The Letters of William Green James William Foley, 1914      William Green Letters and Papers William Green, 1794 Letters and papers of Green written from Fredericksburg Va and Calvert County Md to his family on his plans for returning church matters and his desire for his mother to become an Episcopalian Persons represented include Timothy Green and Capt Deshon      William Green Craig Phelan, 1989-01-01 William Green president of the American Federation of Labor from 1924 to 1952 was a controversial figure whom historians invariably depict as bumbling incompetent vain and ignorant the cheerful servant of selfish and reactionary craft unionists and the person most directly responsible for the split in organized labor in 1935 This biography provides a social and political context for Green's actions in an attempt to vindicate one of the last heirs of a religiously inspired trade unionism that sought cooperation between labor and capital on the basis of biblical precepts      The Letters of William Lloyd Garrison William Lloyd Garrison, 1971 By 1861 William Lloyd Garrison's public image had progressed from that of impulsive fanatic to one of widely respected and influential abolitionist As editor of The Liberator and president of the American Anti Slavery Society he was the acknowledged spokesman for radical antislavery opinion Garrison was profoundly disturbed by the advent of war In his correspondence he kept military events at a distance focusing on the morality of the conflict an issue made the more poignant by his eldest son's enlistment in the 55th Massachusetts Regiment in 1863 the same year that his wife suffered a paralytic stroke Gradually he became convinced that the war would effect the abolition he had sought for so many years Likewise his attitude toward Lincoln underwent significant changes he moved from critic to supporter defending the President's re election against the arguments of fellow abolitionists His visit with Lincoln in the White House he described as a very satisfactory one indeed for he was pleased with Lincoln's spirit and the familiar and candid way in which he unbosomed himself With the war ended and his goal as abolitionist achieved Garrison discontinued The Liberator and withdrew from the American Anti Slavery Society Fortunately friends arranged for a national testimonial that provided financial security By 1866 1867 he was enjoying an active retirement with honors at home and abroad and a plump and cunning first grandchild His letters show Garrison as a family man and curious observer as well as a reformer with a vision of a free and peaceful land      William Writes to William Alain Kerhervé, 2014-09-18 William Gilpin 1724 1804 is commonly known as one of the originators of the idea of the picturesque He was also an Anglican clergyman a schoolmaster with modern educational ideas and the author of several biographies tours and essays The present edition provides a first insight into his more personal writings since it is made of the correspondence he exchanged with his grandson between 1794 and 1803 It is teeming with personal intimate detail on his daily life domestic and aesthetic concerns The letters also deal with such various topics as nature architecture and religion The relationship is highly pleasurable and discloses the art of being a grand father as well as illustrating the first steps of a young boy's writing of letters The tone of some of William Gilpin's letters is highly moral since the grand father's aim was also obviously to educate and edify his grandson As such the present book is an excellent counterpart to William Gilpin s letter writing manual William Gilpin s Letter Writer Cambridge Scholars Publishing 2014 The correspondence is presented with an introduction notes and index focusing on the issues of sources society and epistolary writing *The Letters of William and Dorothy Wordsworth: Volume VIII. Hill,1967 The inclusion within this volume of a fully annotated edition of Wordsworth s love letters to his wife revolutionizes our view of Wordsworth as man and poet Many of the letters are previously unpublished Georgia Land Surveying History and Law Farris W. Cadle,1991 Georgia Land Surveying History and Law is the first definitive history and analysis of Georgia s land system and the laws that govern it The book s opening section tells the story of the surveyor s role in transforming Georgia from a frontier to a bounded populated and productive colony and state Paced by anecdotes of surveyors wilderness experiences the narrative traces the evolution of Georgia s land subdivision system beginning with the original and ultimately impractical scheme of land granting and rectangular land subdivision under the Trustees of the Georgia Colony The volume then covers the more flexible but easily abused headright procedure and the subsequent lottery and succession of systematic rectangular surveys under which most of the state was laid out and granted in the early nineteenth century Finally in lay terms supported by meticulous citation of authority the volume discusses the legal aspects of land surveying including the interests that make up land ownership the transfer of real property the interpretation of property descriptions the location of boundaries riparian and littoral rights and other topics The book examines every point concerning boundaries found in any Georgia case or statute Based solidly on primary sources and the author s fifteen years of experience in land surveying and title abstracting Georgia Land Surveying History and Law is an exhaustively researched and scholarly reference that will be useful to surveyors title attorneys title abstractors real estate professionals geographers cartographers historians and genealogists The Papers of Alexander Hamilton Alexander Hamilton,1972 This book explores the puzzling phenomenon of new veiling practices among lower middle class women in Cairo Egypt Although these women are part of a modernizing middle class they also voluntarily adopt a traditional symbol of female subordination How can this paradox be explained An explanation emerges which reconceptualizes what appears to be reactionary behavior as a new style of political struggle as accommodating protest These women most of them clerical workers in the large government bureaucracy are ambivalent about working outside the home considering it a change which brings new burdens as well as some important benefits At the same time they realize that leaving home and family is creating an intolerable situation of the erosion of their social status and the loss of their traditional identity The new veiling expresses women s protest against this MacLeod argues that the symbolism of the new veiling emerges from this tense subcultural dilemma involving elements of both resistance and acquiescence Letters of Seamen in the Wars with France, 1793-1815 Helen Watt (Archivist),Anne Hawkins,2016 Letters of seamen below the rank of commissioned officer which tell us a great
