Lezioni americane Italo Calvino, Mondadori, 2007 , Global Perspectives on Critical Architecture Gevork Hartoonian, 2016-03-03 Judging from the debates taking place in both education and practice it appears that architecture is deeply in crisis New design and production techniques together with the globalization of capital and even skilled labour have reduced architecture to a commodified object its aesthetic qualities tapping into the current pervasive desire for the spectacular These developments have changed the architect's role in the design and production processes of architecture Moreover critical architectural theories including those of Breton Heidegger and Benjamin which explored the concepts of technology modernism labour and capital and how technology informed the cultural along with later theories from the 1960s which focused more on the architect's theorization of his/her own design strategies seem increasingly irrelevant In an age of digital reproduction and commodification these theoretical approaches need to be reassessed Bringing together essays and interviews from leading scholars such as Kenneth Frampton Peggy Deamer Bernard Tschumi Donald Kunze and Marco Biraghi this volume investigates and critically addresses various dimensions of the present crisis of architecture It poses questions such as Is architecture a conservative cultural product servicing a given producer-consumer system Should architecture's affiliative ties with capitalism be subjected to a measure of criticism that can be expanded to the entirety of the cultural realm Is architecture's infusion into the cultural the reason for the visibility of architecture today What room does the city leave for architecture beyond the present delirium of spectacle Should the thematic of various New Left criticisms of capitalism be taken as the premise of architectural criticism Or alternatively putting the notion of criticality aside is it enough to confine criticism to the production of insightful and pleasurable texts Poetry and Cosmogony Chris Andrews, 2023-11-20 Faux Titre est une collection d'études en littérature française Depuis cinquante ans d'ailleurs elle offre une sélection d'essais de haute envergure couvrant l'ensemble du domaine de la recherche littéraire de la littérature médiévale jusqu'à l'extrême contemporain La collection offre également une plateforme pour de nouvelles pistes de recherche comme les études de traduction les littératures minoritaires les études du genre et queer l'écologie les sciences humaines médicales études hémisphériques études transatlantiques études de réseaux et sciences sociales ainsi que des réflexions sur les études en littérature française en tant que discipline Faux Titre is a longstanding book series for state of the art research in the field of French language literature's Besides the more classical research in French literature covering the field of Medieval Studies to XXIth century literature the series offers a platform for new directions in literary studies in relation to translation studies minority literatures gender and queer studies ecology medical humanities hemispheric studies transatlantic studies network studies and social sciences as well as reflections on studies in French literature as a discipline Authors are cordially invited to submit proposals and/or full manuscripts to the publisher at BRILL Christa Stevens Please advise our Guidelines for a Book Proposal Political Ethics and European Constitution Paulo Ferreira da Cunha, 2015-06-01 Is the dream of EU endangered This book reviews classic and modern values and virtues and uses them in order to rethink Europe's present politics and its future. The idea of the Republic was born with the political ethics of ancient Greece. The current international crisis obliges Europe to face the mirror of truth. What has become of the European Idea and how fares the European Constitution? It has been a long road from the Greek Politeia to the present lack of values and financial monomania in Europe who seems to have lost any harmony between the spirit, the soul and the body of her Constitution, the will and values of the people, material constitution, the text of the Lisbon Treaty, formal constitution and its current political interpretation and action, real constitution, making Europe a two-tier or three-tier club far from the dream of the founding fathers. Without republican values and virtues and failing to uphold the European social model, the European Union would devolve into moral, social and democratic bankruptcy.

