Golden Years of Solihull True North Holdings, 2002-11-01 Chain Stores in the Golden Age of the British High Street Kathryn A Morrison, 2025-05-08 Familiar multiples like Boots Burton s Marks Spencer and Woolworth s plus a host of smaller chains forged the character of Britain s high streets in the late 19th and 20th centuries Multiple retailing was a supremely successful phenomenon loved by thrifty shoppers but feared by independent competitors It is explored here through the lens of its shops and stores which are generously illustrated with archive and modern photographs These range from the Edwardian grandeur of Boots to the Art Deco splendour of Burton s and the utilitarian post war buildings of Littlewoods Smaller chains are not neglected even if all that survives are weathered signs or mosaic pavements The time is ripe for a study of chain stores Britain s retail giants have been under scrutiny since the shocking collapse of Woolworth s in 2009 followed by BHS in 2016 Online shopping was already undermining bricks and mortar retailing when the COVID pandemic struck in 2020 accelerating the process The recent demise of Debenhams Arcadia Wilko and others leaves vast empty premises in town centres nationwide Our high streets are changing but their legacy of chain store buildings can play a constructive role in repurposing them for future generations Anatomy of a Killing Ian Cobain, 2021-05-08 A concise and gripping history of the Troubles revealing the people behind the pain and violence from the award winning investigative journalist Vice On the morning of Saturday 22nd April 1978 members of an Active Service Unit of the IRA hijacked a car and crossed the countryside to the town of Lisburn Within an hour they had killed an off duty policeman in front of his young son In Anatomy of a Killing award winning journalist Ian Cobain documents the hours leading up to the killing and the months and years of violence attrition and rebellion surrounding it Drawing on interviews with those most closely involved as well as court files police notes military intelligence reports IRA strategy papers memoirs and government records this is a unique perspective on the Troubles and a revelatory work of investigative journalism As gripping as a thriller except that this isn t fiction but cold spine tingling reality Daily Mail A remarkable piece of forensic journalism Ed Moloney author of Voices from the Grave Reads like a work of fiction True and harrowing Irish Sunday Independent Books of the Year The Gold Neil Forsyth, Thomas Turner, 2023-02-16 The real story that inspired the BBC drama The Gold On Saturday 26 November 1983 an armed gang stole gold bullion worth almost 26 million from the Brink s Mat security depot near London s Heathrow Airport It was the largest robbery in world history and only the start of an extraordinary story For forty years myths and legends have grown around the Brink s Mat heist and the events that followed The heist led to a wave of international money laundering provided dirty money that helped fuel the London Docklands property boom caused seismic changes in both British crime and policing and has been linked to a series of deaths that continued until 2015 The Gold is the conclusion of extensive research and includes exclusive testimony from one of the original robbers who gives his version of events for the first time The result is the astonishing true story of the robbery of the century Life after Tragedy Michael W. Brierley, Georgia A.

Byrne,2018-01-01 Much has been written on the centenary of the First World War however no book has yet explored the tragedy of the conflict from a theological perspective This book fills that gap Taking their cue from the famous British army chaplain Geoffrey Studdert Kennedy seven central essays all by authors associated with the cathedral where Studdert Kennedy first preached to troops examine aspects of faith that featured in the war such as the notion of home poetry theological doctrine preaching social reform humanitarianism and remembrance Each essay applies its reflections to the life of faith today The essays thus represent a highly original contribution to the history of the First World War in general and the work of Studdert Kennedy in particular and they provide wider theological insight into how in the contemporary world life and tragedy God and suffering can be integrated The book will accordingly be of considerable interest to historians both of the war and of the church to communities commemorating the war and to all those who wrestle with current challenges to faith A foreword by Studdert Kennedy s grandson and an afterword by the bishop of Magdeburg in Germany render this a volume of remarkable depth and worth The Perfect Distance Pat Butcher,2012-10-18 The definitive fully authorised story of the record breaking rivalry between London Olympics organiser Sebastian Coe and Steve Ovett Steve Ovett and Sebastian Coe presided over the golden era of British athletics Between them they won three Olympic gold medals two silvers one bronze and broke a total of twelve middle distance records They were part of the landscape of the late seventies and early eighties both household names their exploits were watched by millions As far apart as possible in terms of class and upbringing Ovett is the art student the long haired son of a market trader from Brighton a natural athlete Coe s formative years were spent under the rigorous training routine of Peter Coe a self taught trainer who referred to his son as my athlete their rivalry burned as intense on the track as away from it The pendulum swung between the pair of them each breaking the other s records and memorably triumphing in each other s events in Moscow in 1980 for the best part of a decade until the final showdown at the Los Angeles Olympics in 1984 The Perfect Distance is both a detailed re creation and a fitting celebration of the greatest era of British athletics British Sport: Local histories Richard William Cox,2003 Volume three of a bibliography documenting all that has been written in the English language on the history of sport and physical education in Britain It lists all secondary source material including reference works in a classified order to meet the needs of the sports historian Film Making ,1978 Shire Horse Stud Book Shire Horse Society,1917 Gold Nick Skelton,2017-10-19 With a show jumping career spanning over forty years Nick Skelton is a legend in the equestrian world No other rider has won so many major competitions on so many different horses and he is as popular at Olympia and Hickstead as he is at Aachen Geneva Paris and Spruce Meadows Skelton has competed in eight Olympic Games He was part of the gold medal winning Great Britain team at London 2012 and made history by winning the individual Olympic gold medal at Rio 2016 riding at the age of fifty eight his beloved horse Big Star Nick Skelton began riding at the age of eighteen months on a Welsh pony called Oxo At the age of seventeenth in 1975 Skelton took team silver and individual gold at the Junior

