Lherbe Rouge:

The Flight of the Angels Alistair Charles Rolls,2023-11-27 It is a close study of four novels by Boris Vian It aims to show how L'écume des jours L'Automne Pâle L'Herbe rouge and L'Arrache-cœur form a unified and coherent tetralogy By establishing close links between these four texts it becomes possible to achieve a more comprehensive understanding not only of the significance of the tetralogy in exposing a complex and multi layered novelistic strategy at the heart of the vianesque but of the individual novels as autonomous creations An examination of the novels reveals that they are not merely joined to one another via a superficial network of textual similarities that which I refer to as intratextuality but that this intertwining is emblematic of a common method of narrative construction Each Vian novel is dependent for a thorough understanding of the text to be possible upon the multiple lines of external influence running through it The sources of this influence which I refer to as intertextuality are located in various major texts of twentieth century literature anglophone as well as francophone Thus in each instance the narrative is driven by a complicated interaction of intratextuality and intertextuality

From Dreams to Despair J.K.L. Scott,2023-12-18 This book is a study of the novels of Boris Vian the artist writer jazz musician and occasional pornographer Primarily known for his classic novel of doomed young love L'écume des jours and the pseudonymously written erotic roman noir J'irai cracher sur vos tombes his work displays a bewildering variety of styles genres and narrative voices The purpose of this book is to show that Vian's novels in fact display an overall thematic coherence dramatizing the growth of the individual from childhood to adolescent idealism and ultimate adult disillusion Vian is a highly popular author in France this book seeks to prove that he is also a serious literary artist The wordplay pastiche and parody which fill his texts should not blind the reader to the deeper themes and issues which lie behind them just as the protean character of his style should not be allowed to conceal the single integrated narrative which runs throughout his novels

Literature as Sound Studies yasser elhariry,Liesl Yamaguchi,2025-06-12

Literature as Sound Studies identifies literature as a site of sonic invention and reconfiguration contributing a range of terms models and methods for attending to sound Considering literary works drawn from a range of traditions from twentieth century Moroccan poems to early modern English plays Literature as Sound Studies brings out the sophisticated ways that literary writers and commentators have used and studied sound Moving beyond the use of literature as mere ear witness to history this collection brings out the complexity of sonic figuration in literature and literary studies suggesting how this attentiveness to sound might anticipate illuminate and enrich the contemporary field of sound studies The very category of the literary considered as a subset of language writ large has often hinged on the particular attention that literary works draw to their own sound whether that sound be psychologically rehearsed as in silent reading or acoustically realized as in a theatrical performance Weaving together methods and concepts drawn from both literary and sound studies these essays make legible literature's complex role in shaping and writing a history of sound

If I Say If Alistair Rolls,John

West-Sooby, Jean Fornasiero, 2014-06-23 Boris Vian is a rare phenomenon Nothing short of a national treasure in France he is hardly known overseas In his lifetime he divided literary opinion with masterpieces that failed to sell and best sellers that caused outrage trials and even deaths including his own As an impresario he became the figurehead of the jazz scene that marked the French left bank at the end of the Second World War and was responsible for bringing Duke Ellington and Miles Davis to France As a musician he played his trumpet against the advice of cardiologists sang pacifist songs before audiences of outraged patriots and in passing created French rock n roll Posthumously he became known for his theatre film scripts and poetry as well as for his novels And in May 68 he became a revolutionary icon Dictionnaire berbère tachelhiyt - français

Harry Stroemer, 2025-03-13 Tachelhiyt Berber is spoken in Morocco With approximately eight to ten million speakers it is the world's largest Berber language The lexical data for this work were collected over almost forty years from a great number of publications and from various archives These data were studied and checked by the author and enriched by lexical data from the author's own fieldwork In this dictionary Tachelhiyt Berber words and phrase are presented in alphabetic order and written in a clear Latin transcription Meanings of words and phrases are given in French All lexical data in this work are fully referenced This book is the first comprehensive dictionary for Tachelhiyt Berber Gender by the Book Julie

Fette, 2024-10-31 Gender by the Book investigates the gender representations that French children's literature transmits to readers today Using an interdisciplinary mixed methods approach this book grounds its literary analysis in a sociohistorical examination of three key institutions libraries book clubs and subscription magazines that circulate reading material to children It shows how French policies cultural beliefs and market forces influence the content of children's literature including tensions between State support for unprofitable artistic endeavors and a belief in children's right to high quality products on the one hand and suspicion of activism as anathema to creativity and fear of losing boy readers on the other In addition the notion of universalism which asserts that equality is best achieved when society is blind to differences thwarts a diverse and equitable array of literary representations Nevertheless conditions are favorable for 21st century French children's publishers to offer a robust body of richly entertaining egalitarian literature for children This title is freely available as open access thanks to generous support from the Fondren Library at Rice University The War of the Worlds /

Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe Rège, 2009-12-11. Cinema has been long associated with France dating back to 1895 when Louis and Auguste Lumière screened their works, the first public viewing of films anywhere. Early silent pioneers Georges Méliès, Alice Guy Blaché and others followed in the footsteps of the Lumière brothers and the tradition of important filmmaking continued throughout the 20th century and beyond. In Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe Rège identifies every French director who has made at least one feature film since 1895. From undisputed masters to obscure one timers, nearly 3,000 directors are cited here including at least 200 filmmakers not mentioned in similar books published in France. Each director's entry contains a brief biographical summary including dates and places of birth and death, information on the individual's education and professional training and other pertinent details such as real names when the filmmaker uses a pseudonym. The entries also provide complete filmographies including credits for feature films, shorts, documentaries and television work. Some of the most important names in the history of film can be found in this encyclopedia from masters of the Golden Age, Jean Renoir and René Clair, to French New Wave artists such as François Truffaut and Jean-Luc Godard.

Blues for a Black Cat and Other Stories Boris Vian, 2021-08-18. Blues for a Black Cat brings back the nimble Vian in a collection of his short fiction initially published as Les Fourmis in 1949. The work has the unmistakable flavor of the time and place: Claude Abadie's jazz band, the coded and absurdist messages of rebellion, the wistful fables, verbal riffs and goofy anarchic encounters. The mise en scène includes an expiring jazzman who sells his sweat, a cat with a British accent and a piano that mixes a cocktail when Mood Indigo is played.

L'herbe rouge, 1962 L'Esprit créateur, 1980 Towards a Cultural Philology Amy Wygant, 2017-12-02. Amy Wygant reads Racine's Phèdre (1677) through an analysis of its 17th century cultural contexts and a consideration of its subsequent reception history. She explores the construction of Racine's language as musical, the poetics of the Racinean gaze and Racine's labyrinthine eros of memory and forgetting. Reference is made to Lully's operas, the battle between the advocates of colour and the champions of drawing in the Royal Academy of Painting and Sculpture and Le Notre's centreless garden labyrinth at Versailles. These close textual and contextual studies relate the detail of the tragedy to the conceptual sweep of 17th century absolutism. Wygant's interdisciplinary study draws on the music history as well as on emblematics, the history of the formal garden and the arts of memory. Racine's great threnody, the recit de Thérèse, is shown as representative of expressions of loss which lie at the root of early modern literature.

L'écriture vianesque Magdalena Mitura, 2008. Le comique verbal cause de son enracinement dans la forme du signe linguistique et dans la culture est souvent considéré dans la prose littéraire comme la limite du traduisible.
