

You write as if you were very happy, and I think you have every reason to be so. I hear often from Emily or Mr. Howley, they are having a large family, but she takes it very quietly & attends to all. I liked Mr. Howley, he was so kind to tell and fond of the two boys, they were very good and very merry. Emily used to work hard and had every thing neat and nice. I write now with great difficulty but I hope your Aunt Earle will forward my letter to you. I have written to her. It has been so very cold here till the last few days and so much illness, but now I hope it will be fine. Just 10 O'clock - I am ashamed to send this short letter but it is an effort to me to write but I could not resist thanking you for your letter.

Aunt Earle is so kind in writing to me her letters are my great pleasures, for absence does not cause forgetfulness, and old age carries the memory to bygone happiness. Kindest regards to your dear Cotton & love to all.

Your very Affec^d Mother
Marriam Taylor
