The Great New People Sir Charles Philips Trevelyan, 1971      Letters from North America and the Pacific 1898 Sir Charles Philips Trevelyan, 1969      A Very British Family Laura Trevelyan, 2012-11-10 It is a rule that no Trevelyan ever sucks up either to the press or the chiefs or the right people The world has given us money enough to enable us to do what we think is right We thank it for that and ask no more of it but to be allowed to serve it G M Trevelyan The Trevelyans are unique in British social and political history a family which for several generations dedicated themselves to the service and chronicling of their country Often eccentric priggish high minded and utterly self regarding they have nonetheless left their mark on our past This engaging history dispassionately explores the lives and achievements of this unique family and the part they played in shaping the history of Great Britain From their inauspicious beginnings in a small dwelling in Cornwall to the present day some Trevelyans have been famous and distinguished others less so but for a hundred years from the mid nineteenth to the mid twentieth century family members from Lord Macaulay to G M Trevelyan contributed to both the writing and the making of history This book is primarily the tale of the five men who flourished during this period Charles Edward George Otto Charles Philips George Macaulay and Humphry Trevelyan and the clever and formidable women they married Including many vivid portraits of the most influential members of this remarkable family The Trevelyans casts light on the period of enormous social and cultural change in which they lived and examines why they chose not to simply exploit their position as landed gentry but instead to take their place at the centre of scholarship and politics      A Guide to the Papers of British Cabinet Ministers 1900-1964 Cameron Hazlehurst, Sally Whitehead, Christine Woodland, 1996 A Guide to the Papers of British Cabinet Ministers 1900 1964 is the revised and expanded edition of a volume published by The Royal Historical Society in 1974 Up to date information on the papers of 323 ministers from the first edition is provided and its scope has increased from 323 ministers to include all Cabinet ministers until the resignation of Sir Alec Douglas Home as Prime Minister in 1964 This Guide is a major research tool and a source of information on the personal papers of British Cabinet ministers      Women and Indians on the Frontier, 1825-1915 Glenda Riley, 1984 Study of life for white women and Indians during the expansion west      The Shop Richard Joseph Wheeler Selleck, 2003 Telling as much a social educational and cultural story as institutional history this detailed account chronicles the ideological patterns internal and countrywide conflicts and student experiences at the University of Melbourne from 1850 to 1939 The daily life of staff professors and students are recounted during times of turmoil and peace in Australia including the depression of the 1890s and World War I The account offers a window into the pedagogical conflicts and research achievements of one of Australia's oldest continuing educational institutions      The 'Ukulele Jim Tranquada, John King, 2012-05-31 Since its introduction to Hawai i in 1879 the ukulele has been many things a symbol of an island paradise a tool of political protest an instrument central to a rich musical culture a musical joke a highly sought after collectible a cheap airport souvenir a lucrative industry and the product of a remarkable synthesis of western and Pacific cultures The Ukulele A History explores all of these facets placing the instrument for the first time in a broad historical cultural and musical context Drawing on a wealth of previously untapped sources Jim Tranquada and John King tell the surprising story of how an obscure four string folk guitar from Portugal became the national instrument of Hawai i of its subsequent rise and fall from international cultural phenomenon to the Dangerfield of instruments and of the resurgence in popularity and respect it is currently enjoying among musicians from Thailand to Finland The book shows how the technologies of successive generations recorded music radio television the Internet have played critical roles in popularizing the ukulele Famous composers and entertainers Queen Liliuokalani Irving Berlin Arthur Godfrey Paul McCartney SpongeBob SquarePants and writers Rudyard Kipling Jack London P G Wodehouse Agatha Christie wind their way through its history as well as a host of outstanding Hawaiian musicians Ernest Kaa George Kiahaha Samuel K Kamakaia Henry A Pele Bishaw In telling the story of the ukulele Tranquada and King also present a sweeping history of modern Hawaiian music that spans more than two centuries beginning with the introduction of western melody and harmony by missionaries to the Hawaiian music renaissance of the 1970s and 1980s Joan Lindsay Brenda Niall,2025-02-04 One of Australia s foremost biographers examines the life of Joan Lindsay the author of one of Australia s most enduring novels Picnic at Hanging Rock Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1973 Reviews and Essays of Austin Clarke Austin Clarke,1995 Austin Clarke is widely regarded as one of 20th century Ireland s most important poets In this selection of nearly fifty essays and reviews written over Clarke s long career he demonstrates that he is an astute and provocative literary critic as well Having grown up in Dublin when the excitement of the Irish Literary Revival was still running high Clarke knew many of the principal figures of that movement personally and his readings of Yeats Joyce Synge O Casey Lady Gregory George Moore and others enjoy the advantages of an insider s point of view Moreover committed in his own poetry to the basic assumption that fuelled the Literary Revival that the most productive course for Irish literature lay in the direction not of England but of Ireland Clarke in his criticism provides a way of understanding and judging the Revival s major writers in terms of their relationships to Ireland s rich literary and cultural traditions At the same time these essays call attention to a number of distinctly Irish but often overlooked writers working on the margins of the revival As Yeats observed more than once the Irish for all the contributions that they have made to modern fiction poetry and drama have fallen somewhat short in the genre of literary criticism Austin Clarke s essays and reviews many of which were written under a pseudonym and so not attributed to Clarke for years go a long way towards filling that gap Letters from North America and the Pacific, 1898 Charles Philips Trevelyan,1969 Feast Or Famine Reginald Horsman,2008 Drawing on the journals and correspondence of pioneers Horsman examines more than a hundred years of history recording components of the diets of various groups including travelers settlers fur traders soldiers and miners He discusses food preparation techniques including the development of canning and foods common in different regions Provided by publisher      British Comment on the United States Ada Nisbet, 2001-06-07 This bibliography of more than three thousand entries often extensively annotated lists books and pamphlets that illuminate evolving British views on the United States during a period of great change on both sides of the Atlantic Subjects addressed in various decades include slavery and abolitionism women s rights the Civil War organized labor economic cultural and social behavior political and religious movements and the American character in general      Library of Congress Catalog Library of Congress, 1970 A cumulative list of works represented by Library of Congress printed cards
