If you feel besotted by the hoopla over what is happening to the news business these days over how the frenetic marketplace and rampaging technology seem to be placing everything up for grabs then here is a welcome piece of clarity and insight. Everyone from Luddites to early adopters can benefit from Nancy Maynard's nonhysterical nondefensive nonjargon and delightfully nonlengthy analysis. The news business today she aptly writes is like the Wild West in digital drag. But Maynard, a veteran journalist, businessperson, and educator, takes a straightforward approach to demystifying this superheated environment. She identifies seven forces driving the future of news and offers clearheaded analysis, sensible predictions, and some measured but wise advice. Her work is characterized by balance and open-mindedness. She clearly has a point of view, the love of journalism, particularly the kind that serves the public interest with robustness and diversity. But she is no oldtimer flailing away at all things modern. She understands the business imperative she and late husband Robert Maynard owned the Oakland Tribune; she appreciates technological advance and she seems comfortable with change. Excerpted from August 2000 review by Carl Sessions Stepp, Senior Editor, American Journalism Review.
