Good Business Leadership Flow And The Making Of Meaning:

Good Business Mihaly Csikszentmihalyi, 2004-03-30 Since Mihaly Csikszentmihalyi published the groundbreaking Flow more than a decade ago world leaders such as Tony Blair and former President Clinton and influential sports figures like Super Bowl champion coach Jimmy Johnson have all been inspired by the book. In today's corporate upheaval a new business paradigm is evolving. While many CEOs are being exposed for their greed truly visionary leaders believe in a goal that benefits themselves as well as others. They realize that it is their vision and soul that attract loyal employees willing to go above and beyond the call of corporate duty. And their employees are realizing the same thing while 80 percent of adults claim they'd work even if they didn't have to. The majority of them can hardly wait to leave their jobs and get home. Good Business starts with the premise that this is an age in which business and work have replaced religion and politics as central forces in contemporary life. The book reveals how business leaders, managers and even employees can find their flow and contribute not only to their own happiness but also to a just and evolving society. It identifies the factors crucial to the operation of a good business: trust, the commitment to fostering the personal growth of employees and the dedication to creating a product that helps mankind. Good Business is sure to become a must-read text for anyone who values the positive contributions of individuals in the changing world of business. Companies with an authentic purpose outperform the market by 42% according to recent research. They deliver better financial performance, more employee engagement and greater competitive advantage. In organisations around the world the pressure is on. Whether this is increasing consumer expectations, widening inequality or the growing disillusionment with globalization, the need to stay viable is greater than ever. The lauded leadership styles that were finely adapted to our past reality will not carry us forward. Powered by Purpose outlines the four core leadership capacities that you need to help you feel alive at work, lead an enthusiastic team and generate competitive advantage: 1. Cultivate Leadership Presence: how you can act in a way that others are inspired to follow. 2. Make Dialogue Authentic: how to talk about what matters most, including people's long-term wellbeing. 3. Engage your Stakeholders: how to articulate your purpose in a way that engages and energises people. 4. Connect on Purpose: how to embody purpose so that it becomes part of your corporate DNA and day-to-day decision making. The full text downloaded to your computer.
