

Sailing

We're setting off
Inside our skiff
To skirr the ocean vast,
To raise the sail
And let the wind
Balloon it from the mast.

We'll chase the waves
And cut them till
They froth a foamy white;
We'll ride the current till
The craggy shore
Is out of sight.

Then when the sun
Is overhead,
Across the deck we'll lie;
And lift our feet
Up in the air
And walk the endless sky.

Hearing Sappho in New Orleans Ruth Salvaggio, 2012-06-13 While sifting through trash in her flooded New Orleans home Ruth Salvaggio discovered an old volume of Sappho's poetry stained with muck and mold In her efforts to restore the book Salvaggio realized that the process reflected how Sappho's own words were unearthed from the refuse of the ancient world Undertaking such a task in New Orleans she sets out to recover the city's rich poetic heritage while searching through its flooded debris Hearing Sappho in New Orleans is at once a meditation on this poetic city its many languages and cultures and a history of its forgotten poetry Using Sappho's fragments as a guide Salvaggio roams the streets and neighborhoods of the city as she explores the migrations of lyric poetry from ancient Greece through the African slave trade to indigenous America and ultimately to New Orleans The book also directs us to the lyric call of poetry the voice always in search of a listener Writing in a post Katrina landscape Salvaggio recovers and ponders the social consequences of the long song lyric chants especially the voices of women lost in time as it resonates from New Orleans's poetic sites like Congo Square where Africans and Indians gathered in the early eighteenth century to the modern day Maple Leaf Bar where poets still convene on Sunday afternoons She recovers for example an all but forgotten young Creole woman named L I and leads us all the way up to celebrated contemporary writers such as former Louisiana poet laureate Brenda Marie Osbey Sybil Kein Nicole Cooley and Katherine Soniat Hearing Sappho in New Orleans is a reminder of poetry's ability to restore and secure fragile and fragmented connections in a vulnerable and imperiled world English Composition by Practice Edward Richard

Shaw,1892 Textual Events Felix Budelmann,Tom Phillips,2018-03-16 Recent decades have seen a major expansion in our understanding of how early Greek lyric functioned in its social political and ritual contexts and the fundamental role song played in the day to day lives of communities groups and individuals has been the object of intense study This volume places its focus elsewhere and attempts to illuminate poetic effects that cannot be captured in functional terms alone Employing a range of interpretative methods it explores the idea of lyric performances as textual events Some chapters investigate the pragmatic relationship between real performance contexts and imaginative settings while others consider how lyric poems position themselves in relation to earlier texts and textual traditions or discuss the distinctive encounters lyric poems create between listeners authors and performers Individual lyric texts and authors such as Sappho Alcaeus and Pindar are analysed in detail alongside treatments of the relationship between lyric and the Homeric Hymns Building on the renewed concern with the aesthetic in the study of Greek lyric and beyond Textual Events aims to re examine the relationship between the poems formal features and their historical contexts Lyric poems are a type of socio political discourse but they are also objects of attention in themselves They enable reflection on social and ritual practices as much as they are embedded within them As well as expressing cultural norms lyric challenges listeners to think about and experience the world afresh Short Standard Poems Mary Emerson,1886 Arvelon: a First Poem William James Dawson,1878 The Hermit, a Poem, and Miscellaneous Verse Thomas Norton,2023-03-07 Reprint of the original first published in 1872 English for Use John Harrie Beveridge,Belle M. Gilbert,2024-06-27 From long haired Fleshly Poets to intense ultra pre Raphaelite artists few stylistic movements in the history of art and literature have provoked the imagination and indignation of British playwrights as much as the Aesthetic Movement During an intense and short lived period from 1877 to 1881 the London stage saw fierce competition as playwrights and theatre managers raced to capture the zeitgeist capitalizing on the unorthodox eccentric and highly theatrical proponents of the Aesthetic Movement The quite too utterly utter Apostles of this new school were satirized to such an extent that the Illustrated London News 1881 complained that the London stage was thickly sown over with a crop of lilies and sunflowers with aesthetes in every burlesque and comic opera produced This edited volume brings the four key plays satirizing the Aesthetic Movement together for the first time in an easily accessible format allowing scholars and students to discover their secrets The Grasshopper by John Hollingshead Gaiety Theatre 1877 Where s The Cat by James Alberty Criterion 1880 The Colonel by F C Burnand Prince of Wales s Theatre 1881 Patience by W S Gilbert Opera Comique Savoy 1881 Including a brief introduction by Dr Devon Cox providing background and context to the dynamic symbiotic relationship between the Aesthetic Movement and the British stage and complete with biographical notes and an introduction to each play Aesthetic Movement Satire A Dramatic Anthology shines a light on this explosive flashpoint in British Theatre Poems: A Concise Anthology Elizabeth Renker,2016-03-15 Presenting a broad range of fully annotated selections from the long history of poetry in English this anthology provides a rich and extensive resource for teaching traditional canons and forms as well as experimental and alternate trajectories such as Language poetry and prose poetry In addition to a chronological table of contents suited to a literary historical course framework the volume offers a list of conceptual and thematic teaching units called Poems in Conversation Instructors will find the Conversations helpful for lesson plans students will find them equally helpful as a resource for presentation and paper topics Headnotes to each poet are designed to be useful to both instructors and students in the classroom for instructors new to particular poets the headnotes will provide helpful grounding in the most current scholarship for students they will provide frameworks and explanations to help them approach unfamiliar texts As a unique feature in the current market this anthology also incorporates contemporary song lyrics from alternative indie rap and hip hop songs fully integrated into the Conversations as rich material for teaching in the under graduate classroom