Approaches to Drawing in Architectural and Urban Design Fabio Colonnese, Nuno Grancho, Robin

Schaefferbeke, 2024-04-04 Architects draw for a variety of purposes: they draw to assimilate places and precedents to generate ideas to develop a concept into a consistent project; in a team to communicate ideas and solutions to patrons and clients; and to guide building contractors during the construction stages as well as to produce further elaborations in order to publish their project in a treatise, a journal or their own portfolio. Most importantly, architects draw to think and to manage complexity in a visual way. By taking into account innovative and interdisciplinary uses of architectural drawing in the design process, both historical and current, the collection of chapters and interviews in this book frames a new critical perspective and a uniquely contextual appreciation of drawing as a way to encourage spatial thinking and practice in architecture and urbanism. The authors take the discussion to a new level of philosophical sophistication while also considering drawing in relation to a series of specific engagements with urban development, planning and architecture. Marie Olson, 2014-11-05 In Courtesy Lost Kristina M. Olson analyses the literary impact of the social, political and economic transformations of the fourteenth century through an exploration of Dante's literary and political influence on Boccaccio. The book reveals how Boccaccio rewrote the past through the lens of the Commedia, torn between nostalgia for elite families in decline and the need to promote morality and magnanimity within the Florentine Republic. By examining the passages in Boccaccio's Decameron, De casibus and Esposizioni in which the author rewrites moments in Florentine and Italian history that had also appeared in Dante's Commedia, Olson illuminates the ways in which Boccaccio expressed his deep ambivalence towards the political and social changes of his era. She illustrates this through an analysis of Dante's and Boccaccio's treatments of the idea of courtesy or cortesia in an era when the chivalry of the declining aristocracy was being supplanted by the civility of the rising merchant classes. Italo Calvino and the Compass of Literature Eugenio Bolongaro, 2003-01-01 Looking at five of Italo Calvino's often neglected early novels: The Young People of Po, The Cloven Viscount, The Baron in the Trees, The Non-Existent Knight and The Watcher, Eugenio Bolongaro argues that these works, written between 1948 and 1963, contain a sustained meditation on the role of the intellectual and on the irreducible ethical and political dimension of literature This meditation provides an insight into a crucial moment in Calvino's development as a writer and allows Bolongaro to lay the groundwork for a more political reading of Calvino's later work Italo Calvino and the Compass of Literature firmly situates Calvino within his historical context the cultural revival of post World War II Italy by relating these early novels to Calvino's political and critical writings which played an important role in the cultural debates of the time This approach provides a key to understanding Calvino's work in a new light ably demonstrating that Calvino's full literary significance cannot be understood in isolation from the politics and cultural movements of the period One of the few book length English language works on Calvino's early writings Italo Calvino and the Compass of Literature will prove to be an indispensable tool to Italianists and literary studies scholars

Being a Minor Writer Gail Gilliland, 1994

Petrarch's 'Fragmenta' Thomas E. Peterson, 2016-01-01 Building on recent Petrarch scholarship and broader studies of medieval poetics poetic narrativity and biblical intertextuality this study argues that Petrarch's Rerum vulgarium fragmenta is an ordered and coherent work unified by narrative and theological structures The author begins with the premise that the multiple voices of the Petrarchan figure or subject call for a reading informed by historical and autobiographical considerations Within such a reading the internal chronology of the work coincides with a temporal framework provided by Petrarch's Latin prose and poetry Drawing on this material he argues that Petrarch's derivations from early poets in the Italian vernacular his Augustinianism and his humanism are manifest in the Fragmenta and contribute to its narrative and theological unity

Modern Myths and Medical Consumerism Antonio Lanfranchi, 2018-03-15 Modern Myths and Medical Consumerism is concerned with the loss of a sense of limit in technological medicine today and the way in which the denial of death leads to an uncontrollable consumeristic multiplication of needs Taking its starting point from C G Jung's analytical psychology the book gives a symbolic interpretation based on archetypal philosophical and socio psychoanalytic ideas developed through the author's personal experience moving from the medical to the psychoanalytical paradigm Lanfranchi depicts ideal sources of medicine based on archetypal material drawn from Greek myth and discusses the progressive steps of the doctor's consciousness evolution up to contemporary times Critiquing current medicine and its modern myths the book suggests the prevailing model of economic development is unsustainable and provides prospects of a more contained ecological medicine and an ethical approach that will allow readers to reflect and move towards a more qualified attitude to mortality The book meets the need to transform medicine into a critical domain of human experience capable of providing essential services consistent with the naturalness of death and environmental sustainability As such it will be vital reading to academics in the fields of psychotherapy analytical psychology psychiatry and medicine and those with a philosophical or sociological background

