The Most Important Little Boy in the World Dean Briggs, Unequal Health Grace Budrys, 2003 Unequal Health contrasts popular beliefs about the relevance of such factors as sex race poverty and health habits with research on those factors reported in the scientific literature While the scientific research has burgeoned in recent years the results are upsetting some firmly fixed beliefs regarding what people can or should do to improve their health

Phase Six Jim Shepard, 2021 In a tiny settlement on the west coast of Greenland 11 year old Aleq and his best friend frequent trespassers at a mining site exposed to mountains of long buried and thawing permafrost carry what they pick up back into their village and from there Shepard s harrowing and deeply moving story follows Aleq one of the few survivors of the initial outbreak through his identification and radical isolation as the likely index patient While he shoulders both a crushing guilt for what he may have done and the hopes of a world looking for answers we also meet two Epidemic Intelligence Service investigators dispatched from the CDC Jeannine an epidemiologist and daughter of Algerian immigrants and Danice an MD and lab wonk As they attempt to head off the cataclysm Jeannine moving from the Greenland hospital overwhelmed with the first patients to a Level 4 high security facility in the Rocky Mountains does what she can to sustain Aleq Publisher s description

Facts and Myths Facing Today's World John Durbin Husher, 2008 The author provides facts and myths concerning global warming as well as a detailed discussion of DNA and its affects on a person s genetics He brings forth the fantasies surrounding HIV and AIDS and frees the reader s mind from any fear concerning these afflictions The reader is introduced to the human genome and stem cells with their promises for the near future He details how global warming is a normal cycle that our Earth has followed and is not due to atmospheric carbon dioxide He insists the Earth will have a cooling period near the turn of the century that will cause more concern than the warming cycle we are experiencing Each of the subjects is presented in a novel manner that the layman will find entertaining

Doctors and Friends Kimmerly Martin, 2021-11-09 A prescient human and hopeful portrait of medical experts on a pandemic s frontlines People Hannah Compton and Kira have been close friends since medical school reuniting once a year for a much needed vacation Just as they gather to travel in Spain an outbreak of a fast spreading virus throws the world into chaos When Compton Winfield returns to her job as an ER doctor in New York City she finds a city changed beyond recognition and a personal loss so gutting it reshapes every aspect of her life Hannah Geier's career as an ob gyn in San Diego is fulfilling but she's always longed for a child of her own After years of trying Hannah discovers she's expecting a baby just as the disease engulfs her city Kira Marchand an infectious disease doctor at the CDC in Atlanta finds herself at the center of the American response to the terrifying new illness Her professional battle turns personal when she must decide whether her children will receive an experimental but potentially life saving treatment Written prior to Covid 19 by a former emergency medicine physician Doctors and Friends incorporates unexpected wit razor edged poignancy and a deeply relatable cast of characters who provoke both laughter and tears Martin provides a unique insider's perspective into the world of medical professionals working to save lives during the most difficult situations of their careers Infectious Diseases: The Global Fight, Public Health Leadership Louis Rowitz, 2003 Public Health Cases in Field

Epidemiology: a Global Perspective Mark S. Dworkin, 2010-09-17 This collection of case studies uncover the details of actual disease outbreaks from within the United States and around the world At the conclusion of each chapter the investigator reviews the methods and processes that were employed to execute the investigation Ideal as a complement to any text on infectious disease epidemiology these case studies will bring to life the classic functions of field epidemiology and the application of epidemiological methods to unexpected health problems that require fast on site investigation and timely intervention The cases cover investigations in infectious and non infectious disease outbreaks as well as environmental health related disease outbreaks Virus Diseases and Crop Biosecurity Ian Cooper, Thomas Kuehne, Valery P. Polischuk, 2007-05-08 Biosecurity roughly means safe life and involves a variety of measures designed to prevent disease causing agents from entering a region and there being spread Food supplies are easy to disrupt and the provision of biosecurity at land borders is especially challenging if trade is to be maintained and when very few travellers are subjected to thorough inspection Within the context of the NATO sponsored workshop that was held in Kiev Ukraine during May 4-7 2005 the pathogens were viruses that infect plants and the region encompassed developing states on the verge of acceding into the European Union In publishing the papers presented at the workshop we take this opportunity to thank the sponsors including particularly the NATO Science committee and also the contributors for making the discussions tertaining and bene cial Under United Nations FAO auspices the International Plant Protection Convention aimed to secure common and effective activities against pests and pathogens Now most countries party to that convention have laws and regulations in place to sustain agricultural production under natural threat National plant protection services exist to inspect growing crops and imp tations and to determine when and how introduced pathogens might be era cated The member states of the European Union through their national and also the regional plant protection service The European and Mediterranean Plant Protection Organisation advise national governments and develops speci c protocols identi cation containment and eradication that aim at managing pests and pathogens in ways that have minimal impact on trade

Challenging Euro-America's Politics of Identity Jorge Luis Andrade Fernandes, 2008-01-07 In this fascinating book Jorge Luis Andrade Fernandes critically examines the impact of colonialism and postcolonial migration on the politics and identity of Euro American imperial powers It considers how outsiders are part of the construction of the native identity of the nation state and also how they challenge its essential coherence when they return to the centre in our increasingly globalized world Engaging in a theoretically motivated discussion of a range of sources film fiction political theory and state policy the volume traces the nomadic movement of bodies across national frontiers helping us to question any natural link between nation states and identities and between places and peoples This is not merely a theoretical problem as Fernandes relates it to the very current crisis of nativistic multicultural identity in the West He examines how politics takes shape in transnational social and cultural encounters and how this new politics is not just about containing aliens but also contains fruitful possibilities for different modes of being Challenging Euro America s Politics of Identity will be of interest to advanced students and scholars in politics geography postcolonial studies cultural studies African and African American studies comparative literature American studies and Ethnic studies

The Athenian Sun in an African Sky Kevin J. Wetmore, Jr., 2001-11-14 Western literature has become more influential in Africa since the independence of many of that continent s countries in the early 1960s In particular Greek tragedy has grown as model and inspiration for African theatre artists This work begins with a discussion of the affinity that modern day African playwrights have for ancient Greek tragedy and the factors that determine their choice of classical texts and topics The study concentrates on how African playwrights transplant the dramatic action and narrative of the Greek texts by rewriting both the performance codes and the cultural context The methods by which African playwrights have adapted Greek tragedy and the ways in which the plays satisfy the prevailing principles of both cultures are examined The plays are The Bacchae of Euripides by Wole Soyinka Song of a Goat by J P Clark The Gods Are Not to Blame by Ola Rotimi Guy Butler s Demea Efua Sutherland s Edufa Orestes by Athol Fugard The Song of Jacob Zulu by Tug Yourgrau Femi Osofisan s Tegonni Edward Kamau Brathwaite s Odale s Choice The Island by Fugard John Kani and Winston Ntshona and Sylvain Bemba s Black Wedding Candles for Blessed Antigone

Sovereign Lives Jenny Edkins, Michael J. Shapiro, Veronique Pin-Fat, 2012-10-02 For International Relations scholars discussions of globalization inevitably turn to questions of sovereignty How much control does a country have over its borders people and economy Where does that authority come from Sovereign Lives explores these changes through reading of humanitarian intervention human rights discourses securitization refugees the fragmentation of identities and the practices of development
