revival and violence corruption collusion and nepotism the complexities of administrative reorganization and the forging of new networks reshaping of cultural identity new emerging social hierarchies and new conflicts over the use of environment

Official History in Modern Indonesia Michael Wood,2005-08-01 Dealing with New Order perceptions of the past this study gives insights into how the past can be used for purposes of national building and regime legitimization and into the nature of the New Order The Suharto regime created a coherent history that is reflected in recent archaeological and historical research in popular histories and biographies in monuments and in school textbooks The author describes an official history stretching from the proto Indonesia of Majapahit through the Indonesian Revolution up to the birth of the New Order in 1965 He also gives a counterview to this history stressing Indonesia s place in the larger Islamic world The past emphasized political stability and national unity under the guidance of the military and socially disruptive ideas were to be avoided

Tourism, Development and Terrorism in Bali Michael Hitchcock,2023-01-06 This book investigates tourism as a form of globalization within the context of the island of Bali which has been voted the world s top island destination for the third time running by American travellers The volume covers the onset of the Asian Crisis the largest stock market crash since the Great Depression The authors chart the turbulence that has afflicted the island at a time of market uncertainty and global political strife and analyze the responses of Bali s business and community leaders to the crises that have buffeted the island since the fall of Suharto In particular the book analyzes crisis management with regard to the Bali Bombings the impact of the bombings on the tourism development cycle and investigates the motives of the bombers The authors argue that the actions of the bombers can best be understood with regard to the rise of political Islam as a global issue and the book breaks new ground with an analysis of the bombers global experiences The book also examines home grown resistance to certain aspects of globalization notably the attempt to turn Besakih the island s mother temple into a World Heritage Site and top tourist destination

Art as Politics Kathleen M. Adams,2006-08-31 Art as Politics explores the intersection of art identity politics and tourism in Sulawesi Indonesia Based on long term ethnographic research from the 1980s to the present the book offers a nuanced portrayal of the Sa dan Toraja a predominantly Christian minority group in the world s most populous Muslim country Celebrated in anthropological and tourism literatures for their spectacular traditional houses sculpted effigies of the dead and pageantry filled funeral rituals the Toraja have entered an era of accelerated engagement with the global economy marked by on going struggles over identity religion and social relations In her engaging account Kathleen Adams chronicles how various Toraja individuals and groups have drawn upon artistically embellished traditional objects as well as monumental displays museums UNESCO ideas about word heritage and the World Wide Web to shore up or realign aspects of a cultural heritage perceived to be under threat She also considers how outsiders be they tourists art collectors members of rival ethnic groups or government officials have appropriated and reframed Toraja art objects for their own purposes Her account illustrates how art can serve as a catalyst in identity politics especially in the context of tourism and social upheaval Ultimately this insightful work prompts readers to rethink persistent and pernicious popular assumptions that tourism invariably brings a loss of agency to local communities or that tourist art is a compromised form of expression Art as Politics promises to be a favorite with students and scholars of anthropology sociology cultural studies ethnic relations art and Asian studies

Batavia-Jakarta, 1600-2000 Ewald Ebing, Youetta de Jager, 2021-11-01 This is an odd book An extensive and sometimes annotated bibliography it is not a book in the sense of a narrative However if treated as a book in the traditional sense it leads the reader through a broad spectrum of feelings of amazement curiosity and desire amazement about the sheer volume richness and detail of the literature on Batavia Jakarta curiosity about the contents of certain publications or series of publications with attractive titles and a feeling of desire immediately to begin an investigation into one of the appealing subjects stumbled upon while leafing through The bibliography contains over 5000 titles classified into 42 broad subject categories The vast majority of the publications consists of books but the number of articles is also very substantial Most of these titles 3500 were produced after 1950 The larger part of the publications are written in Indonesian Dutch and to a lesser extent English But also publications in such languages as French Chinese German Japanese Russian and many others were listed Indexes of authors of subjects and of titles make this bibliography easily accessible Tourism, Culture and Development Stroma Cole, 2008 This book provides a holistic multi stakeholder picture of the first twenty years of tourism development in a remote region of Eastern Indonesia It is a rich description of how tourism is intertwined with life in an urban western marginal community Based on anthropological methods this ethnography is about tourism and socio cultural change tourists conflict globalisation poverty and powerlessness Borneo and Sulawesi Ooi Keat Gin, 2019-11-28 This book presents a great deal of new research findings on the history of Borneo the history of Sulawesi and the interrelationship between the two islands Some specific chapters focus on empires and colonizers including the activities of James Brooke in Sulawesi of Chinese mining communities in Borneo and of the quisling issue in immediate post war Sarawak Other chapters consider indigenous peoples and how different regimes have handled them The book is published in honour of Victor T King a leading scholar in the field of Southeast Asian studies and a final chapter discusses his contribution to scholarship in particular his views on how area studies should be approached and the implications of this for future research

Methodology and Research Practice in Southeast Asian Studies M. Huotari, J. Rüländ, J. Schlehe, 2014-07-29 This book addresses the question of how to ground research practice in area specific yet globally entangled contexts such as Global Southeast Asia It offers a fruitful debate between various approaches to Southeast Asia Studies while taking into consideration the area specific contexts of research practice cross cutting methodological issues Géopolitique et mondialisation Pierre Lagayette, 2003 Tourism and Ethnodevelopment Ismar Borges de Lima, Victor T.

