painting by Cornelisz van Haarlem from an examination of Goltzius's Tabula Cebetis as a representation of artistic virtue to an exploration of the virtues of amateur landscape in the seventeenth century Netherlands. The volume also reconsiders the relationship between virtue and net and rouw painting particularly with reference to the definition of sprezzatura in Castiglione's Book of the Courtier. Or readers can compare Rubens's self-identification with virtue through humanist friendship with Jan Brueghel the Elder's reference as a court painter to the virtue and diligence of both his conduct and his art. Within a wide range of subject matter and approaches, the authors share a commitment to establishing the place of virtue at the heart of Netherlandish art. From Vulcan's Forge Frits Scholten, Monique Verber, Liechtenstein Museum (Vienna, Austria), 2005
