Bryan, 2010-03-15 Relying on an astounding collection of more than three decades of firsthand research Frank M Bryan examines one of the purest forms of American democracy the New England town meeting At these meetings usually held once a year all eligible citizens of the town may become legislators they meet in face to face assemblies debate the issues on the agenda and vote on them And although these meetings are natural laboratories for democracy very few scholars have systematically investigated them A nationally recognized expert on this topic Bryan has now done just that Studying 1 500 town meetings in his home state of Vermont he and his students recorded a staggering amount of data about them 238 603 acts of participation by 63 140 citizens in 210 different towns Drawing on this evidence as well as on evocative witness accounts from casual observers to no lesser a light than Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn Bryan paints a vivid picture of how real democracy works Among the many fascinating questions he explores why attendance varies sharply with town size how citizens resolve conflicts in open forums and how men and women behave differently in town meetings In the end Bryan interprets this brand of local government to find evidence for its considerable staying power as the most authentic and meaningful form of direct democracy Giving us a rare glimpse into how democracy works in the real world Bryan presents here an unorthodox and definitive book on this most cherished of American institutions Explorer's Guide Northern California (Explorer's Complete) Michele Bigley, 2011-10-01 In addition to tourist attractions such as the Fisherman's Wharf this guide presents the authentic Northern California experience Explorer's Guide Northern California offers the most up to date information on the region from Big Sur to Yosemite north to the Oregon Border while urging travelers to understand the impact of their footprint on the land With detailed descriptions of lodging options honest reviews of restaurants from taco trucks to upscale bistros cultural attractions natural wonders recreation transportation history scattered throughout each listing over 100 photos and maps readers will feel like they are getting a tour around this beautiful land from an old friend
