From The Heart Of The People The Theology Of Gustavo Gutierrez:

From the Heart of the People Curt Cadorette,1988 The Relevance of Bernard Lonergan's Notion of Self-appropriation to a Mystical-political Theology Ian B. Bell,2008 In The Relevance of Bernard Lonergan's Notion of Self Appropriation to a Mystical Political Theology Ian Bell takes on the issue of the separation of the interior and exterior lives that has come to dominate mystical theology over the years The mystical life he claims is necessarily involved in the establishment of social structures and institutions that govern human living and the work of Bernard Lonergan on the human subject provides a means by which the connection between the interior and exterior lives may be established Because human persons operate in a consistent pattern regardless of a given moment's particularities mystical experience is no longer relegated to so called spiritual matters and the insights of mystics may be applied to the Christian call to live as agents of love With this connection in place mystical theology and political theology come together in a theology that is both mystical and political

Gustavo Gutiérrez and the Liberative Sight of Christ Luke Foster,2024-06-28 How can we speak of God as Father in a world that is inhumane While many engagements with Gutiérrez's theology centre on such themes as the option for the poor the role of praxis or the Kingdom of God in Gustavo Gutiérrez and the Liberative Sight of Christ Luke Foster explores the underlying theological convictions and commitments within which these concepts cohere By developing an analysis that is attentive to the unity and coherence of Gutiérrez's thought Foster resources a critique that is distinctive not only in its pertinence but also in the possibilities that it opens for the development of his project in the future Innovatively offering a systemic account of Gutiérrez's theology this book offers both an indispensable overview for those who are engaging with Gutiérrez for the first time and a distinctive analysis for those who are seeking to deepen their understanding of his work

From the Heart of Our People Orlando O. Espín,Miguel H. Díaz,1999-01-01 A Theology of Liberation Marthe Hesselmanns,Jonathan Teubner,2017-07-05 Gutiérrez's 1971 book provides an inspiring argument as to how Christians and the Roman Catholic Church should support the poor The Catholic Church had traditionally seen itself as politically neutral but in the 1960s and 70s reformers such as Gutiérrez urged it to seriously address real world issues such as poverty and oppression

A Tale of Two Theologians Ambrose Mong,2017-03-31 In A Tale of Two Theologians Ambrose Mong's observant new work he examines the writings of the Peruvian theologian Gustavo Gutiérrez and the Indian theologian Michael Amaladoss and gives fresh attention to their main concerns regarding evangelisation and the poor Why he asks is Gutiérrez's liberation theology now accepted and celebrated by the Roman Catholic Church while Amaladoss's Asian theology with a liberation thrust is threatened with censorship Mong argues that the dwindling threat of Communism has made the Marxist overtones of Latin American liberation theology more palatable to the Catholic hierarchy while the challenge of religious pluralism in Asia is as complex and emotive as ever How can the Church learn to balance the need for dialogue between religions with their duty to proclaim the Gospel How can the Church inculturate itself in Asia while maintaining its identity Ambrose Mong tackles these questions with the shrewd clear eyed view of an active priest and scholar exploring the long troubled relationship the Church has with liberation theology and offering guidance for the future

Romero's Legacy Pilar Hogan Closkey, John P. Hogan, 2007-08-04 Pilar Hogan Closkey and John Hogan have brought together the annual Archbishop Oscar Romero Lectures 2001-2007 to consider the life and death of Archbishop Romero and the daily struggles of the poor in our world especially in the city of Camden New Jersey one of America's poorest cities Romero's dangerous memory provides the background while urban poverty and the option for the poor are the foreground Romero's commitment to the poor compels us to look at ourselves and the authors of each chapter remind us of Romero's dangerous memory and his undying hope in the promised future Taken as a whole the book reminds us of the tough questions behind the real meaning of the option for the poor Can we as a faith community and institution move beyond high sounding slogans and really opt for the poor What are the costs What are the risks Especially in these difficult times of war terrorism and scandal can we in the Church rebuild trust and be a sign of a future of justice and peace announced by Jesus

