Letters from Sarawak Mrs. M'dougall,2015-07-14 Excerpt from Letters From Sarawak Addressed to a Child The Mission at Sarawak was invited there by Sir James Brooke to assist him in his schemes of philanthropy for Borneo The funds at first furnished for its support in answer to his appeal were raised by the exertions of a few private individuals with the assistance of grants from the Christian Knowledge Society and the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel After five years this money was entirely expended and the Mission must have fallen to the ground had not the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel come forward to its support from the 1st Jan 1853 But although this Venerable Society has undertaken this new task on its own responsibility its income is fully pledged to existing Missions and there being no surplus fund it must look entirely to the enlarged bounty of Churchmen to enable it so to increase the force and complete the organization of the Mission to Sarawak that the Church may be planted in the purity of Gospel truth and the perfectness of Apostolic order in a land where the glad news was never before made known Shall not England have the honour of building up this young and vigorous nation of Sarawak in a faith which it is willing to embrace and thus be the means of enlightening and gathering in the millions of Borneo and the adjacent islands into Christs Church About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Adopting the Melody of Phrase: An Mental Symphony within Letters From Sarawak Addressed To A Chil

In a world used by monitors and the ceaseless chatter of fast interaction, the melodic beauty and psychological symphony created by the prepared word usually disappear into the background, eclipsed by the persistent noise and distractions that permeate our lives. However, nestled within the pages of Letters From Sarawak Addressed To A Chil a stunning literary value full of natural feelings, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Constructed by a wonderful musician of language, this charming masterpiece conducts visitors on an emotional trip, skillfully unraveling the hidden tunes and profound influence resonating within each cautiously crafted phrase. Within the depths of this moving evaluation, we can discover the book is central harmonies, analyze its enthralling publishing fashion, and surrender ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
