have been more agreeable I do not at all expect to see you on Tuesday since matters have fallen out so unpleasantly and if you are not able to return till after that day it will hardly be possible for us to end for you before Saturday though for my own part I care so little about the ball that it would be a sacrifice to me to give it up for the sake of seeing you two days earlier We are extremely sorry for poor Eliza's illness I trust however that she has continued to recover since you wrote and that you will none of you be the worse for your attendance on her What a good for nothing fellow Charles is to bespeak the stockings I hope he will be too hot all the rest of his life for it      Nineteenth Century Prose, 1994      Love Letters of Kings and Queens

Daniel Smith, 2021-02-04 Tender moving heartfelt and warm and sporadically scandalous and outrageous too these are the private messages between people in love Yet they are also correspondence between the rulers of nations From Henry VIII's lovelorn notes to Anne Boleyn and George IV's impassioned notes to his secret wife to Queen Victoria's tender letters to Prince Albert and Edward VIII's extraordinary correspondence with Wallis Simpson these letters depict romantic love from its budding passion to the comfort and understanding of a long union and occasionally beyond to resentment and recrimination all set against the background of great affairs of state wars and the strictures of royal duty Here is a chance to glimpse behind the pomp and ceremony the carefully curated images of royal splendour and decorum to see the passions hopes jealousies and loneliness of kings and queens throughout history By turns tender moving heartfelt and warm and sporadically scandalous and outrageous too these are the private messages between people in love Yet they are also correspondence between the rulers of nations whose actions and passions changed the course of history for good and bad This morning I received your dear dear letter of the 21st How happy do you make me with your love Oh my Angel Albert I am quite enchanted with it I do not deserve such love Never never did I think I could be loved so much Queen Victoria to Prince Albert 28 November 1839      The Spirituality of Jane Austen Paula Hollingsworth, 2017-04-21 2017 marks the 200th anniversary of the death of Jane Austen whose six completed novels have never been out of print Best known for her novels Sense and Sensibility Pride and Prejudice Mansfield Park and Emma first published anonymously Jane commented critiqued and illuminated the life of the English upper classes But did Jane's writings highlight anything about her own spirituality In this celebratory book Paula Hollingsworth explores Jane Austen's gentle but strong faith and the effect it had both on her life and her writing Drawing on Jane's life story her letters her friendships her books and the characters portrayed Paula shows the depth of Jane Austen's spirituality      Murder in Alphabet City Lee Harris, 2005-01-25 Newly promoted to detective first grade with the NYPD Jane Bauer is back to work after a nearly fatal run in with a killer But while she's happy to be back on the job her new assignment another cold case seems to hold little promise of being solved Eight years ago Anderson Stratton a schizophrenic was found dead of starvation in his apartment Nothing on the scene indicated foul play and although he left no note the death was ultimately ruled a suicide Stratton's well connected sister Flavia Constantine never accepted that conclusion and has insisted that the case be reopened But in their investigation Jane and her team stumble upon another grisly suicide and realize that the two may very well be connected As her inquiry intensifies Jane is led to a shocking and horrible truth and once again finds herself on the threshold of death      A Literate Community Carole Cook Freeman,1995 A fourth grade classroom and school library are the setting for this book that presents an in depth and qualitative study of teaching and learning of reading and writing The study s exploration is designed to identify and explain connections among the school and classroom as literate communities teachers classroom practices children s learning and the type of literacy that is jointly constructed In contrast to the traditional focus on reading lessons methods materials and standardized test scores this study explores teaching by closely examining teacher child interactions with texts across the school day Contents Introduction Early Indications of a Literate Community Frameworks for Understanding a Literate Community Culture and Teacher Thinking in a Literate Community Opportunities to Become Literate A Framework for Looking at Literacy Work Common Threads and Unique Patterns      American Thresherman ,1906      A Biographical Encyclopedia of Early Modern Englishwomen Carole Levin,Anna Riehl Bertolet,Jo Eldridge Carney,2016-11-03 From the exemplary to the notorious to the obscure this comprehensive and innovative encyclopedia showcases the worthy women of early modern England Poets princesses or pirates the women of power and agency found in these pages are indeed worth knowing and this volume will introduce many female figures to even the most established scholars in early modern studies Rather than using the conventional alphabetical format of the standard biographical encyclopedia this volume is divided into categories of women Since many women will fit in more than one category each woman is placed in the category that best exemplifies her life and is cross referenced in other appropriate sections This structure makes the book an interesting read for seasoned scholars of early modern women while students need not already be familiar with these subjects in order to benefit from the text Another unusual feature of this reference work is that each entry begins with some incident from the woman s life that is particularly exciting or significant Some entries are very brief while others are extensive Each includes a source listing The book is well illustrated and liberally sprinkled with quotations of the time either by or about the women in the text      The Life & Letters of Mary Wollstonecraft Shelley Julian Marshall,1889      The Wireless Past Emily C. Bloom,2016-10-13 The Oxford Mid Century Studies series publishes monographs in several disciplinary and creative areas in order to create a thick description of culture in the thirty year period around the Second World War With a focus on the 1930s through the 1960s the series concentrates on fiction poetry film photography theatre as well as art architecture design and other media The mid century is an age of shifting groups and movements from existentialism through abstract expressionism to confessional serial electronic and pop art styles The series charts such intellectual movements even as it aids and abets the very best scholarly thinking about the power of art in a world under new techno political compulsions whether nuclear apocalyptic Cold War propagandized transnational neo imperial super powered or postcolonial The Wireless Past chronicles the emergence of the British Broadcasting Corporation BBC as a significant promotional platform and aesthetic influence for Irish modernism from the 1930s to the 1960s This is the first book length study of Irish literary broadcasting on the BBC and situates the works of W B Yeats Elizabeth Bowen Louis MacNeice and Samuel Beckett in the context of the media environments that shaped their works Drawing upon unpublished radio archives this book shows that radio broadcasting rather than prompting a break with literary history and traditional literary forms in fact served as an important means for reinterpreting the legacies of oral and print traditions In the years surrounding World War II radio came to be seen as a catalyst for literary revivals and simultaneously a force for experimentation This double valence of radio the conjoining of revivalism and experimentation create a distinctive radiogenic aesthetics in mid century modernism The Duke's Cinderella Bride Carole