Italo Calvino and Classics, 2024-12-23 In his Memos for the Next Millennium the Italian writer Italo Calvino identified five literary qualities that should accompany writers and readers into the literature of the future lightness quickness exactitude visibility multiplicity Though never finished the Memos continue to inspire readers and scholars This volume turns three of Calvino's poetic qualities lightness quickness multiplicity into powerful hermeneutic strategies for reading ancient and late antique texts ranging widely from Homer's Iliad to Claudian's carmina minora It is the first book to read ancient literature through the lens of Calvino's Memos thus fostering a new discussion of the interactions between modern and ancient texts as well as between methodologies

On Meaning Maria Isabel Aldinhas Ferreira, 2011-05-25 Meaning the complex phenomenon of individuation and the definition of identity are the core theme of this work Grounded on a theoretical framework that gives particular emphasis to the semiotic process common to all forms of cognition human cognition is conceived here as specific of organisms that in the course of their interactions produce symbolic forms defining the specific physical social and cultural environments in which they evolve Individuation inherent to that semiotic process is complex and double sided It involves on one hand the definition of semantic identities and their acknowledgment as world objects naming on the other hand it comprehends the specific lexical and morphosyntactic strategies different languages have found to designate particular entities referring The definition of world objects and its symbolic translation presents variations from language to language In the second part of the book we define what we have called a structure motivated ontology to represent how this symbolic translation is accomplished in English and European Portuguese Plus we try to show how the nature of this symbolic translation affects structural realisation namely the individuation of reference and the construal of one off referring expressions

Labor Imperfectus Jacqueline Fabre-Serris, Marco Formisano, Stavros Frangoulidis, 2023-11-06 Unfinishedness and incompleteness are a central feature of ancient Greek and Roman literature that has often been taken for granted but not deeply examined many texts have been transmitted to us incomplete How and to what extent has this feature of many texts influenced their aesthetic perception and interpretation and how does it still influence them today Also how do various editorial arrangements of fragmentary texts influence the reconstruction of closure These important questions offer the opportunity to bring together specialists working on Greek and Roman texts across various genres epic tragedy poetry mythographic texts rhetorical texts philosophical treatises and the novel Reading a text by focusing on its current unfinishedness or incompleteness or the textual signs suggesting an unfinished or incomplete state the contributors examine the relations between author reader and text as underscored by the verbal generic and aesthetic features of each work This edited volume brings together a broad spectrum of approaches to ancient and modern texts and aims to reach out to a broad scholarly community consisting not only of Classicists but also scholars of other literature and aesthetics

Hermes and Aphrodite Encounters Metka Zupančič, 2004

Contemporary Italian Women Writers and Traces of the Fantastic Danielle Hipkins, 2017-12-02 Contemporary fantastic fiction particularly that written by women often challenges traditional literary practice At the same time the predominantly male authored canon of fantastic literature offers a problematic range of gender stereotypes for female authors to re write Fantastic tropes of space in particular enable three important contemporary Italian female writers