King, 2017-09-13 Ethnodevelopment is a well established concept in the field of development studies Despite its relevance to tourism initiatives and processes in the Global South it continues to be an underutilised concept in the field This book bridges this gap presenting an original conceptual framework to study the relationship between tourism and ethnodevelopment It focuses on the processes of inclusion empowerment self expression and self determination to explore the effects of tourism initiatives on the identities cultural resilience livelihoods and economic opportunities of ethnic minority communities Chapters explore a range of concepts and issues such as gender authenticity indigenous knowledge tradition the commodification of culture community based tourism local entrepreneurship cultural heritage and tourism and the environment Drawing on rich primary research conducted across South East Asia and South and Central America the book offers detailed evaluations of the successes and failures of various tourism policies and practices This book makes a valuable contribution for students scholars practitioners and policy makers alike interested in tourism development studies geography and anthropology

Tourism in Southeast Asia Michael Hitchcock, Victor T. King, Mike Parnwell, 2009 Tourism in Southeast Asia provides an up to date exploration of the state of tourism development and associated issues in one of the world's most dynamic tourism destinations The volume takes a close look at many of the challenges facing Southeast Asian tourism at a critical stage of transition and transformation and following a recent series of crises and disasters Building on and advancing the path breaking Tourism in South East Asia produced by the same editors in 1993 it adopts a multidisciplinary approach and includes contributions from some of the leading researchers on tourism in Southeast Asia presenting a number of fresh perspectives The volume combines introductory material with an in depth examination of anthropological writing on Southeast Asian tourism followed by case studies dealing with as diverse issues as globalization terrorism romance tourism and ecotourism

Indonesian Politics in Crisis Stefan Eklöf, 1999 Indonesia John Bresnan, 2005-10-06 Indonesia is in the midst of an epic transition as it moves from decades of authoritarian government to a new era of democratic opening from years of secular government to a time of struggle over the role of Islam in public life and from the breakdown of a miracle economy to a search for resilience in the face of global forces In this timely work leading scholars analyze the causes of the social political and economic crises that erupted in Indonesia in the late 1990s the responses of the elite and civil society and the prospects for continuing reform In the process they explore such issues as the relevance of the nation state in an age of globalization the role of Islam in politics and violence the strengths and weaknesses of a negotiated route to democratic governance the relationship of corruption and structural reform to economic growth and the prospects for stability in Southeast Asia The first book to grapple with the scale and complexity of this historic transition this work offers a clear and compelling introduction to the Indonesian experience for students with an interest in the problems of post colonial states to scholars in comparative Asian studies and to anyone seeking a serious yet accessible introduction to the world's largest Islamic democracy A Study of the Weatherhead East Asian Institute Columbia University

The Revival of

Tradition in Indonesian Politics Jamie Davidson, David Henley, 2007-03-12 This important resource provides detailed coverage of the growing significance of adat in Indonesian politics. It identifies its origins, the historical factors that have conditioned it, and the reasons behind its recent blossoming.

The Christianity of Culture L. Chua, 2012-01-02 In this richly contextualized study, Liana Chua explores how a largely Christian Bidayuh community has been reconfiguring its relationship to its old animist rituals through the trope and politics of culture. Placing her ethnography in dialogue with developments in the nascent anthropology of Christianity, Chua argues that such efforts at continuity speaking are the product not only of Malaysian cultural politics but also of conversion and Christianity itself. This book invites scholars to rethink the nature and scope of conversion as well as the multifarious yet distinctive forms that Christianity can take.

Television, Nation, and Culture in Indonesia Philip Kitley, 2014-07-31 The culture of television in Indonesia began with its establishment in 1962 as a public broadcasting service. From that time through the deregulation of television broadcasting in 1990 and the establishment of commercial channels, television can be understood, Philip Kitley argues, as a part of the New Order's national culture project designed to legitimate an idealized Indonesian national cultural identity. But Professor Kitley suggests that it also has become a site for the contestation of elements of the New Order's cultural policies. Based on his studies, he further speculates on the increasingly significant role that television is destined to play as a site of cultural and political struggle.