Encyclopedia of Catholicism Frank K. Flinn, 2007 Covers the key people movements institutions practices and doctrines of Roman Catholicism from its earliest origins Resumé A Church Wide Enough for Everyone Steven H. Propp, 2018-02-03 Robert Schaeffer and Douglas West are best friends living in Oklahoma in 1963 when they discover that they both sense a calling to become ministers in a mainline Christian denomination But from seminary and their early years in ministry to their golden years looking back on what it takes to lead a congregation a stimulating sometimes puzzling yet often inspirational world of theological controversies and congregational concerns would unfold for these two men of God A Church Wide Enough for Everyone follows these two men on their journey to demonstrate the continuing relevance of the Christian faith in a postmodern world After moving to Berkeley California to attend college and seminary they have little time to ponder the vast social changes taking place before they immediately enter into intensive critical study of the Bible and Christian theology And as Robert is then thrust into the ordained ministry with his wife Faye both men must in their own ways face the political cultural and ideological pressures of each passing decade responding to challenges from both within the church and from outsiders Are mainline churches and Christian theology dead Or might they be revitalized in the current century A Church Wide Enough for Everyone and the inspired journeys of two ministers offers a window into how this revitalization and new understanding is possible Liberation Theologies Ronald G. Musto, 2020-11-25 First Published in 1991 The following is a comprehensive scholarly bibliography of published materials on the varieties of liberation theology mostly in book form available in English It is intended as an introductory survey to this vast and quickly expanding field for the teacher and student of contemporary theology of biblical hermeneutics and to the interrelationship of politics and religion around the world It will also serve as a comprehensive bibliography Scripture and Ethics Jeffrey S. Siker, 1997 Siker brings together the history of biblical interpretation and the study of uses of the Bible in Christian ethics to examine how the Bible has actually been used in Christian theological ethics and in the process profiling eight influential twentieth century theologians A Prophet to the Peoples Jennie Weiss Block, M. Therese Lysaught, Alexandre A. Martins, 2023-05-04 The Global Theological Ethics book series focuses on works that feature authors from around the world draw on resources from the traditions of Catholic theological ethics and attend to concrete issues facing the world today It advances the Journal of Moral Theology's mission of fostering scholarship deeply rooted in traditions of inquiry about the moral life engaged with contemporary issues and exploring the interface of Catholic moral theology philosophy economics political philosophy psychology and more This series is sponsored in conjunction with the Catholic Theological Ethics and the World Church The CTEWC recognizes the need to dialogue from and beyond local cultures and to interconnect within a world church Its global network of scholars practitioners and activists fosters cross cultural interdisciplinary conversations via conferences symposia and colloquia both in person and virtually about critical issues in theological ethics shaped by shared visions of hope

Dreams of Peace and Freedom Jay Winter, 2008-10-01 In the wake of the monstrous projects of Hitler Stalin Mao and others in the twentieth century the idea of utopia has been discredited Yet historian Jay Winter suggests alongside the major utopians who murdered millions in their attempts to transform the world were disparate groups of people trying in their own separate ways to imagine a radically better world This original book focuses on some of the twentieth century's minor utopias whose stories overshadowed by the horrors of the Holocaust and the Gulag suggest that the future need not be as catastrophic as the past The book is organized around six key moments when utopian ideas and projects flourished in Europe 1900 the Paris World's Fair 1919 the Paris Peace Conference 1937 the Paris exhibition celebrating science and light 1948 the Universal Declaration of Human Rights 1968 moral indictments and student revolt and 1992 the emergence of visions of global citizenship Winter considers the dreamers and the nature of their dreams as well as their connections to one another and to the history of utopian thought By restoring minor utopias to their rightful place in the recent past Winter fills an important gap in the history of social thought and action in the twentieth century The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Latino/a Theology Orlando O. Espin, 2015-07-29 Latino/a Theology Edited by Orlando O. Espin The one volume Companion to Latino/a Theology presents a systematic survey of the past present and future of Latino/a theology introducing readers to this significant US theological movement Contributors to the Companion include many established scholars of the highest caliber together with some new and exciting voices within the various theological disciplines A mixture of Catholic Protestant and Evangelical scholars they discuss the publications and contributions of theologians who reflect from and participate in the faith and realities of US Latino/a communities providing unparalleled breadth and depth in the discussion of the key issues each chapter begins with a summary of the theological publications and thought within Latino/a theology and then proceeds to develop a constructive contribution on the topic This invaluable and unique Companion edited by one of the foremost Latino theologians currently working and writing in the field is fully ecumenical comprehensive and wholly representative of the wide range of ecclesial and theological traditions It will become both an important resource for scholars and an unparalleled introduction to the entire discipline A luminous assemblage of voices lucid and experimental as divergent from each other as they are connected in a telos a de conjunto crucial not just for one complex US context but for the life and future of theology itself Catherine Keller Drew Theological School

Confronting the Mystery of God Gaspar Martinez, 2002-05-13 A highly insightful study of three major movements in Roman Catholic theology over the past thirty years This fascinating work of theological scholarship offers an exceptionally broad scope and powerfully unifying theme Gaspar Martinez first offers penetrating interpretations of three major contemporary theologians working on three continents in quite dissimilar historical cultural social and economic situations Then he goes on to illustrate how Johannes Metz Gustavo GutiTrrez and David Tracy each had a tense ongoing relationship to the mid twentieth century theologians and movements that formed them Karl Rahner nouvelle theologie and Bernard Lonergan respectively Martinez brilliantly contextualizes each of these thinkers In broad strokes he sketches postwar Germany postcolonial Peru and the American century and shows how each man was formed by his era He also examines the lines of influence and relationship between these theologians and some of their nontheological contemporaries Metz and Adorno Bloch and Benjamin GutiTrrez and Paulo Freire JosT Carlos Mariategui and the novelist JosT Marfa Arguedas and Tracy and thinkers from Eliade and Ricoeur to Gadamer and Derrida Martinez convincingly illustrates how each of these theologians in recent years has focused more directly on the mystery of God entailing greater emphasis on spirituality and mysticism with the consequence that the more properly theological their theologies have become the more they have become negative theologies