Assembling cultures Jack Saunders,2019-05-10 In British political discourse the idea that in the 1970s trade unions ran the country has become a truism a folk mythology invoked against the twin perils of socialism and strikes But who exactly wielded power in Britain s workplaces and on what terms Assembling cultures takes a fine grained look at factory activism in the motor industry between 1945 and 1982 using car manufacturing as a key case for unpicking important narratives around affluence declinism and class It traces the development of the militant car worker stereotype and looks at the real social relations that lay behind car manufacturing s reputation for conflict In doing so this book reveals a changing complex world of social practices cultural norms and shared values and expectations From relatively meagre interwar trade union traditions

during the post war period car workers developed shop floor organisations of considerable authority enabling some to make new demands of their working lives but constraining others in their more radical political aims Assembling cultures documents in detail a historic process where from the 1950s groups and individuals set about creating and reproducing collective power and asks what that meant for their lives This is a story of workers and their place in the power relations of post war Britain This book will be invaluable to lecturers and students studying the history sociology and politics of post war Britain particularly those with an interest in power rationality class labour gender and race The detailed analysis of just how solidarity organisation and collective action were generated will also prove useful to trade union activists The Gardener's Year Book ,1927 THEN: Science Fiction Fandom in the UK: 1930-1980 Rob Hansen,2016 Zeppelin Onslaught Ian Castle,2018-05-30 A riveting account of the first sustained strategic aerial bombing campaign in history by German airships on Britain in the First World War At the outbreak of the Great War the United Kingdom had no aerial defense capability worthy of the name Britain had just thirty guns to defend the entire country with all but five of these considered of dubious value So when raiding German aircraft finally appeared over Britain the response was negligible and ineffective Of Britain s fledgling air forces the Royal Flying Corps had accompanied the British Expeditionary Force into Europe leaving the Royal Naval Air Service to defend the country as best it could That task was not an easy one From the first raid in December 1914 aerial attacks gradually increased through 1915 culminating in highly damaging assaults on London in September and October London however was not the only recipient of German bombs with counties from Northumberland to Kent also experiencing the indiscriminate death and destruction found in this new theater of war the Home Front And when the previously unimagined horror of bombs falling from the sky began the British population was initially left exposed and largely undefended as civilians were killed in the streets or lying asleep in their beds The face of war had changed forever and those raids on London in the autumn of 1915 finally forced the government to pursue a more effective defense against air attack This German air campaign against the UK was the first sustained strategic aerial bombing campaign in history Yet it has become the forgotten Blitz In Zeppelin Onslaught Ian Castle tells the complete story of the 1915 raids in unprecedented detail in what is the first in a planned three book series Land Rover James Taylor,2013-04-22 The Land Rover has become an icon across the world famed for its classic design its practicality and its longevity In this revised edition of his acclaimed book first issued as Land Rover 60 Years of the 4 x 4 Workhouse James Taylor charts sixty five years of Land Rover development in comprehensive detail bringing the story right up to date with the latest Defender variants Contents include Prototypes and development vehicles Standard production models The special editions Land Rovers built outside the UK Special conversions Military variants The Land Rovers that never were The first book to look at the story of the Land Rover s gradual evolution Comprehensively researched extensively illustrated and accessibly presented this will be an indispensable read for all those who have an interest in the legend that is Land Rover Superbly illustrated with 476 colour photographs