Paola Capriolo b 1962 Francesca Duranti b 1935 and Rossana Ombres b 1931 to encounter and counter anxieties about writing from the female subject All three writers begin by exploring the hermetic fantastic space of enclosure with a critical or troubled eye but eventually opt for wider national and often international spaces in which only a fantastic trace remains This shift mirrors their own increasingly confident distance from male authored literary models and demonstrates the creative input that these writers bring to the literary canon by redefining its generic boundaries Looters, Photographers, and Thieves Pasquale Verdicchio, 2011-04-01 Working toward an analysis of the influence of photography on the construction of an Italian type to serve the mandates of the new nation in the 1860s this book engages the work of writers and photographers who have addressed or participated in this venture From Giovanni Verga and Italo Calvino's writings to the conceptual visual philosophy of Tommaso Campanella and Luigi Ghirri's photography From the Arcadic gaze of Baron von Gloeden to Tina Modotti's revolutionary vision the works analyzed in this book have all contributed in shaping our contemporary visual vocabulary And while Italy is at the center of my considerations the ideas that populate this work are in many ways globally applicable and relevant Looters Photographers and Thieves seeks to contribute to the fascinating discourse on the photographic image and its specific uses in the representation of racial ethnic and gender difference and suggest how the isolation of images according to the dictates of power relations might influence and condition ways of seeing Finally this book is meant as a locus where the images produced in the shaping of notions of citizenship and cultural relevance in nineteenth and twentieth century Italy might reveal the processes of the imaginary As such the arguments and images in each chapter thread through each other to propose ways by which to approach disparate subjects and forms in order to envision photographers themselves as seers rather than gazers

Geotechnical Engineering for the Preservation of Monuments and Historic Sites III Renato Lancellotta, Carlo Viggiani, Alessandro Flora, Filomena de Silva, Lucia Mele, 2022-06-14 This book contains the invited lectures presented at the 3th International Symposium on Geotechnical Engineering for the Preservation of Monuments and Historic Sites IS NAPOLI 2022 Naples Italy 22-24 June 2022 It collects the opening address the third Kerisel Lecture four keynote lectures and eleven panel lectures and provides a broad impression of 1 the current state of knowledge and 2 the techniques used worldwide for the preservation of built heritage When confronted with structures relevant to local and global history there is only one way to select the best possible conservation solution the multidisciplinary approach Therefore the invited speakers have been selected with different pertinent skills to represent this complexity from the points of view of geotechnical engineers structural engineers architects and conservation experts The book will be useful to researchers practitioners administrations and all those working or interested in the preservation of built heritage

Organizational Theory and Aesthetic Philosophies Antonio Strati, 2018-12-12 Diverse philosophies constitute the theoretical ground of the study of the aesthetic side of organization In fact there is not a single unique philosophy behind the organizational research of the aesthetic dimension of organizational life Organizational Theory and Aesthetic Philosophies will illustrate and discuss this complex phenomenon and it will be dedicated to highlight the philosophical basis of the study of aesthetics art and design in organization The book distinguishes three principal philosophical sensibilities amongst these philosophies aesthetic hermeneutic and performative philosophical sensibility Each of them is described and critically assessed through the work of philosophers art theorists sociologists and social scientists who represent its main protagonists In this way the reader will be conducted through the variety of philosophies that constitute a reference for aesthetics and design in organization The architecture of the book is articulated in two parts in order to provide student and scholars in philosophical aesthetics in art in design and in organization studies with an informative and agile instrument for academic research and study The Irish Fairy Tale Vito Carrassi, 2012-03-15

Beginning with a critical reappraisal of the notion of fairy tale and extending it to include categories and genres which are in common usage in folklore and in literary studies this book throws light on the general processes involved in storytelling It illuminates the fundamental ways in which a culture is formed while highlighting important features of the Irish narrative tradition in all its wealth and variety and in its connections with the mythical and historical events of Ireland The Irish Fairy Tale argues that the fairy tale is a kind of neutral zone a place of transition as well as a meeting place for popular beliefs and individual creativity oral tradition and literary works historical sources and imaginary reconstructions and for contrasting and converging views of the world which altogether allow for a deeper and more sophisticated understanding of reality The book focuses on stories by Yeats and Stephens whose approach to the subject marks the culmination of a long tradition of attempts at linking past and present and of bridging the gap between what appear to be contradictory facets of a single culture This leads to a comparative study of Joyce's Dubliners which illustrates the universal and exemplary nature of the notion of fairy tale put forward in the work