Divine Revolution Dean Brackley, 2004-09-27 A compelling exploration of one of the central issues if not the central issue facing theology in our time the relation between transcendent salvation and temporal liberation What does the salvation that the church proclaims mean for the poor of the world In Divine Revolution Dean Brackley presents in a comprehensive yet manageable way what Catholic theology has to say about this complex and urgent topic He addresses the historical as well as the systematic dimensions of the question providing insights that point toward an understanding of the issues that challenge conservative and liberal interpretations alike In a work of great daring and clarity Brackley surveys the confusion surrounding the social historical dimension of salvation in Catholic thought He shows the irony of the fact that after 2 000 years what salvation means for the poor in relationship to their concrete plight remains a quaestio disputata for official Magisterial teaching Going deeply into the relationship of salvation and liberation Brackley explores the thought of Maritain Rahner and Gutierrez to demonstrate how the synbolon of the Reign of God that Jesus announces transcends the tired theological distinctions of all sides in the debate Drawing from developments in feminist and Protestant theology as well as contemporary social theory Divine Revolution offers a fresh understanding of what it means to participate in God s revolutionary reign Catholic tradition Brackley argues has great potential to articulate a hope which responds to the suffering of the poor in our time When conventional wisdom says compassion fatigued Americans are tired of hearing about the poor Brackley responds The poor are far more tired of being poor They too would like to move on to other things but they cannot

A Heart for the Community John Fuder,Noel Castellanos,2013-08-28 Our nation used to look at violence poverty and gentrification and assign those problems to urban centers Today these issues concern the suburbs too The Christian community is responding to this reality Churches and parachurch ministries are actively working to transform lives and restore communities throughout the city and suburbs In A Heart for the Community New Models for Urban and Suburban Ministry you will be challenged by a collection of voices seeking community renewal These individuals are involved in creative church planting initiatives and they are serving the growing Hispanic and Muslim populations Additional endeavors include serving racially changing communities economic development strategies and more As anyone who has been in ministry for any length of time can attest tackling some of the most challenging issues of our times is no mere academic exercise The voices within these pages write from experience and offer workable vibrant models of ministry that make a difference

From Conquest to Struggle David B. Batstone,1991-01-01 This book goes to the very heart of the passionate debate over the true character of Christian faith and practice The advance of liberation theology in the Latin American church has caused international reverberations within both the religious and political worlds The Vatican was moved to denounce it as heretical and the Reagan Bush administration has deemed it a significant threat to the stability of the region Here Batstone evaluates the writings of liberation theologians as they consider the central figure of Christian faith Jesus of Nazareth and asks whether a message of liberation for the poor and oppressed actually springs from the life and teachings of Jesus or is merely a religious projection of activists bent on radical social transformation The judgment given to that issue will weigh heavily in the debate which currently rages in religious communities and seminaries over the political role and responsibility of the church Batstone s work links these discussions to the concrete lives of the Latin American people and in that sense goes beneath the text and examines the subtext of religious reflection Chapters present events and stories that originate in the daily realities of contemporary Latin America and then consider what connection these experiences have to the story of Jesus of Nazareth

The Freedom of God James Daryn Henry,2018-05-30 The Freedom of God wrangles with the unfolding legacy of Christian theologian Robert Jenson and presents the first in depth study of his teaching on the Holy Spirit It is a specialist monograph that will entice those with interest in academic theology systematics and twentieth and twenty first century Christian thought especially the post Barthian historicist electionism and the post Rahnerian immanent and economic trinitarian project conversations Devoted readers of the works of Robert Jenson scholars of pneumatology third article theology or pentecostal renewal movements practitioners of liberation theology and supporters of ecumenical theology will all be particularly gripped by the analysis developed in this work As a text the Freedom of God could find a home in graduate seminars seminary classrooms and in classes for advanced undergraduates for those studying

Jenson as a way into systematic theology and contemporary Christian thought or in any thematic doctrinal courses on the Holy Spirit or the Trinity Encountering Cruelty: The Fracture of the Human Heart Michael Trice, 2011-04-21 Drawing on Nietzsche's challenge to the western tradition this book is a theological exploration of cruelty in its personal communal and institutional encounters in human life Cruelty undermines care trust respect and justice and its study opens a window into the theological possibility of reconciliation today
