Excerpt from Wikipedia Army Letters from an Officer's Wife, 1871-1888 Frances Marie Antoinette Mack Roe, 2019-12-03 In Army Letters from an Officer's Wife 1871-1888 Frances Marie Antoinette Mack Roe presents an intimate and poignant collection of letters that unveil the complexities of military life during the late 19th century. Her writing embodies a blend of personal narrative and historical commentary, offering readers a vivid portrayal of her experiences as a military spouse. Through articulate prose and rich detail, Roe captures the emotional landscape of separation, duty and resilience, all set against the backdrop of a transitioning America grappling with post-Civil War realities. The letters not only mirror her inner struggles but also paint a broader picture of the realities faced by women in the military community during this era, making it a vital addition to both military literature and women's studies. Frances Marie Antoinette Mack Roe was deeply influenced by her own experiences and societal expectations during her husband's military career. Her insights reflect a blend of personal challenges and broader social commentary. Drawing upon her education and literary skills, Roe crafted these letters not merely as correspondence but as a means to document and confront the trials of loneliness and the sacrifices inherent in her husband's service, thereby preserving the voices of women who often remained unheard. This compelling work offers a rare glimpse into the psyche of a military family, making it an essential read for anyone interested in American history, women's roles in the military or the rich tapestry of personal narratives from the past. Roe's eloquence and honesty serve as a testament to the strength of women in uncertain times, inviting readers to empathize with her journey and appreciate the enduring legacy of those who supported the armed forces. Speeches, Addresses and Letters on Industrial and Financial Questions William D.
